Harry Stevens, of the south side, raised thirteen thousand bushels of corn this season. Last August he contracted to sell several thousand bushels at fifty cents per bushel.

Try an expert watchmaker if your watch does not keep good time. CLINTON, The Bizzy Jeweler.

Merchants report a fairly active Christmas trade this week, and look for a rush next week on account of payday coming early in the week. A large country trade is also anticipated. Local merchants have brought in attractive lines for the holiday trade and can supply the wants of all.

For Sale—Pure Bred Black Langshan Roosters, price $1.00 803 East 5th. 93-3

C. F. Temple, who is handling the Cody addition, reports the sale of 150 lots since Monday morning. There were 190 lots platted, and up to last evening but forty remained unsold. That's "going some"—especially for an addition that is situated sixteen blocks from the main street of the town. The site is an admirable one. Colonel Cody should certainly feel satisfied with the rapid manner in which the lots have sold.

Herman Sagesser was called to Falls City Wednesday by the illness of a relative.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Richards will leave in a few days for Odessa to spend the Xmas holidays.

Mrs. Geo. T. Field accompanied by her mother, sister and nephew will leave the first of the year for Southern California where they will spend the winter.

Coal-burning locomotives will be discarded on the Northwestern railroad west of the Missouri river March 1, on which date every one of the 165 loco motives will have been converted into oil burners. The oil will come from the Casper fields.

John Burke vs John Kunkle was a case before the district court this week. Kunkle after ordering an automobile from Mr. Burke wished to cancel the order and Mr. Burke sued for his commission. The jury found for the defendant.

We have the finest line of Perolyn Ivory toilet and manicure articles in the city. Prices the lowest. DIXON, The Jeweler.

At the meeting of the county commissioners Saturday, the principal business transacted was the allowance of claims amounting to several thousand dollars. Claims aggregating about ten thousand dollars had accumulated, but through the payment of personal taxes of the railroad companies the commissioners will be enabled to issue the warrants for practically all claims on file. The commissioners will meet again December 18th.

The first students' recital of The North Platte School of Music for this season was given at the studios by pupils of Mrs. Cramer and Mrs. Langston on Friday evening, Dec. 6th. The program occupied half an hour and was followed by criticisms and suggestions from the teachers. These recitals will be given fortnightly, with the idea of assisting the students in gaining self confidence and in giving them an opportunity of becoming familiar with the better class of music. The recital Friday evening was creditable both to teachers and pupils.
