Local and Personal.

Earl Carpenter returned Sunday from an extended visit in Curtis and left yesterday morning for Denver.

Alice, the two year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bartle C. McGovern, who live north of town, died yesterday afternoon after a short illness. Relatives from town left by auto today to attend the funeral services.

A special meeting of the Boys' Club of the Episcopal church will be held on Wednesday evening of this week in the Parish house. All members are requested to be present as this will be the last meeting of the year. There will also be some more important work to take care of.

The price of hogs is being steadily being pounded down, the bulk in South Omaha yesterday selling close to the $7.00 mark. The drop during the past month has been in the neighborhood of a dollar. It is predicted that the price will drop to below $7.00.

Edson Rich, representing the Union Pacific, notified the state railway commission yesterday that the company would refuse to obey the order of the commission to build a depot at Gandy. That will cause the Gandyites to go wild in their denunciations of the Union Pacific.

C. A. Seaton, of Wellfleet, is in town today looking for a house preparatory to moving here. He has just returned from New York state, where he went a year ago and purchased a farm. He didn't like "to farm with a hoe," and returned to Nebraska. He says a man who has farmed in Nebraska is not satisfied to farm in the east.

Front street around Derreberry & Forbes' store presented a very animated appearance Saturday afternoon when a crowd of several hundred boys and girls congregated to receive buttons which the firm distributed. These buttons were numbered, several of the numbers were duplicated, and when these duplications were found the holders were presented with prizes ranging in value from fifty cents to $1.50. About 1,000 buttons were distributed, and a number of the boys and girls received prizes.

The Lutheran Aid Society will be entertained Thursday afternoon by Mesdames Metten, Hansen and Hush at the home of the former.

The city has been asked to place an arc light at the intersection of Fifth and Locust street. When the new postoffice is opened that corner will be one of the busy points in the city.

Several cars on an east bound freight were derailed one mile west of Paxton the latter part of the week by a broken wheel. The damage to the stock and cars amounted to $1,300.

Just received a car of furnace size coke. One ton equivalent to two tons of soft coal—no ash, no soot, no trouble, white heat. $8.50 per ton delivered, while it lasts.
Phone No. 7 The C. F. Iddings Co.

The annual Junior State Corn contest will be held in Lincoln from January 20th to 25th. $1,020 will be given in premiums and prizes. A number of the boys and girls of Lincoln county schools will enter.

Mrs. B. P. Baker Dead.
Friends in town received word this week of the death of Mrs. B. P. Baker, formerly of this city at Union Grove, Ill. Mrs. Baker's illness was of short duration, death following a few hours after she was taken ill with neuralgia of the heart. Mrs. Baker lived in this city for a number of years and was a devoted member of the M. E. church a charitable woman whose kindness of heart and hands were extended to all of her acquaintances. One year ago she moved to Union Grove with her husband.

Emily Adelia Greenlee was born in Knox county, Ohio, June 4, 1836, and when seventeen years of age moved to Illinois where she was married to B. P. Baker on Dec. 13, 1855, and to this union were born eleven children, six of which with her aged husband survive her. The bereaved family are Mrs. W. B. Bull of Union Grove, Mrs. J. R. Cosselman of Sheridan, E. P. Baker, of Union Grove, E. J. Baker of McCook, B. D. and F. M. Baker of Sheridan, a brother A. W. Greenlee of Lynden. Others to mourn her are twenty-three grand-children and thirteen great grand-children. Interment was made in the Union Grove cemetery.

In the police court yesterday P. J. Smith was fined ten dollars and costs for exceeding the speed limit in driving an auto. Smith, who is an automobile machinist, was trying out Harry Dixon's car Saturday evening and in turning a corner ran into W. F. Godby, who was riding a bicycle. Godby was severely bruised and his wheel broken, and one of the lamps on the car shattered. Godby, with the understanding that Smith would make good the damage, declined to have him arrested, but officer Otten filed a complaint against Smith for exceeding the speed limit.

B. D. Baker, of Sheridan, spent yesterday in town while enroute home from Union Grove where he was called by the death of his mother.
