The placing of the double track in service enables trains to get over the district with much more celerity and as a result fewer crews are required. One year ago the freight crews running west of here exceeded twenty; now there are but thirteen, and this in the face of a somewhat increased number of cars handled through the local yards.

The engine and train crews in services, however, are making good money.

If you have not already purchased lots in Cody addition, phone Temple at once and let him show them to you.

Thirty-six members of the Harmony club and an equal number of guests were entertained Friday evening by the men members of the club at the Masonic hall, and as a lively, jolly and enjoyable gathering it was a marked success.

Card playing and dancing were the entertaining features, the music for the evening being furnished by Mrs. Cramer, Prof. Garlich and Harry Huffman. Many of the old square dances were introduced, and in these some of the older "boys and girls" participated with a spirit and liveliness that occasioned much mirth. It was indeed a gathering of congenial people and the pleasures of the evening could not have been greater. The refreshments, served by the men were elaborate, consisting of cold turkey, escalloped oyster, rolls, salad, pickles, coffee, ice cream and cake, with cigars for the men as the last course.
