No. 4

Local and Personal

Dr. D. E. Morrill is figuring on erecting a new home this year on his corner lot on west Fourth street, which by the way is one of the most slightly locations in the whole town.

F. J. Diener and company is the name of a new firm that will transact a general real estate business with an office in the McDonald block at the corner of Dewey and Front.

E. R. Goodman and family expect to take possession of their new residence on west Fourth next week. The interior work has been about completed; the exterior will be finished in the spring.

The Rincker Book and Drug Co., district agent for The Ladies Home Journal, Saturday Evening Post and Country Gentlemen. Please call for the latest Good Dressing magazine and Ladies' Fashion sheet free.

Harry Lamplugh has a rather unique advertisement on Front street in the shape of an immense block of ice in which is frozen an evergreen wreath and the letters "Lamplugh's Spring Water Ice."

Miss Fenton, late of Fort Dodge, Iowa, arrived Wednesday and yesterday began teaching the eighth grade in the Second ward school. Miss Brittain who had been temporarily filling that position, was given the sixth and seventh grades.

Contractor Surber has received the contract to put in a new front on the Dickey ice cream parlors. The material used will be the latest in design and add greatly to the appearance of this building. The front entrance will be taken out and large display windows substituted and a new corner entrance will be erected from Dewey and Fifth street.

The Sunday baseball bill, introduced by Bartling of Otoe, passed the senate Wednesday by a vote of 24 to 8. The bill was passed with the emergency clause, which required 22 votes for passage. Senator Hoagland of Lincoln county explained his vote, saying that he opposed the bill because it forced Sunday baseball upon communities which did not want it. Inasmuch as the senate refused to amend the bill to permit local option in the matter he could not support it.

Two young sows—Chester Whites—on the farm of W. P. Rhoadarmer, in Grant precinct, recently gave birth to twenty-nine nice little piglets. The mothers were confined in the same pen and their farrowing took place the same night, so that Mr. Rhoadarmer is unable to tell the proper number to accredit to each mother. But when he looked in the pen he found twenty-nine, and they are at this writing all alive and doing fine. At this rate of progression it would take but a short time for a farmer to have a herd as large as he desired. And it would be going some, too, with hogs bringing about seven cents a pound live weight.—Lexington Pioneer.

Wanted—Girl for general housework. Mrs. H. M. Grimes. 4-3

Dr. A. J. Ames left a short time ago for Grand Island to spend a fortnight. The Lutheran Brotherhood will meet at the Parish house this evening.

Mrs. Mary Dunn who has been visiting in Omaha and Grand Island with her sisters is expected to return tomorrow evening.

Sheriff Salisbury left yesterday morning for Lincoln with Frank Steele. The latter will begin his sentence in the state penitentiary.

Weather: fair tonight and Wednesday, not much change in temperature. Highest temperature yesterday 22, a year ago 42; lowest last night -4 a year ago 19.

What might have been a serious fire occurred at the Beyerly residence yesterday. One of the children thinking to assist in dusting used a dry cloth to rub off the kitchen range and not noticing that the cloth had caught fire threw it into a closet. The smoke under the door attracted the attention of the housekeeper who with the assistances of the neighbors succeeded in extinguishing the flames before any great damage resulted.

An elaborate function was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Malmstein when the 20th Century Club entertained their husbands at their annual dinner. The table decorations were beautiful and the sumptuous meal was given justice by the guests. The following toasts were given—Our Guests, Mrs. Ralph Garman, Our Hostesses, Dr. Kerr; Our Club, Mrs. R. J. Malmstein; Possibilities of 1913, M. E. Crosby. The latter part of the evening was devoted to musical selections those especially worthy of mention were rendered by H. T. Troup, Mrs. Troup and Mrs. Garman. Assisting in serving were the Misses Margaret Waugh and Myrtle Richards.

The musicale given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. W. F. Crook proved a very pretty function, and was very enjoyable to the half hundred or more ladies present. The decorations were in violet effect, this scheme being carried out in the place cards, tables, costumes worn by the four girls who assisted in the service and in the refreshments. The musical program was very creditably rendered and proved very interesting. The numbers were as follows: Instrumental duet, Janet McDonald and Nanine Iddings; vocal solos, Mrs. Hamilton, Mrs. Gaiter, Mrs. Beck, Irma Huffman; piano selection, Miss Ottenstein, reading, Irma Huffman.

New School Rule

At a meeting of the board of education Monday, February 3, 1913, the following motion was made, seconded and carried and becomes one of the rules of the city schools:

"Where two or more pupils of the city schools are absent from school by agreement among or between themselves, with or without the permission of the parents, for the purpose of recreation or amusement or for any other purpose which the school cannot excuse the superintendent of schools is directed to suspend such pupils for the remainder of the semester, subject only to the approval of the president of the board, such suspension to be reported to the parent of those suspended and to the president of the board within 24 hours."

Railroad Notes.

The orders placed for new railroad cars last week aggregated 2,800, making the total for January 34,864. The number of locomotives ordered during January was 760.

The pile driver on the new round house grounds fell yesterday and struck J. B. West one of the work men, bruising his right side and badly cutting his right ear.

Charley Bogue, of the B. of R. T., and Roy Bunnell, of the B. of L. F. and E., have been spending the past few days in Lincoln in interests of railroad employes' measures now before the legislature.

The Hershey Times suggests that the North Platte Chamber of Commerce use its influence in having Hershey make a flag stop for train No. 11. The Times says such an arrangement would be a great convenience for Hershey.

"Booster Bob" Douglas, who has been sojourning in Lincoln this week and mingling with the law-makers, gained a little more publicity yesterday when the State Journal printed his photograph and gave him additional mention.

Senate file No. 44, introduced in the Nebraska legislature by Senator Cordeal of Red Willow, requires that railroads provide engines in service with headlights sufficiently strong to outline the figure of a man 800 feet distant. Headlight bills have been introduced in legislatures of a number of states this winter and legislation along this line may become common in the central west.

Married in Omaha.

Otto H. Thoelecke and Miss Etta Clark, both of this city, were quietly married at the Thoelecke home in Omaha last evening. Only relatives were present to witness the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Thoelecke will return to this city in a few days and begin housekeeping in the former McGowan house on east 5th street.

The bride was born and raised in this city, educated in the local schools and has held several responsible positions in this city. For a number of years she was manager of the local telephone office and is familiar with every department of this work. Later she assisted in the office of the district court and of late was in charge of the telephone office in Chadron. Her business ability and cheerful manner won many friends.

There are few men more widely or favorably known in Lincoln county than Mr. Thoelecke. In connection with a flourishing real estate business he has creditably filled several county offices and gives the public his best efforts. He now holds the position of highway commissioner and has gained much in the way of good roads for the country residents. His friends are counted in large numbers and it is the wish of all that happiness comes to him in large quantities.

Attorney J. G. Bealer will move into his new office in the I. O. O. F. building Monday.

Needed Cranking Up.
Rose—You had to give Clarence a hint before he'd propose, eh?
Lily—Yes; he didn't seem to be equipped with a self starter.—Chicago Tribune.
