Young-Hasenyager.

A pretty home wedding was solem-nized Wednesday evening when Miss Elizabeth Young was married Andrew Hasenyager of Tecumseh the home of her mother.

The ceremony was performed at eight o'clock in the presence of fifty invited guests by Rev. Cram of the M. E

Mrs. Alex Brooks played the wedding

In the bridal procession were the flower girls Misses Leona and Sunshine Dixon, the ring bearer Miss Violet Reynolds, the maid of honor Miss Hannah Young, best man Arthur Reynolds and the bride and groom.

The decorations in the rooms and on the tables were carried out in pink and white, cut flowers being used in abun-

The brides dress was a stylish design in white serge with trimmings of pearl beads and silk lace. She carried an arm boquet of white roses. Her attendant wore blue messaline and held white flowers. After the ceremony a sumptious lunch was served. A beautiful collection of wedding gifts was displayed in a side room. Mr. and Mrs. Hasenyager left on a late train for Omaha and other eastern points to spend their heneymoon after which they will reside on the groom's farm near Tecumseh. The bride has been a resident of this city for a number of years, held reliable positions in several local business houses and is known to be a bright and amiable young lady. The groom was formerly employed at the Experimental Station, is a finished agriculturist and highly respected young man.
