

New Models of Hats for Motor Wear Are Most Attractive

Hats which are partly hats and partly bonnets seem to be the most successful among the new models for motor wear. These hats are very soft and many of them are made entirely without wire. A crinoline or rice net foundation gives sufficient body. Wide braids and silk (the braids almost as pliable as fabrics) are very strong and durable and are used in this class of headwear.

The fad for the strong Hungarian colors has given us some very novel and excellent specimens in these motor bonnets. Bodies are usually made in gray, taupe, brown or blue, or in natural straw colors. These durable colorings are brightened with touches of bright red, vivid green and strong blue. Often a deep canary yellow appears in this combination. These strong colors are introduced in the trimming or partly in the body of the hat. Veiled with chiffon veils of the color of the hat, through which they gleam, they are really charming.

Hats made of fabrics usually have a tau crown, but are sometimes made of four shaped pieces, stitched together. The brims are machine stitched in rows and crinoline or linen interlinings provide sufficient support for the fabrics.

Veils are managed in a variety of ways. One of the prettiest is shown in the illustration. It is a long veil, but not wide. At the front the edge is finished with an accordion-plaited ruffle, which terminates at the back of the neck. The veil is slightly filled on an elastic cord which slips over the hat and is drawn in about the neck by gatherings.

The new motor hats seem to have reached perfection inasmuch as they are comfortable, durable, and at the same time, the most attractive that have ever been brought out. They may be said to be universally becoming.

DAINTY TRIFLES MEAN MUCH

Careful Dresser Knows Well That the Accessories Should Be to Complete a Costume.

In many instances it is the little things that count for more than those of larger proportions, and women have long since realized the fact, which accounts for the many furnishings which they affect. A dainty dash here or a daring dash there will frequently make an otherwise unattractive costume most bewitching.

Corsage and muf ornaments are the popular accessories of the season, and fashion permits an almost unlimited choice in these matters.

One of fashion's freaks is the use of fruits and vegetables for corsage ornaments. Holly berries are also seen and are much prettier.

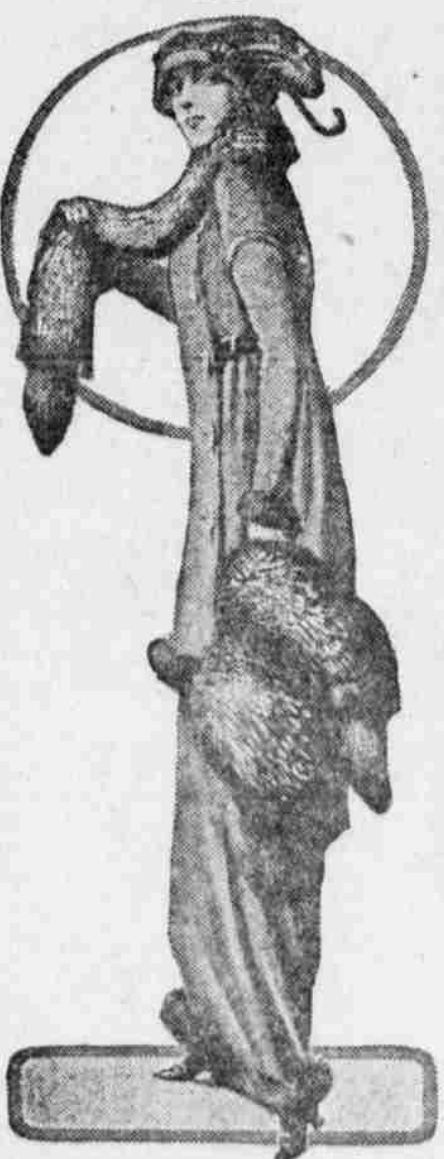

The new corsage bouquet is a compact bunch of red berries.

The corsage flower should be large; it may be a rose, the poinsettia or the brilliant poppy. Most of these large flowers are made of velvet. They match some brilliant evening dress, but as a rule they are in a contrasting color.

Velvet ribbon flowers are used on the new long, round muffs.

Little bows to finish one's collar consist of bright colored velvet cocks, combed at the ends and held in the middle by a medallion of real Irish.

NEW RUSSIAN COAT

A three-quarter length Russian coat, fur-edged, held in at the back and sides with a patent leather belt; the skirt to match. The furs are fox; the toque of velvet with a fancy plume.

IDEA FOR WINDOW DRESSING

Casement Scheme of Decoration Is One of the Neatest and Most Serviceable Possible.

One of the neatest and prettiest ways of dressing the window of a room in which it is not desirable to have flowing draperies is to use the casement scheme of decorations. For this purpose there comes a specially sheer and fine cotton material called casement cloth through which the light shines, although the interior of the room is shielded from outside eyes, but a similar charming effect may be produced by cotton voile, by Chinese or wash silk, none of which materials is costly. The arrangements of the drapery is simple. It is shirred scantily at both its ends upon fine sliding rods of brass which fit into grooves at top and bottom of the casement if it be a full length French window, and against the sliding casements, if the window is of the American type. Another advantage of this scheme of window dressing is the ease with which the draperies may be laundered, for, being straight, guiltless of ruffles and always unstarched, the merest try may wash, iron and readjust them.

New Dress Materials.

At the outset of every season a multitude of new materials for gowns is thrust upon the market, and by gradual elimination we soon know which will prove becoming and make up suitably. This year's fashion is particularly specializing in several new materials which come in a charming display of colors and changeable effects. The most fashionable material is the much-worn brocade, and it is sought by dress-makers for every conceivable type of gown from street suits to the most elaborate evening gowns and wraps.—Harper's Bazar.

For Palms and Ferns.

When the delicate fronds of the fern turn yellow and the palm leaves are dry and sickly looking, pour two tablespoonfuls of olive oil at the roots. Repeat this once every month, and note the wonderful improvement. Strength and vigor will return to the plants. The rich, dark green foliage grows more luxuriant than ever.

This is a well-tested fact. Smaller plants will not require as much oil.

Flounced Skirts.

The flounced skirts are quickly made when the bordered fabrics are used, and they are equally effective in the embroidered baizes and linens. Even the simple little dimity and muslin frocks take on a new air when fashioned with these narrow flounces. The flounces of 1913, however, are quite different in construction from those of previous seasons and are so cut that they add only a semblance of additional width to the skirt.

Tailored Skirts With a Lining.

Tailored skirts are being made over a close fitting lining, which reaches to the knee. This dispenses with the necessity of an extra petticoat.

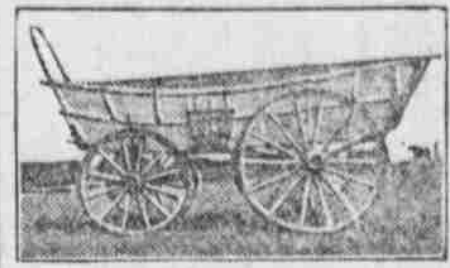

White Glace Gloves.

White glace kid gloves lined with pink or blue kid show heavy real lace in a turned back cuff over the colored lining.

VEHICLE, NOW CENTURY OLD

Family at Exello, Mo., Have "Prairie Schooner" That Is Still Well Preserved.

St. Louis, Mo.—We have all heard the familiar term "prairie schooner" applied to the old fashioned conveyance made use of by our grandfathers in the "early days" when they set out, full of hope, to find new homes for themselves in the great west, now our flourishing mid-continent states. At Exello, a small station near the county seat of Macon county, Missouri, resides a family which has in possession the relic of pioneer days pictured here. This ancient vehicle, unlike the "One Hoss Shay" of world-wide fame, has reached its one hundredth birthday without going to pieces, but continues to hold together, bound by its strong iron rivets and chains, as proudly, perhaps, as when it bore in its spacious bed the sturdy settler and his family traveling from Kentucky to the then far-off prairies and forests of North Missouri. The descendants of this pioneer family are among the leading and highly respected people of Macon and Randolph counties, and family pride is nowhere more justly in evidence than when, once a year, to the delight of neighbors and other visitors, "Old Missouri" is placed on exhibition at the fair at Jacksonville, a nearby village, where it becomes the center of attraction.

SAYS DIVORCE ROBS 70,000

New York Minister Provides Startling Figures for 1912 and Demands Uniform Law.

New York—More than 70,000 children, mostly under the age of nine years, were deprived of one or both parents by divorce in this country during the last year, according to figures which will be given to Moody stirred members of the New York state marriage and divorce commission at a recent meeting.

"The Pacific coast," he said, "has been the greatest divorce center of the entire world. In the year 1912 alone there were granted in the United States more than 100,000 divorces. In forty years 3,700,000 adults were separated by divorce, and more than 5,000,000 persons affected by these cases.

"Illinois alone provided 120,000 divorces; Pennsylvania, 55,760; California, 50,000; and New York, 44,450. New York state, however, sent 15,169 of its couples into other states to procure divorces, and there were probably many migratory cases which are not recorded in this total. At present 90 per cent of the cases go by default, with only one party represented.

Mr. Moody offered a resolution to organize a federal commission in this state to work for a uniform federal law governing marriage and divorce, which would be the central organization for all state commissions of this character which already have been formed in some states, and which would meet in convention in Chicago in May. Rev. Dr. Samuel McCune Lindsay was appointed temporary chairman of the organizing committee.

TYPHOID SPREAD BY MAN

Thirty Cases of Disease and Three Deaths Since August, 1908, Are Traced to a Sailor.

Sacramento, Cal.—Harry Olsen, perambulating typhoid incubator, is still hatching deadly germs. To his credit of having caused thirty cases and three deaths, another death has just been added. This beats, it is said, the record of "Typhoid Mary," famous in her day in New York.

Between August, 1908, and February 2, 1912, when he was a sailor on the ship Acme, 26 men contracted typhoid fever from him and three died. Olsen was detained and isolated at the United States Marine hospital.

Last October the doctors thought they had conquered the army of organisms and Olsen was free on probation. He got a job on the steam schooner Noyo, but not a month had elapsed before two men were attacked by typhoid fever. One of them died. Olsen was discharged to prevent a mutiny among the crew, and he must now go back to the hospital for further treatment.

Olsen may be subject to an operation for the removal of the gall bladder, which has been found to act as an asylum for germs.

TICKET LOST ON TITANIC

No Claimant Appears for the Recent Drawing of Bank of Italy's 1,500,000-Franc Lottery Number.

Rome—No claimant has yet appeared for the first prize of 1,500,000 francs in the recent bank of Italy lottery. It is believed that the winning ticket may have been lost when the Titanic sank last April. All efforts to trace the holder of the ticket have been fruitless, and it is recalled that a batch of other tickets which were sent to the United States on the Titanic was lost.

SURE.

"What do you mean by bringing home a bird of that size?"
"Well, we can make up for the size by stuffing it good."

FACE A SIGHT WITH TETTER

Moberly, Mo.—"My trouble began with a small pimple on the left side of my face and it spread all over my face and to my neck. It would be scarlet red when I got warm. My face was a sight. It looked very unpleasant, and it felt uncomfortable. My face was something awful; it just kept me in agony all the time. Some said it was tetter, and some said it was that awful eczema, but I rather think it was tetter. I had been troubled with it for about two years and tried many remedies, but got no relief until I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment.

"When I would wash my face with the Cuticura Soap and apply the Cuticura Ointment it would cool my skin and draw great big drops of matter out of the skin. You would think I was sweating; it would run down my face just as though I had washed it. It itched and smarted and I suffered in the day time most. I used the Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment for a month and I was cured of it." (Signed) Mrs. J. Brookshier, April 15, 1912.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston." Adv.

Friendly Blow.

Louis Brownlow, Washington newspaper man, paused in a drug store in Greensboro, N. C., not so long ago, to ask for a match. While he was there a young colored chap came running in with a big gash the whole length of his skull, and apparently a good deal put out about some accident that had befallen him.

"What's happened to you?" asked Brownlow, excitedly but sympathetically.

"A friend hit me with a hatchet," replied the bleeding stranger.

Brightening Flower Pots.

Flower pots frequently fade into a dingy color from their original bright and cheerful brick red. They may be easily brightened again by putting ordinary red ochre in water until it is about as thick as paint, then painting the flower pot, which absorbs the color and holds it.

Proved.

"Is that dainty flush on Clara's cheeks her own?"
"No; she took it out of sister's box."

Depends.

Belle—Do you think it is unlucky to marry in 1913?
Nell—Sure thing, if he's a poor man.

The Young Bride's First Discovery.

Their wedding tour had ended, and they entered their new home to settle down to what they hoped to be one long uninterrupted blissful honeymoon.

But alas! the young bride's troubles soon began, when she tried to reduce the cost of living with cheap big can baking powders.

She soon discovered that all she got was a lot for her money, and it was not all baking powder, for the bulk of it was cheap materials which had no leavening power. Such powders will not make light, wholesome food. And because of the absence of leavening gas, it requires from two to three times as much to raise cakes or biscuits as it does of Calumet Baking Powder.

Thus, eventually, the actual cost to you of cheap baking powders is more than Calumet would be.

Cheap baking powders often leave the bread bleached and acid, sometimes yellow and alkaline, and often unpalatable. They are not always of uniform strength and quality.

Now the bride buys Calumet—the perfectly wholesome baking powder, moderate in price, and always uniform and reliable. Calumet keeps indefinitely, makes good cooking easy, and is certainly the most economical after all. Received Highest Awards: World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago, Ill.; Paris Exposition, France, March, 1904.—Adv.

Not a Complaint.

"Miss Brown," said the art inspector, pausing before a student's easel, "you might with all propriety worship that drawing of yours."

The poorest pupil in the class looked up, surprised and pleased.

"I'm so glad you like it, sir. But why—why—"

"The Bible expressly commands us not to worship the likeness of anything in the heavens above or in the earth beneath, does it not?"

His Status.

"Is that druggist well thought of in the community?"

"Sure. Isn't he a pillar of the church?"

Lots of poor men are the architects of other men's riches.

A Case in Kind
"I wrote to you about six months ago for your kind advice in regard to my case," writes Mrs. Lizale White. "At times I was hardly able to be on my feet. I believe I had every pain and ache a woman could have. Had a very bad case of uterine disease. Ovaries were very much diseased and my back was very weak. I suffered a great deal with nervous headaches, in fact I suffered all over. I followed your directions as closely as I could, and was well pleased with the results. I have taken your Favorite Prescription and Golden Medical Discovery for about three months and can now say that my health was never better. I can highly recommend Doctor Pierce's remedies to any woman suffering from female disease, and I do recommend them to every one I see. Have induced several to try your wonderful medicines."
