Mrs. Hattie Nelson, of Harvey, Ia., left the latter part of last week. While here she visited Mrs. E. O. Smith.

A score or more billiard players who figured in the tournament at the Elks' home week before last, partook of an oyster supper at the home Friday evening. The defeated team captained by Henry Rebhausen footed the bill of expense.

We are offering to the safe conservative investor a few good first mortgage loans, netting 7 and 8 per cent semi-annual interest. Mortgages not taxable. Nothing better nor safer for your idle money. Bratt & Goodman.

Eugene Byri, the ten months' old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Sanders, died Sunday after being ill for two months with pneumonia. The remains were taken to Gothenburg yesterday afternoon, accompanied by a number of relatives.

Silas A. Barton, congressman, former state auditor, who has frequently visited friends in this city was married last week at Lincoln to Miss Ellen Metcalfe of that city. They will make their home in Grand Island after an extended honeymoon trip in eastern points.

Friday and Saturday of this week, Feb. 28 and Mar. 1, we are going to have a special remnant sale. Those who have attended our sales know what they are. Those who have not have been missing it. Don't miss it this time. Prices that will surprise you during this sale. E. T. Tramp & Son.

From now until the water plant at the round house is completed, the Union Pacific will take a part of its water supply from the city plant. Genl. Manager Ware has directed that a metre be placed on the main leading from the city plant. This will prove quite a source of revenue to the city.

Olaf Johnson returned from South Omaha, yesterday morning where he sold a car of cattle for the nice sum of $1664.02. Mr. Johnson was well pleased, with the prices he received and topped the market with two cows which brought him $192.37.—Brady Vindicator.

Mrs. Fred Gian returned yesterday afternoon from a visit in Grand Island.

George Weir will leave Thursday for Cheyenne to visit friends for a week or longer.

Miss Pearl Jones, of Hastings, conference stenographer for the Seventh Day Adventists church, came last evening to do work for the local church.

Mrs. Buckley and daughter Miss Beulah were hostesses at a Lenten tea Friday afternoon, a score or more of leading society ladies attending. The hours were from two to three, and from three to four, the guests being received at two different hours. The decorations were carried out in George Washington scheme. The tea was complimentary to Mrs. Danforth of Omaha.

Masons and members of their families to the number of over 300 participated in the sixth anniversary exercises at the temple Saturday evening. Supper was served at six o'clock and following this six or eight men in monkey costumes went through antics that were very amusing. Dancing was indulged in from nine to twelve o'clock.

The woman's suffrage parade in Washington next Monday promises to be a strong showing of the movement. Sixty-one senators and representatives who owe their seats in congress in part to the votes of women, will participate in the parade. That this demonstration will create sentiment in favor of the cause cannot be questioned.

Lots are selling lively in Scout's Rest Addition and the Cody Second Addition. Have you bought yours?

The inauguration of Woodrow Wilson will not be without ostentation; in fact the inaugural parade promises to be a record-breaker in the way of numbers and grandeur. The much heralded simplicity of the inauguration evidently slipped a cog, but you can't blame the democrats for allowing their pent-up enthusiasm to effervesce.

C. A. Ellis, of Sterling, recently appointed by Governor Morehead as commandant of the Soldiers' Home at Grand Island, passed away shortly before noon Friday of pneumonia, following an attack of the grip. By a strange fatality Mr. Ellis thus came to the institution over which he was to assume command and supervision, only to be taken sick and pass away at exactly the time when the change at the institution was to take place.

Fifty or more local baseball enthusiasts gathered at the depot Friday evening to get a view of the Chicago White Sox team which passed through on a special at 5:30. Manager Comiskey invited a number of the audience into the cars and treated them to cigars and refreshments. In one of the cars was a box several feet long, formed of white carnations which was presented by people of an Illinois town as the team passed through. The team was enroute to California.

Under the ordinance passed last summer, all water users are required to put in water meters not later than July 1st. It is expected that the council will establish a rate of fifteen cents per thousand gallons. In Omaha the rate had been thirty-five cents until last week, when a ten per cent reduction was made. There will be no scarcity of water in the future; the new additional wells will furnish an adequate supply and the big new pump has a capacity nearly double the present needs of the city.

If without life insurance, ask Bratt & Goodman to show you one of the broad, liberal policies issued by the great Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. See it and you will want it before you sleep.

Robert Hosler was accidentally shot Sunday while hunting on the Dillion islands, eight miles from town. In company with six young men friends he was chasing wild rabbits and in the chase was wounded in the right limb by a shot from one of his companion's guns. While not serious, the accident will confine him to the house for some time.

Will Take No Action.

Secretary Crosby, of the chamber of commerce, received a letter Saturday from Representative Stevens, at Lincoln, asking that the chamber of commerce pass a resolution opposing the passage of the fifty car train bill and the twenty percent reduction in freight rates. The board of directors, however, believe that both these matters can be properly brought before the state railway commission and a solution obtained.

The west end of town is the place to buy property when you can buy it right. Scout's Rest Addition and the Cody Second Addition are being sold out at investment value and at the same time on easy terms.

What Was It?

The Maxwell correspondent of the Brady Vindicator says:

The Teletop Editor was the recipient of a useful little souvenir last Tuesday morning. It seems as though the ladies of Maxwell wanted to make the editor a present and lacking a spokesman tied the beautiful piece of earthenware to the print shop front door. If people in general were only half as thoughtful in purchasing needed articles, presents would be more highly appreciated.

City Property for Sale.

We have a number of choicely located lots with and without buildings, close in with sewer, city water, electric lights and sidewalks that we are offering at very low prices. Much less than we will be able to offer them when the spring opens up. In our judgment there will be a big advance on this class of property soon. BUCHANAN & PATTERSON.

Notice to Bidders.

Bids will be received on March 5, 1913, up to 8 o'clock p. m. at my office, North Platte, Nebr., for the erection of a pressed brick and stucco garage and office building on the corner of Dewey and Fourth streets in the city of North Platte.

Plans and specifications may be seen at the office of the architect, Bert M. Reynolds, North Platte, Nebr. A certified check in the amount of $100 will be required with all bids.

The right is reserved to reject any or all bids.

J. S. Johnson left this morning for Kearney on business. Judge Grimes held a term of district court in Sidney for several days last week, returning home Saturday. Mrs. Shoemaker, of Omaha, who had been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Posey for ten days left this morning.

At Kearney at noon yesterday the switch engine backed into a track on which was standing the Callaway branch motor filled with passengers, seriously injuring a half dozen passengers. Conductor Mitchell was also knocked unconscious and sustained severe bruises.

Mr. Farmer!

Bring in your harness and saddles and have them fixed up and oiled. Spring rush will soon be here and your harness will not be in repair. Bring them in soon and give us a trial.

Sugar.

A West India paper says that in 1752 an "Essay on Sugar" was written in which it is recorded that the Duke of Beaufort, who died in 1702 at the advanced age of eighty years, used to eat a pound of sugar every day, and it was found that he was never troubled with coughs and his teeth were firm, so that his house-keeper gave this reason: That which preserves apples and plums Will also preserve life and lungs.

He Remembered.

Mrs. Jones—Do you remember that night in June, Henry, when you first asked me to marry you? Mr. Jones—If you refer to that first, last, single, solitary and only occasion upon which I ever asked you to marry me, I do, and you never gave me another chance, either.

His Ancestors.

Jones—So you have succeeded in tracing back my ancestors? What is your fee? Genealogist—One thousand pounds—for keeping quiet about them.—London Tit-Bits.

Not Going to Pieces.

Geraldine—May I see you apart? Gerald—Well, I should say not! Do I look as if I were coming to pieces?—New York Press.

Some people will never learn anything for this reason—because they understand everything too soon.—Pope.
