Announcement.

At the time of my arrival at North Platte in January, 1881, the place and its prospect looked good to me.

Its people extended me a cordial welcome and practical encouragement to my proposed business undertaking, and took me on probation.

The experience of 32 years continuous business, without having been lynched, has convinced me that my first decision was well taken and I now intend to become a permanent citizen and give notice of my intention to re-enlist in business here for another period of 32 years "or for the war," by incorporation.

It is little enough for me to say that I appreciate and thank you for the support that has been given my efforts to serve you acceptably and at the same time do assure you that the new company is entirely at your service with our best abilities for business and the upbuilding of our beautiful city and state.

Hurrah for North Platte.

Yours Truly,

W. W. BIRGE.

Working on Strike Settlement.

Word was received this week by the local strikers from officials of the unions involved announced that another attempt would be made to settle the strike. Whether this conference of railroad and union officials has been held we have not been able to learn. It is said that both the roads and the men are very anxious to have the difficulty settled, and each are ready to make concessions; this report being current notwithstanding the railroad officials say that they have forgotten the strike.

If you are looking for real estate you are looking for C. F. Temple, for he has it, all kinds.

John Keith writes a Sutherland friend that his orange loss by the frost will amount to about six thousand dollars. Will Blackmore's loss will be three thousand. David Hunter is said also to have lost heavily. This is a pretty heavy set back to our former Lincoln county friends.

Miss Ella Corbett returned to her home in Wallace today after spending two months with her cousins Miss Nell Hanfin and Mrs. Harry Gutherless.

The S. O. C. club spent a pleasant afternoon Wednesday with Mrs. Lawhead. Nicely prepared refreshments were served.

Visitors from Wallace today are R. V. Hayden and J. H. Howe, who are transacting business in the local stores.

Floyd Breternitz who had been visiting in Omaha for several weeks returned Wednesday evening.

Sam Westfall of Omaha, was the guest of his brother Max Westfall, the fore part of this week.

The Knights of Columbus are making arrangements to give a card party and social dance shortly after Easter.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ballard, of Dickens, are visiting this week with local friends.

Wanted—Girl for general housework. Mrs. H. C. Brock, 714 W. 4th St. tf.

Dr. V. Lucas was called to Paxton yesterday morning on professional business.

Clarence McKay left this morning for Stapleton to spend a week with friends.

Mac Westfall left last evening for western towns to spend a few days.

There's a Dainty Grace to Those Printzess Suits That You'll Appreciate.

There's a curve to their style lines, and an air of exclusiveness and a snap to the entire appearance that put them in a class by themselves. In other words, they are the kind of a garment worn by a women of style. Women who know and appreciate just what should be worn.

These garments have a reputation of conferring that elusive factor "Distinction in Dress" on the wearer. Come in and our girls will show you a Printzess and you will agree that our prices are modest.

Will Have Chautauqua.

A representative of the Redpath-Horner bureau was in town Wednesday and through C. F. Temple, backed by the Chamber of Commerce, arranged for a five-day Chautauqua beginning July 13th. This bureau assumes the management of the business, and its requirements of the city and that 300 season tickets at $2.00 each be sold and the site and the seats be furnished free, and in return for this the bureau gives the city ten per cent of the admission receipts. This practically relieves the city of any financial obligation.

Among the attractions on the program are the Dunbar Male Quartet, the Fisher-Shipp company, Rigniers, the impersonator, the Military Girls' Musical organization, Dr. F. E. Gordon, Dr. C. C. Mitchel, Dr. Bradford and Ned Woodman, cartoonist.

Rev. Favoright's Resignation Accepted.

At a congressional meeting of the Baptist church Wednesday evening the resignation of Rev. Favoright was accepted, though such action was taken with much regret. A call was extended to Rev. Barton, of Rochester, N. Y., who will graduate from a theological school this spring. He has been highly recommended to the North Platte congregation.

District Court Next Week.

The March term of district court will convene next Monday. The docket is not very heavy; not as large as at the last term. In view of the few cases that would be tried to a jury, Judge Grimes and Clerk Prosser concluded that the presence of the jury would not be justified, and last Saturday the jury drawn was discharged.

The decision of the United States supreme court in the Union Pacific right of way case and from that it is gleaned that decision does not bear on the validity of the Norris bill or its passage. The case decided in Colorado does not apply to the case from Lexington which was brought up by the Farmer's association. A thorough examination of the decision has not been made as yet.

Auto Notice.

Let a demonstration in a Buick car over the hills of the Buick route be the standard by which you judge all automobiles. J. S. DAVIS AUTO CO. North Platte, Nebr.

Feudist—Yep, I reckon I got old man Peevey this morning for fair. His Son—Did ye shoot him, pop? Feudist—Course not. Better'n that. I got him on my note.—Puck.

Be sure no man was ever discontented with the world who did his duty in it.—Southey.

After the Duke of Wellington's victorious campaigns the University of Oxford complimented the duke himself and his principal officers by conferring upon them the honorary and not very appropriate degree of doctor of civil laws. At that time the fees were heavy, and one of the distinguished soldiers who had gathered more honor than profit in the wars declined the proffered degree in the following verse:
Oxford, I know you wish me well,
But prithee let me be.
I can't, alas, be D. C. L.
For want of a s. d.
