The City Election.

The city election will be held Tuesday, April 1st. If convention nominations are to be made, it will be necessary to hold such conventions on or before Monday, March 17th, as fifteen days must elapse between the date of nomination and election day.

The Tribune feels favorable to a non-partisan ticket, and it trusts that within the next week democrats, republicans and others will get together and take upon themselves the authority to issue a call for a convention.

How They Vote.

The women's civic league at Kearney some time ago concluded to hold an election to vote on the "wet" and "dry" proposition, but later this plan was abandoned and a house to house canvass made.

This one-sided expression of their views by the women of Kearney is probably about what might be expected in any Nebraska town, and is evidence that when women are given the right of suffrage—to which we believe they are entitled—it doesn't matter what the result will be on the prohibition question in Nebraska.

During the present session of the legislature quite a number of North Platte men have visited in Lincoln and "looked over" the doings of the solons and the members of the "third house"—the lobbyists—and a number of them have declared that the surface indications are that many "dirty" deals are being made.

The inauguration of President Wilson Tuesday was attended by considerable pomp and splendor and with much enthusiasm on the part of the residents and visitors. The parade, which was a most imposing one, was followed in the evening by a brilliant display of pyrotechnics.

The press dispatches from Washington tell us that when Governor Morehead and his Nebraska colonels rode down Pennsylvania avenue in the inaugural parade they were the "observed of all observers."

When Colonel Bryan took the oath of office Wednesday he dropped a remark that has been construed to mean that he will not long remain in the office of secretary of state.

P. E. O. Elect Officers.

At the meeting of Chapter AK P. E. O. held at the home of Mrs. Geo. E. Prosser Wednesday afternoon the following officers were elected: Mrs. Glendora Schiller, president; Mrs. Mary Grimes, vice president; Mrs. Hattie Rincker, recording secretary; Mrs. Minnie McDonald, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Maud Hendy, treasurer; Mrs. Helen M. White, chaplain; Mrs. Mattie Prosser, guard; Mrs. Daisy Hinman, journalist; Mrs. Schiller and Mrs. Grimes delegates to the state convention.

U. S. Soon to Import Meats.

Within a few years the United States will be importing cattle as a food supply for its people instead of exporting them, as is now the case, according to J. J. Ferguson, of Chicago.

"Soon the United States will export no more cattle," said Mr. Ferguson. "Statistics show our population is rapidly increasing, while the cattle stock is decreasing. Canada is now importing meat's. Recently beef from Australia was shipped into Canada. It was the first time this had happened. There is a greater shortage of food supplies in the old world than here. We are still the best living and best fed people in the world. In the old countries many people can afford meat only once or twice a week. Americans buy meat whenever they want it, regardless of price. They come of a meat eating people, and it seems hardly likely they will ever give up meat as the main article of food because of the price."
