The Horth Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., MARCH 28, 1913.

No. 18

September $985.00

Completely Equipped F. O. B. Factory

Just Received a Car Load.

More power, more wheel base, more room, heavier construction in wheels, frame and body, more car, more service, than in other make of car at a similar price.

MINER HINMAN, Dealer

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.

205 Dewey Street

Bick Advance Assessments (1) and the language of the second service of the second second service of the second second service of the second secon

A Beautiful Basket Buggy.

"Be Sure It's a "Whitney."

They are the only kind we have, and when you

A "Whitney" for me.

Derryberry & Forbes

see them you will say as they all do

Local and Personal

Engineer Norman Connelly returned yesterday morning from a visit with relatives in Denver.

. The M. B. A. held the first of their series of after Lent dances in the K. P. hall Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Smith returned yesterday from Sterling where they spent a week on business.

Leo Pass, who spent his Easter vaca-tion with the home folks, returned to Creighton college this morning.

light plant.

position in the telephone office made vacant by the resignation of Miss Daily. Miss Carrie Frye, who had been ill with rheumatism for three weeks, resumed work at the telephone office yes-The delegates and drill team of the local lodge of Yeoman have chartered a tourist car and will leave for Lincoln Sunday night to attend the annual convention of that order.

Material is being assembled for the artificial ice and cold storage plant to Creighton college this morning.

The village board of Hersey has decided to submit to a vote of the people a proposition to vote bonds for the installation of water works and an electric light of the plant will be eight tons per day.

Block's Advance Announcement.

Good news for the ladies of North The home contest will be held tonight latte and vicinity: Our building has in the high school auditorium. This is Ladies' Aid of the First Presbyterian arrange for the Y. M. C. A. building been vacated, carpenters and decorators an annual affair and the winner is to church was held at the church yesterday are now busily engaged installing our represent the local school in the district afternoon. There was full attendance ness for our grand opening.

If you are one of the many ladies who have been waiting patiently for the opening of your city's ONLY expression of the many ladies winner will receive a beautiful medal presented by T. F. Watts of this city.

Today's papers place the deaths due to flood and fire at points in Ohio and Indiana at 5,000. At Dayton fire fol-lowed the flood and eignteen blocks in the business section were burned over. In that city 15,000 houses are submerged, at Columbus the death list is placed at from 600 to 1000, at Piqua from 300 to 500, while at Dayton it is impossible to even make an estimate. At many other places the death list uns from ten to fifty

Miss Lummie White and Elmer Elkund were married Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents, Mr and Mrs. Simon White, south of the river from Hershey. Rev. Johnson, pronouncing the ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Ora White and groom by Ray Ziegenhagen. The young couple, who are well and favor-ably known, will make their home south of Sutherland.

The steel door and fixtures for the vault of the Platte Valley bank, which had been delayed for a couple of weeks. arrived yesterday and were unloaded into the rooms last night. As soon as these are installed the bank will move to its new location.

From the Hastings Tribune it is earned that Bishop Beecher will soon change his residence from Kearney to Hastings. The parish of the latter place has virtually agreed; to procure by purchase, or otherwise, a residence for he Bishop.

The Ladies of the Maccabees have peen conducting a vigorous ticket selling campaign for a week past, and as a re-sult there promises to be a large attendance at the dance they will give at the opera house next Monday evening.

The rear drive wheels of the engine uiling the branchtrain together with several cars were derailed near Lewelen Tuesday by the spreading of the rails. The wrecking outfit was sent up and soon had the mishap righted.

Miss Lolo Walter visited her sister n Sutherland this week.

For Sale.

Eggs for setting from pure bred Barred Plymouth Rock chickens. In-quire of or address, Blankenburg Bros., 1350 North Locust St., North Platte. Neb. 'Phone No. Red 442. 18-6

Declamatory Contest Tonight.

The home contest will be held tonight fixtures and getting the store in readiness for our grand opening.

contest which is held in this city in confest and many visitors campaign whereby it is hoped to secure present. It was an occasion full of recontributions amounting to at least Oratorical Class — "Abraham Lincoln".

orogam the Junior Class will serve

Mrs. H. M. Grimes and Mrs. F. W. Rincker will entertain the 500 club at the home of the first named Thursday evening of next week.

Mrs. McKale is expected to return this week from Ft. Scott, Kans., where she spent two weeks.

It will positivley pay you to wait for our special offering during our opening days of next week. BLOCK, the Ladies'

The CRYSTAL

To-Night and Saturday.

PICTURES Shirts and Shocks. Two Sisters. Mutual Weekly His Heroine.

10 Cents.

Presbyterian Ladies Burn Note.

If you are one of the many ladies who have been waiting patiently for the opening of your city's ONLY exclusive woman's toggery shop, it will please you to know that we will be no expense connected with sending the local contestant to the district contest there will be no expense connect week. Watch later announcement for exact date of opening.

In addition to this honor the wind medal presented by T. F. Watts of this city. Since there will be no expense connected with sending the local contestant to the district contest there will be no charge for the contest tonight and everyone is invited to attend.

Joicing. The note which was due on the organ was lifted and burned by Mrs. J. W. Payne, while those present sang the doxology. The annual report which was submitted by Mrs. Jeter was adopted and showed that $1100 was raised since April, 1912. Votes of thanks were accorded the retiring with the Presbyterian ladies as to meeting to be one of their best.

> Manager Stamp has booked Mrs. Leslie Carter in Zaza for the evening of March 28th at the Keith. Attorney George Gibbs went to Sutherland today to act as judge of a declamatory contest.

For Sale Cheap. Typewriter and roll top desk. O. H.

Make Preparations For Campaign.

campaign, met last evening and discussed at length the general outlines of the twelve months.

Albert Greinsmand, of Germany, arrived yesterday morning to visit his uncles F. L. Weinburg and Gus Meyers.

John N. Henggeler, of Columbus, and Anna M. Schram, of this city, were married Friday afternoon by Rev.

P. McDaid.

Clude Nichols and Min. Lufe Michael.

Clyde Nichols and Miss Julia Michuad both of this city were granted a permit to wed by the county judge pesterday

Stability, Efficiency and Service

Have been the Factors in the growth of the

First National Bank,

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $150,000.00