Next Number of Lyceum Course.

L. F. FULLER

L. F. Fuller, a prominent socialist lecturer of Girard, Kans., will deliver the fourth lecture on the socialist lyceum course next Tuesday night at 8 p. m. at Lloyd's opera house. The subject of his lecture is "What Socialists Want."

Mr. Fuller is one of the oldest educators in the socialist movement. He was for years an instructor in normal schools, and has the teaching method well developed. Every audience that hears him will go away with a knowledge of socialism. As a writer and speaker he is so well known to the socialist movement that he requires no words of commendation as to his ability to entertain and instruct an audience.

Mr. Fuller has been on the lecture platform for twenty years, ten years of which have been devoted to socialism. He has addressed audiences composed of day laborers, and audiences composed of college professors, and possesses the knack of interesting the unlearned as well as the well educated.

Two persons will be admitted upon one season ticket. (Advertisement)

Residence For Sale.

For Sale—the property of the late Catherine Brown; six room house, large barn; corner lot, situate at Ninth and Willow. For particulars inquire at 121 West Ninth.

It is evident that the Union Pacific railroad company intend to make use of their 400 feet right of way as was given them in a recent decision of the courts. At Shelton last week the company placed a fencing gang and proceeded to fence in the full 200 feet on each side of the track. After a tract had been fenced off the first day then on the following morning it was discovered that some time during the night the fence had been torn down. The fencing crew began to reset the fence when an injunction was served upon them, thus stopping the work for the present at least. The farmers in the eastern part of the state are determined to hold this strip of land which they think rightfully belongs to them.

F. W. Meyer, residing southwest of town, had bones in both arms broken Monday evening. He had been unloading hogs in the local railroad yards, and in driving across the rails the wagon slewed to one side, throwing him from the high seat. He alighted in such a way as to cause the fractures and otherwise bruise him and mar his features. It was necessary to take him to a North Platte hospital where the X-ray could be used in connection with surgical treatment.—Sutherland Free Lance.

The windows in the Ideal Bakery are being boxed, new screen show cases have been added and several other improvements are under way.

For Sale.

Bratt & Goodman, Agents.

The officers of the United States land office received instructions Wednesday to move the office to the federal building and not further await the arrival of the counters, the only part of furniture not installed. It is certain that the records will be moved tomorrow evening and that the office will be opened in its new quarters on the third floor of the new building Monday morning.

Joe Schwaiger, the well known engineer of this city, has invented a storm window for locomotives which is being installed on all Union Pacific engines. It is a small contrivance with a metal door, which may be lowered to enable the engineer to see through a slit seven inches long and two inches high, when the cab windows are crusted with snow. The wooden frame is to be set in the glass of the window. Engineer Schwaiger has applied for a patent on it.

Mrs. E. N. Ogier very pleasantly entertained the members of the Club Nevada Tuesday afternoon. The first contest was guessing the names of popular books from water colored cards. In this Mrs. Edward Dickey was given first prize and Mrs. George Voscaipka the consolation emblem. The second contest was a floral romance in which the prizes were won by Mesdames Ralph Garman and Elmer Burke. The place cards, decorations, etc. were in violet. Elaborate refreshments were served.

County Supt. Cleo Chappell received a letter this week from the interior of the agriculture department of Washington, in which they offer a gold medal to the boy or girl who can write the best essay on "The Upkeep and Repair Making of Good Roads." The composition must be completed by the second week in May.

During the storm Tuesday and Wednesday dispatchers on the Union Pacific played safe by running passenger trains a telegraph station apart. During the worst of the storm freight trains were abandoned.
