Big four day sale on ladies' ready-to-wear garments at the Leader.

The tennis grounds on west 3rd street are being fixed up for the summer games. The club opens with a membership of twenty. Three courts are being arranged under the supervision of President Otten. New back stops will be added and several loads of clay are being used on the courts. A number of tournaments will be held during the summer season.

The Auction Sale is attracting more people as the days pass. Last night was one of the largest sales of the week. We are keeping faith with the people of our city. Although we are suffering a great loss on our beautiful stock we are pleased to see our friends take advantage of the opportunity to buy at such sacrifice prices. Every day we see hundreds of new faces in our store and this sale is being so conducted that we are certain they will become permanent customers. We guarantee every article exactly as represented and will consider it a favor if you will call on us for correction of any error that might occur. Sale every afternoon and evening this week and next.

HARRY DIXON.

Indifference Shown in Y. M. C. A. Campaign.

The Tribune regrets to announce that but little enthusiasm is evinced in the Y. M. C. A. building campaign, especially by those who are in position to make liberal contributions. Up to date the subscriptions are below the $10,000 mark. Only one $500 subscription has yet been made, the others ranging from $10 to $300.

At a meeting of the committees last evening an executive committee composed of ten business men was appointed, and this latter committee will have general supervision of the campaign.

The contributors up to last evening numbered about eighty, and the average donation has been sixty odd dollars. Figured in the total amount so far contributed is the $2,000 given by the trustees of the Sidney Dillion fund.

It is evident that if $40,000 is to be raised, a more hearty response to the solicitors must be made by the men who can afford to give. Some of the contributors, considering their means, have been very liberal, others have not given nearly as liberally as they should. Every boy is free to offer their moral support, but unfortunately moral support will not erect a $40,000 building.

Band Dance.

A very enjoyable social function of the week was the annual ball held by the North Platte Military Band at the Lloyd Opera House last evening. At 8:15 Leader Stamp and the entire band played the opening overture which was enjoyed by the large number of on lookers who occupied the gallery. A program of popular and classic pieces followed in the concert and at nine o'clock partners were chosen for the first waltz. Twenty-one dances composed the evening's entertainment and were arranged for the pleasure and convenience of the dancers, the majority of which remained until the closing notes of the "Home Sweet Home."

Everything was systematically carried out, thus making the ball one long to be remembered. The band boys are to be congratulated upon the successfulness of their annual ball.

Ben Hur.

The famous novel written by Lew Wallace, "Ben Hur," will be read and illustrated at the Christian church on the evening of Tuesday, April 22nd, 1913. A program of some two hours of splendid pictures has been arranged under the auspices of the ladies aid of the church, and all proceeds of the entertainment go directly to them. Tickets are being sold by them for 15 and 25 cents. Those who have read this book will be greatly interested in the monologue. In addition to giving the reading, Mr. Knowles will sing several popular songs, illustrated. Among them will be Ben Bolt, and The Old Cross Roads. Others equally good will be sung.

Help the ladies out, and enjoy a splendid, first class entertainment.

For two years she was in charge of the Woman's Department of the Socialist party in the national office at Chicago, and she is also widely known as a woman suffrage worker. During the past few days nine residence lots have been sold in the Trustee's addition. These were all bought for residence purposes and quite a number of new residences will be started soon. There has been no spurt in the sale of lots in this addition, but a steady demand for these lots exists and the growth of this part of town continues at a good pace. The Trustee's addition is developing into the best residence district of North Platte and it has very much to recommend it. The city park is located here and it is an eleven acre tract, which will prove a great benefit to this part of town. The most modern school building in the entire city is being erected in this part of town and will be completed this fall. It is common knowledge that this is the highest part of the town and the sewer is deeper in the ground than in any other part of the city. Splendid basements can be built without fear of water. There are still 78 lots for sale in this addition. The coming of the Burlington will enhance the value of these lots greatly. Prices $200 to $400. A discount for cash or sale will be made on installments. For Sale by W. E. SHUMAN.
