Miss Wilcox Will Go

To Porto Rica

Miss Alice Wilcox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Wilcox, of this city, who has been a student at the Kearney state normal and will graduate next week, has accepted an appointment as government teacher in the public schools of Porto Rica. The salary at-tuched is ninety dollars per month, which is good pay considering that living expenses in that country are light.

Miss Wilcox will begin her duties next fall and is anticipating her work with much pleasure. She could have accepted a position in the Columbus schools, but preferred to take the work in Porte Pier. in Porto Rica. Two of her girl friends, daughters of ex-United States Sena-Norris Brown, have been teaching in that country and expect to spend another year there. They like the another year there. They like the people and the climate, and find the school work pleasant and interesting.
