Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pen

Of course you want to give a Graduation Gift to your boy or girl—or your chum. Give something that's useful every day—that's practical—as well as handsome.

No gift combines those qualities so well as Conklin's Self-Filling Fountain Pen with its superb self-filling and self-cleaning features. By simply dipping it in any ink-well and pressing the "Crescent-Filler," the CONKLIN fills itself instantly, "like a flash of magic."

If you have a son or daughter or friend graduating this term, you owe it to them to at least call and see the Self-Filling Conklin before deciding on a gift.

Observe Firmen's Memorial Day.

About thirty members of the city fire department met Sunday forenoon and accompanied by Mayor Evans, Judge Grimes and J. E. Evans proceeded to the cemetery where the grave of each of the seventeen members who have departed life was decorated with flowers. Over the grave of Elmer Anderson, the last member to pass to the beyond, a service was held, short addresses being made by Captain Evans and Judge Grimes. This is a custom that has been observed for a number of years and is to be commended; it is a remembrance of friendship for those who have before, an evidence that they are not forgotten. Following these ceremonies a group picture of the firemen were taken while assembled in front of the federal building.

A Splendid Meeting.

The union memorial service held at the opera house Sunday evening was attended by an audience that filled the floor of the Keith theatre and old soldiers pronounce it one of the best ever held under their auspices. The sermon by Rev. Mr. Christie was strong, full of patriotism, and appealed strongly to his hearers; his exposition of the cause of the war being particularly clear. A choir from the different churches furnished the music, and pastors of the several congregations assisted in the service. There was a good representation of the old soldiers and of members of the Women's Relief Corps.

The thousands of acres of alfalfa in Lincoln county never presented a finer appearance, fall grains looking splendid, and though up to yesterday the weather had been too cool for corn we are now promised hot weather and corn will also shoot forward rapidly. The country certainly looks fine, whether you drive up and down the valley or through the hills.

R. N. Lamb recently sold his two story cement block building in the Fourth ward to a Mr. Lindblad, who was formerly located at Lisco. The consideration was fourteen thousand dollars, Mr. Lamb taking in exchange a tract of land located in Morrill county.

A number of North Platte autoists who were out pleasure riding Sunday afternoon were caught in the rain and suffered all kinds of grief. A half dozen got stuck and had to be pulled out, two others had collisions, while others suffered mishaps.

Emil VonBergen, the well known salesman for the Carpenter Paper Co., of Omaha, who has been making this territory for a number of years, leaves the early part of next month for a three months' tour in Europe.

B. A. Wilson is completing two houses on West Sixth street which he has built for renting purposes. Located within short distance of the new round house, he will have no trouble in securing tenants.

Ray Cummings left the latter part of last week for Mason City to visit relatives. His wife and children who proceeded him, will return with him.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. French returned home yesterday from visits at points in Michigan and Ohio, after an absence of several months.

Miss Anna Bodie, of Boise, Idaho, visited with her aunt, Mrs. Fred Rincker, yesterday while enroute to eastern points.

Miss Olive Watts returned Saturday afternoon from the Kearney Normal.

Dining Room Cranks.

The waiter became talkative after he had answered a question and among other things said: "Don't go to the funny ward at Bellevue if you want to study cranks. Get a job as waiter. The man who just went out is a steady. He's all right except for coffee and bread. He must have his coffee boiling hot, and he always puts a jump of tea in it. He has always paid for special hot bread. He gets a small loaf, cuts it in two, removes all the crumb part from one half and eats the crust. The other half he leaves untouched. I have a 'regular' who puts salt and pepper on his grapefruit, and"—"He could be talking yet," said the man who related the story, "if I hadn't told him that I was a crank on being served quickly."—New York Tribune.

Locating the Poles.

Both Peary and Amundsen made allowances in determining the site of the poles. Their position is not perfectly constant, there being a counter clock elliptical movement of some thirty feet and a counter clock circular movement of some twenty-six feet in diameter in a period of 428 days at the extreme axis of the earth. This change, however, is so slight as not to be reckoned in practical calculations. Peary and Amundsen made no guesses, but took several observations from various standpoints to determine conclusively that they had reached the poles.—Christian Herald.

A Curious Case.

In 1888 James Meryess, who was eighty-four years old, jumped off the suspension bridge at Budapest into the Danube. He was rescued and then explained that he wished to end his life, as he was becoming too decrepit to support his father and mother. This statement proved to be true, Meryess's parents being aged 115 and 110 respectively, and a public subscription was organized to set all three above want.

PRICES TELL THE STORY AT THE LEADER.

The reason the big Sale at the Leader is growing so popular with people is because the prices tell the story of the greatest bargain giving sale ever held in North Platte. The sale has been a wonderfully satisfactory one from the viewpoint of the buyer; one out-of-town lady remarked Saturday that she was sorry the sale would not last throughout the year, because she was getting goods so much cheaper than before.

But this sale can not last always. When the stock is reduced to the point where Mr. Pizer is satisfied to make the contemplate change, the sale will close and with it the period of sacrificing prices. It is therefore best that you take advantage of the sale as early as possible.

The goods are here, the prices cannot be met by any competitor why not come to this store and share with others the bargains that have made the sale the talk of the city and county.

THE LEADER - J. PIZER
