Harry Pizer began work at the soda fountain in the Rexall Drug Store the latter part of last week.

The family of H. P. Harden, former weather observer, left yesterday for Wichita, Kans., to which point Mr. Harden was transferred a couple of months ago.

The rain fall during the month of May was three and one-half inches as compared with 1.93 inches in May 1912, and 1.73 inches in May, 1911. The highest temperature last month was ninety-six on the 29th.

Lost, strayed or stolen a Scotch collie pup two months old; dark brown, shading to tan with white markings, tan leather strap for collar. Please inform O. J. Brooks, 221 east Second St.

An adjourned term of district court is in session this week, and a number of equity and law cases will come before Judge Grimes for hearing. Yesterday forenoon the docket was called and in the afternoon, among other cases, Mrs. Mary Baker was granted an absolute divorce from Joseph Baker, who deserted her about ten years ago.

Will Dorran, Jim Diener, Roland Ginn and Louie Pappas, who are night employes in the yards, were fined $5.70 each for entering a hose house and taking and wearing rubber coats and boots. The act was committed by the boys Saturday night during the heavy rain storm; the evident intention being to return the articles after the storm. They failed to return them promptly and Chief Bowman had a warrant issued, and what the boys looked upon as simply a "borrow," assumed a more serious phase under the law.

Fires will happen, and not always on telephone poles. Protect yourself by one of Temple's Policies.

Dr. Marie Ames went to Kearney Friday to witness the demonstration of the Dr. Duket tuberculosis treatment. Seven of the seventeen patients at the state hospital in that city were inoculated. All patients are given two weeks rest and placed on a diet. After that time a second injection is given to be followed by a third after another two weeks rest period. But three treatments in all are given this being figured as sufficient to insure a cure under favorable conditions.

A Warning of Hail Insurance.
John Wing lost his one-half of 85 acres of rye by hail last Saturday night. He was wise by having it insured by Bratt and Goodman a few days before it was destroyed. With the fine prospects for a big crop, no farmer can afford to be without hail insurance, which Bratt & Goodman are writing this year at greatly reduced rates. See them today.

Railroad Notes and Personal

There has been a lull in freight traffic during the past ten days but it is only temporary.

Clark LeDoyt who has been employed at Sidney for several weeks visited the home folks last week.

F. W. Pfleging, late of Cheyenne, has been appointed signal engineer for the Union Pacific with headquarters at Grand Island.

D. C. Wilson, chief electrician for the Union Pacific spent a short time in town Saturday while enroute to Grand Island.

The steel frame for the water tank at the new round house is now being erected, and work on the coal chute is in progress. This chute will, it is said, be the largest on the U. P. system.

J. J. Horrigan, who had been located at Boone, Ia., but went to Sioux Falls, S. D., a few weeks ago, has returned to Boone. He left the latter place on account of short shop hours, but returned on the promise of full working time.

Conductor S. C. Macomber returned yesterday from Detroit, Mich., where he attended the O. R. C. convention. The weather was so cool last week that everybody wore heavy wraps. Mrs. Macomber accompanied him on the trip which proved a very pleasant one.

So alarming have become the ravages of strange diseases upon the potato crop of the United States that the Union Pacific railroad has volunteered to finance a special train of European and American agriculturists and pathologists over all parts of the system where potatoes are grown.

The Union Pacific has completed its double track across the state of Nebraska, the recent completion of a thirty-nine mile stretch of new construction completing the 426 miles across the state. Between Council Bluffs and Ogden, the eastern and western terminus of the road, there are now completed 714 miles of double track, 426 across the state being continuous.

Samuel B. Warborough, one of the foremen of the new round house was killed Saturday afternoon while working on the water tank. A large piece of steel struck his head and he was thrown to the ground twenty feet below. When picked up he was unconscious and died in a short time. His head was badly bruised and the bones in his neck broken. The remains were shipped to his home in Omaha Saturday evening. He is survived by a wife who lives there.

It is unofficially announced that the Gibbons-Hastings cut-off will be placed in service about June 17th. Freight from the northwest to Kansas City, St. Louis and other points southeast, and from those points to the northwest will be sent over the cut-off and through this terminal instead of via Denver. It is believed that this will increase traffic through North Platte about twenty per cent, with a corresponding increase of engine and train crews. This will, of course, prove quite a boost for North Platte.

Flower Mission

The W. C. T. U. Flower Mission will give the following program Tuesday afternoon June 3, at the Baptist church. The public invited. Distribution of flowers to the sick as far as possible.

Mrs. Minnie Perkins, State Superintendent of Flower Mission.

Sale of Real Estate.

The Mrs. B. L. Robinson place, 702 West 2nd (not lower place) to Mrs. Susan Adams. Consideration $2500.00. Sale made by C. F. Temple.

The parents and friends of the Nichols school very successfully surprised Mr. and Mrs. Johnson and the teachers, Miss Johnson and Miss Winterer, at the Johnson home Thursday evening. They were indeed a cheerful crowd and seemed to consider it a joke to be mistaken for some of the neighboring Russians. After enjoying a visit together and being generously served with some splendid ice cream and cake, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were presented with a berry spoon and each of the teachers received a very pretty souvenir spoon. The whole affair was a decided success and resulted in a very friendly feeling between Russia and the United States.

Bargain List

North Platte has secured another convention for 1914, the District Epworth League Convention, this place having been selected as the next meeting place by the Bertrand Convention held last week. The territory embraced is the North Platte conference district of the Methodist church.

The plant of the Nebraska Telephone Co. in North Platte keeps pace with the progress of the town. Last month there was a net gain of twenty-eight subscribers in the city. Manager Brown has been authorized to expend $2,000 in improving the farmer lines out of North Platte that are owned by the company.

Friday night fifty-nine one hundredths of an inch of rain fell, followed Saturday by 1.52 inches and last night by forty-one hundredths of an inch, a total of 2.52 inches in forty-eight hours. Saturday night's rain extended from O'Fallon on the west to Bignell on the east and was heavy northeast of town but light northwest. East of Ft. McPherson rain was badly needed up to Sunday and small grain had begun to "fire."

Good Jack for sale or trade. M. R. Magunson.

The Presbyterian aid society has been postponed one week on account of the banquet.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Sullivan, of Omaha, formerly of this city, are spending this week with friends.

The North Platte Military band will give their weekly concert at the Keith theatre, Thursday evening, June 5th.

Elsewhere Water Commissioner Welch publishes a notice to water consumers. It is an important subject and should be read by all.

During the storm Saturday night a telephone post on Seventh street was struck by lightning, setting the post on fire. The department was called out.

The remains of the late John J. Sullivan will arrive here this afternoon for interment, but pending the arrival of the relatives the hour of the funeral service cannot be announced.

We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors for their sympathy and the beautiful floral offerings at the time of the death of our beloved son.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson and Family.

The members of the North Platte Musicians Association were pleasantly entertained at the home of Del Bonner last evening. Following the monthly business session, cards were played and refreshments served.

Farmers and others crossing the South Platte river bridge complain in strong terms of the practice of throwing refuse on the upper side of the bridge. They say that during the hot days last week the stench arising therefrom was sickening.

Horses Wanted.

I want to buy cheap farm horses, or will hire men with teams all summer. Address or inquire at Sutherland State bank.

Notice.

All the accounts of Ginn, White & Schatz company contracted prior to Aug. 19th, 1912 are owned by Messrs. Ginn & White and are payable at the office of E. H. Evans. All such accounts must be settled prior to June 1st or action will be taken to enforce collection.

FOOT NOTES.

"WALK OVER" shoes are now sold in more than 80 different countries. It is a great deal harder to discover a new country than it is to sell "WALK OVER" shoes there after it is discovered.
