

Hail Insurance Is No Good AFTER YOUR GRAIN IS CUT.

The recent rains have assured a Big Crop of small grain and a big profit to you
IF
YOU DO NOT HAIL OUT

Protect Yourself

Buy your Hail Insurance to-day

BRATT & GOODMAN

Rates Reduced

25 per cent

Local and Personal.

Mrs. John Frazier who has been ill for a couple of weeks is able to sit up today.

Arthur Bullard has resigned his position as night ticket agent at the depot and is succeeded by George Weir.

Mrs. Mary Burns, aged seventy-seven, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. M. J. Riley near Maxwell.

The Twentieth Century Club will hold a Kensington at the home of Mrs. Maynard Crosby Tuesday afternoon of next week.

Mrs. J. L. Murphy left Thursday for Winner to visit Rev. Father Carroll and to attend a forty-hour devotional which begins Sunday.

Dr. W. W. Sadler has purchased of Dorsey Leppoldt 80 acres of land adjoining Hershey on the west. The consideration was $6,400.

The deposits in the two bank at Brady on the day the last statement was called was $214,266.76. That is evidence of the prosperity of the people of the Brady section.

Mrs. George Alloway and daughter, formerly of this city, who had been guests of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Fowler while enroute from Rawlins to Lincoln left this morning.

Colonel Beatty, of Brady, came to town Wednesday not feeling in his usual spirits. While painting at his home on Memorial Day he fell and dislocated a couple of his ribs.

The J. D. G. club were the guests of Miss Evangaline Herrod yesterday afternoon. All of the members were present and spent a pleasant afternoon. Dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Mayme Pizer returned yesterday from Denver, having graduated this week from Wolfe Hall. Mesdames Julius Pizer and Jacob Pizer who went to Denver last week, returned at the same time.

G. E. Koch, who lives on the Iddings' farm south of Hershey, and Mrs. Emma Alkire were married Wednesday evening at the Anderson home on east Fifth street, Rev. Harman officiating. Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Koch left for Hershey.

A score or more North Platte men will leave Sunday morning on an auto run to the Charley Liston ranch a few miles south of Dickens. They will devote an hour or two to fishing in the Liston lake and hope to hook a sufficient number of bass to make a fish dinner.

F. H. Garlow leaves for Cody, Wyo. Monday after spending two weeks in town. Upon his arrival at Cody he will at once proceed to open the summer resort which Colonel Cody has established on the road leading into Yellowstone Park, and which is well patronized by tourists.

Buy a Vacuum Ice Cream Freezer with screw top; will not leak. Saves time and money and insures cleanliness. For sale by Mrs. M. V. Mitchell, phone Red 104.

The announced intention of the city to enforce the ordinance requiring the installation of water metres on or before July 1st is not kindly received by many property owners who in some manner gained the impression that the use of metres would be optional. Practically all admit that the metre system is the proper method of purchasing water; you pay for just what you use, but the of installing the metre is the basis of the "kick." This installation of metres will cost the good people of North Platte between $15,000 to $18,000.

For Sale—640 acres three miles south-east of Julesburg corner, with in 70 feet of river, tilable and pasture. H. A. Fowler, 4559 Lake Ave. Chicago.

Butler Miltonberger left yesterday morning for St. Louis to visit his sister Mrs. Cal Lowell.

Mrs. Charles Perkins returned this morning from a visit in the eastern part of this state.

Miss Grace Ward, of Belgrade, who has been the guest of Miss Fern Perkins will leave Monday.

Howard Woods, of Wallace, is spending a few days in town this week with Mr. and Mrs. Hahler.

Frank Hahler, who has been employed at Sidney for several months, is visiting the home folks this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Berkley, of Davenport, Nebr., who visited their daughter Mrs. M. E. Crosby left yesterday.

Mrs. Dickerson, of Omaha, arrived here this morning to visit Mr. and Mrs. George P. Smith for a week or longer.

Mr. and Mrs. James Norton and children have returned from a visit of two weeks with relatives in Davenport, Ia.

Mrs. A. S. Coates and daughter who had been visiting in California for several months, returned home at noon today.

Misses Bessie and Hazel Smith returned this morning from Kearney where they attended the Senior class play.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dinan, of Omaha, who came to attend the funeral of the late J. J. Sullivan, returned home yesterday.

W. R. Maloney expects to leave the first of next week for Omaha to attend the convention of Funeral Directors.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson, of Hershey, are spending a few days with friends in town.

Rev. T. D. Sullivan, of Elm Creek, conducted services at St. Patrick's church this week during the absence of Rev. McDaid.

Mrs. Galt, of Sterling, Ill., who visited her brother Frank Woods at Wallace, spent yesterday in town while enroute to western points.

Mrs. George Prosser and Mrs. Chas. Bowen are expected to return Monday from Norwalk, O., where they were called by the death of a relative recently.

The D. K. club of the Baptist church will go to Maxwell Monday to spend a week camping. They will be chaperoned by Mrs. Leon and Miss Maude Loudon.

Crystal Theatre.

Tonight we show "The Indian's Secret", A two reel Bison feature. You know what these features are and will want to see this. We also show the Imp comedy, "Why men leave Home."

Saturday night we have a program well assorted. In a lighter vein we have the newlyweds in "He loves to watch the flight of time". The Powers drama "The Tarantula" is well worth seeing. The Stage Driver's Chivalry is a Frontier drama with a thrill in every scene. Tim, the stage driver, gets drunk, and his run is given to Fatty. Fatty receives a strong box and asks Tim to assist him in a holdup. Tim gets in the coach and meets a young girl, who explains that she is going to see her dying mother. Tim wishing to secure the box and also to get the girl to her mother, holds up the driver, and taking his place at the reins, drives the girl to her home in town. He has been pursued when he failed to stop at the stage station, but when the manager of the stage company learns what Tim has done he re-instates him.

Boosting the Lighting System.

Chairman J. B. McDonald, of the committee appointed to canvass property owners and tenants on the subject of installing an electrolite lighting system, made a report to the Chamber of Commerce directors at the meeting last evening. While the canvass has not been completed, it has gone sufficiently far to insure the system. Only one property owner on Dewey street between Front and Fourth declined to pay his proportion of the expense, while every tenant on the street subscribed. Property owners on east and west Front and on some of the other streets intersecting Dewey have signed. The canvassing work will be completed in a few days and then arrangements will begin for the installation of the system.

300 Motorcyclists Expected.

Secretary Crosby, of the Chamber of Commerce, has received word that on July 19th three hundred motorcyclists, enroute to Denver to the federation convention, will arrive in North Platte to spend the night. The inquiry is made as to whether this number can be accommodated; and also as to what form of entertainment, if any, will be furnished these tourists. Secretary Crosby will reply that efforts will be made to take care of the 300. These motorcyclists come from all parts of the east and represent men of all vocations.

Marriage a Failure.

In the district court Wednesday two divorces were granted. Matilda Hankins was granted a legal separation from Charles Hankins after having been wedded to him less than a year, the two having been married at Grand Island in July of last year. The ground for separation was extreme cruelty. The other unfortunates were Minnie and Charley Shook, the former alleging that her liege lord of eight years standing had treated her cruelly and failed to provide for her.

Mrs. B. F. Sailor of the Leader millinery, left Wednesday for Elm Creek.

Mrs. Bolish and daughter Minnie, of Wellfleet, are spending a few days in town with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bebout and Mrs. Nellie Kane of Wallace, spent yesterday in town.

Miss Genevieve Ottenstein has resumed work at the Rincker drug store after a two weeks' vacation.

Mrs. Filbin, of Hartwell, was called here yesterday by the illness of her daughter-in-law Mrs. James Filbin.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Forbes will go to Omaha next week where the former will attend the Funeral Directors Convention.

The Misses O'Hare and mother have given up housekeeping in the Schatz residence and taken rooms with Mrs. J. B. Murphy.

The Epworth League will hold its regular monthly social and business meeting tonight at the home of Miss Hannah Young, 315 South Pine.

For Rent—Pleasant furnished rooms with use of parlor and piano, modern. Reference expected phone red 217.

Mrs. J. J. Sullivan and sons William and Leo and daughter Mary, who accompanied the remains of the late J. J. Sullivan to this city, left for their home in Omaha yesterday morning.

Generally fair tonight and Saturday, cooler tonight. Brisk winds. Highest temperature yesterday 85, a year ago 78; lowest temperature last night 65, a year ago 48.

Mrs. Gus Chamberlain and son Valdemar, of Denver, who came the first of this week to attend the funeral of the former's uncle the late J. J. Sullivan, will leave tomorrow morning.

Daniel J. Sullivan, of Brooklyn, N. Y., who resided here thirty years ago, is spending this week at the home of his brother P. H. Sullivan, having come to attend the funeral of his other brother, the late John J. Sullivan.

Report of Public Library Board.

The library board presented its annual report to the city council Tuesday evening, from which the following figures are taken: Balance on hand June 1, 1912, $813.21; received from city treasurer $1,260; received from fines and rentals $66.00, total $2,139.21. Expenses for the year were $1,625.20, leaving a balance June 1st, 1913, of $514.01. There are now 1185 volumes in the library, and the number of borrowers on the books is 1345.

Mrs. Hubert Donaldson and children left Wednesday evening for Farnam to spend a half month with relatives.

Bargain List.

Full two story frame dwelling, eight rooms, modern except heat, full lot and shade trees, nice lawn and out buildings. 600 E. 3rd St., block from new school house, three blocks from high school.

Entertains at Dancing Party.

Members of the T. M. E. club and an equal number of young men were guests of Miss Edith Patterson at her home last evening. With a large area of space for dancing and music by an orchestra, the evening proved a most enjoyable one. Seasonable refreshments were served at midnight.

Cattle Die of Unknown Disease.

Yesterday's issue of the Brady Vindicator says: Last week J. Linenbrench, a renter on the C. I. Hill ranch ten miles north of Brady, lost thirty head of cattle out of a herd of 230 by some contagious disease. A. C. Combs foreman of the Platte Valley Cattle Co., made a trip to the Hill ranch Monday of this week and reports that the disease baffles him, the cattle just droop and die off at an alarming rate. The state veterinarian has been called to investigate.

The Second Annual Concert.

The second annual concert of the North Platte School of Music will be held at the studio, 122 west Front street, Friday evening, June 13th, at eighth o'clock. An admission of ten cents will be charged.

This will be an event that will please those who enjoy music.

Fifty-one tickets to North Platte sold at the Hershey station Wednesday. This unusual number was accounted for by the eighth grade students and their friends who came here to attend the graduation exercises.

Shake Off Your Rheumatism.

Now is the time to get rid of your rheumatism. Try a twenty-five cent bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and see how quickly your rheumatic pains disappear. Sold by all dealers.

New Location NORTH PLATTE PRODUCE CO.

We wish to call the attention of the farmers and poultry raisers, that on Saturday June 7th, 1913

we will be moved to our new poultry house, first building east of the U. P. freight depot. We also wish to thank you for your liberal patronage in the past and trust it may increase in the future. Call and see us in our new location.

We Want Hens and Spring Chickens

and advise all that have poultry to sell to bring them in now while the price is high as they are going down

We are paying the following price per pound today

Hens 11c Spring Chickens 22c Ducks 10c
 Geese 7c Turkeys 13c Roosters 4c

We do not guarantee this price for any length of time but expect it to hold up this week.

VERY TRULY YOURS,

North Platte Produce Co.