Charged with Illegal Sale of Liquor.

Information was filed Friday against Dr. Bent, the Wallace druggist, charging him with selling liquor without a license. The hearing was to have been held yesterday, but his wife telegraphed that the Doctor was sick and asked for a continuance, which was granted.

On two former occasions Dr. Bent was defendant against similar charges, but both times escaped on technicalities. Confident that he was selling liquor illegally, a number of the Wallace people have been keeping their eyes open for an opportunity to catch him with the goods. The time came last Friday, when he shipped in two cases of beer. Sheriff Salsbury was at once notified, and went over Friday night and searched the premises. Considerable whiskey was found in the drug store and two cases of beer on an adjoining lot, where it had been thrown over a fence by Dr. Bent when he learned the sheriff was in town. It is said that he was in bed when the officer arrived, but sneaking out in his nightshirt to his garage, where he had the beer concealed, dumped it over the fence into an adjoining lot.
