White-Hall Wedding at Grand Island.

The Grand Island Independent of Wednesday contained the following account of the wedding of two former North Platte young people.

At 11 o'clock this morning at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Driebus, in the south part of the city, occurred the marriage of Miss Ora Hall to Mr. Theodore D. White, of Cedar Rapids, Ia. Rev. L. L. Lips of the English Lutheran church conducted an impressive ceremony in the presence of members of the family and a few immediate friends. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion, with palms and masses of cut flowers.

The bride was attired in a beautiful embroidered gown and the bride's bouquet was carried by little Kathleen Costello, a niece. Mrs. W. M. Costello, sister of the bride, played the wedding march, to the strains of which the happy couple took their position before the guests for the tying of the knot. After the ceremony an elaborate five-course dinner was served and at 1:50 Mr. and Mrs. White left over the Union Pacific to make their future home at Cedar Rapids, Ia., the bride wearing a traveling suit of brown. Mrs. White is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Addie Hall and for the last three years made her home at North Platte, where she held a position as stenographer with Hoagland & Hoagland. She was born in this city and has hosts of friends here. Mr. White is a machinist and is steadily employed with a large firm at Cedar Rapids. The happy couple were shown a merry time at the station where they were showered with rice, their baggage was well decorated with old shoes, and the berth especially decorated for the couple and properly labeled.

Mrs. Meeks Denied Divorce.

Judge Grimes Wednesday denied a divorce to Mrs. W. C. Meeks, who sued for a separation on the ground of cruelty and neglect. The Judge also denied the cross-petition of Meeks who sought a divorce on the charge of wrong living on the part of his wife. About a score of witnesses had been summoned to give testimony in the case, and after hearing the evidence the Judge decided that the two could live better as man and wife especially as there was a four year old child to be cared for. The Meekses were married five years ago, and separated last March. Meeks says he will not live with his wife but will help support her and the child.

No Cause for Alarm.

Dr. W. T. Pritchard, government veterinarian, who investigated the reported cattle disease at the Lindburg ranch north of Brady, found that practically all of the thirty cattle lost by Lindburg died from effects following the March blizzard. There were reports that the cattle had died of some unknown contagious disease and from the exaggerated reports stockmen in the county became much alarmed. Dr. Pritchard says there is absolutely no cause for uneasiness as the deaths did not result from a contagious disease.

Special Prizes.

A number of special prizes will be offered for features in connection with the Fourth of July celebration. Harry Porter offers a purse of ten dollars for the two prettiest babies, seven dollars to the prettiest and three dollars to the second prettiest. C. F. Temple offers ten dollars to the farmer bringing in the largest load of people, the biggest load to receive seven dollars and the second largest three dollars.
