

Splendid Talent for the Chautauqua

Have you heard about it? This town is going to have a Chautauqua in about four weeks, a real, sure-enough Chautauqua. It will last for six days and will be in a big tent. A genuine hot-weather proposition that will be cool and pleasant.

Fine music, fine Chautauqua orators and a whole lot of entertainment, the clean kind.

It is the finest thing the town has all year.

Take a glance at this list of talent:

Mrs. A. C. Zehner of the south, a fine southern orator.

The Bennett Male Quartette, four lively college chaps, who certainly can sing.

Ellsworth Plamstead, entertainer.

The Military Girls, six girls in military costume singing stirring military airs.

The Fisher-Shipp Company, a variety company headed by Miss Shipp.

Geo. C. Aydelott, a lecturer you'll like.

The Regblers, four talented musicians and entertainers.

Ned Woodman, cartoonist.

F. E. Gordon, lecturer.

The Royal Italian Guards Band from Venice in Italy.

Chancellor George H. Bradford of Oklahoma, church educator and lecturer on practical, inspirational themes.

Dr. C. C. Mitchell, the fiery little minister from Rhoad Island.

And the debate Congressman Charles F. Scott and Henry J. Allen, on the future of the political parties. Mr. Scott is a staunch Republican and Mr. Allen a Progressive.

Congressman Scott was the director of the publicity bureau of the last national campaign and a member of congress, also chairman of the committee on agriculture. Mr. Allen is a well known political writer and newspaper owner in Denver.

The season tickets are on sale now. Get a ticket and get to the Chautauqua.

The Junior Chautauqua, for boys and girls, will be a big feature.

The divorce was granted on the grounds of extreme cruelty, the plaintiff alleging that on October 19th, 1912, the defendant assaulted her with a two horse neckyoke, fracturing her skull, breaking her upper jaw and eight ribs and causing internal injuries. In December, 1912, the defendant pleaded guilty and was given a term in the state penitentiary which he is now serving. It was agreed that the plaintiff should receive fifteen hundred dollars (half of the defendant's estate) and the costs of the case.

The Fourth of July committee met Monday afternoon and completed arrangements for the program on the national holiday. A number of free street attractions have been planned and an elaborate display of fire works will be held in the evening. The morning parade will be a burlesque circus, this will be followed by horse races, reading of Declaration of Independence and ladder climbing contests. During the afternoon there will be a program of races, a wild west performance and a balloon ascension. A large crowd is expected as the neighboring towns do not intend to celebrate and the committees are making arrangements to accommodate and entertain them in a glorious manner.

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by all dealers.

Real Enjoyment

The man who takes enjoyment out of a good cigar will do well to purchase our brands. As a home manufacturer, we have a reputation to maintain, and therefore put better tobacco in our cigars than do most manufacturers. If we did not make goods cigars, we could not sell them and would soon be forced out of business.
