M. K. Barnum, formerly of this city, who recently resigned as superintendent of motive power of the Illinois Central, has been appointed general mechanical inspector of the Baltimore and Ohio road. When Mr. Barnum left the Illinois Central it was for the purpose of engaging in a manufacturing business, but evidently the call of the railroad was too strong for him to resist.

Nearly Ready for the Big Show.

Preparations for the big gala week and Fourth of July celebration are about completed, the huge hole necessary for the water circus is being dug and the electric light company employees are busy hanging their transformers necessary to furnish the various attractions with two thousand electric lights and North Platte will entertain its visitors like it has never done before.

Rice and Dore's water carnival and circus, aside from its male members, its clowns, comedians, Indians and log rollers, numbers twelve beautiful and accomplished lady swimming and diving experts. Never before in an aquatic act, nor any other kind of an act, for that matter, have so many perfectly formed women been seen before.

The many girls who lead the world in their various forms of water sports and gymnastics have been selected from all parts of the two hemispheres where swimming and diving is an accomplishment.

England's champions the Hall sisters, are members of the Rice and Dore water circus, as walkers, the famous Cavill Family headed by Dick Caville, Australia's most famous divers and trick swimmers, the Irish water queen, Esther Donaghue, May Roberts, the Hawaiian representative, Norway and Sweden is fully represented by C. Soderberg; Adelaide, Beatrice and Jessie DeYoung swear allegiance to France and America's entry is Josephine Flory the perfect woman and perfect swimmer. There is no known stroke that Miss Flory has not mastered and indeed at least one method of swimming, "the crawl" is her own invention.

In all forms of this graceful art the Rice and Dore water nymphs are pre-eminently the leaders and it will be many a day before so many beautiful, graceful and artistic diving divinites will be seen in any act of the kind.

The merchants have decided to have the different attractions down town throughout the entire week instead of the Fourth and Saturday as originally planned, but none of the shows or concessions will be open for business until 7 p. m. daily, excepting on the Fourth and on Saturday; all shows will open at 9 a. m. on the Fourth.

Hite-Dowhower Wedding.

A pretty home wedding occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Dowhower on west 5th street Wednesday evening, when their daughter Myrtle was united in marriage to Lawrence Hite, Rev. C. B. Harman of the Lutheran church performed the ceremony in the presence of forty friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Promptly at eight o'clock Miss Gladys Hall played the wedding march and the bridal party took their places.

The bride wore a becoming gown of white tulle veiling with trimmings of shadow lace and she carried a shower bouquet of marguerites and ferns. Her maid of honor, Miss Naomi Dowhower, wore a blue messaline gown and held an arm bouquet of anthuriums.

Frank Johnson stood with the groom. After the ceremony the guests partook of a sumptuous wedding supper and the bride and groom departed for their new home on the Jack Morrow Flats amid a shower of rice and good wishes.

Assisting in serving were the Misses Hazel Donaldson, Isabelle Walker and Ellen McGovern.

Both the young people are highly respected and popular with all their acquaintances.

A Chance for School Girls and Boys to see the Chautauqua Free and Get a Cash Prize Besides.

We have decided to give every school girl and boy selling $20 worth of season tickets to the Chautauqua, that is 10 adults or 20 children tickets or in that proportion, an adult season ticket and to the child turning in the largest receipts for the sale of tickets a $10.00 cash prize and to the one turning in the next largest amount, $5.00 cash prize. All tickets and reports must be turned in by 6:00 o'clock Saturday evening, July 12th, 1913, and the winners of the cash prizes will be announced that evening at the Chautauqua.

Remember, every child that sells $20 worth of tickets gets an adult season ticket.

The Chautauqua will be better this year than ever, so every one will want tickets. Let's get busy.

For further information and tickets, call at C. F. Temple's office. Room 1, I. O. O. F. building.

START EARLY Talk Number 1 on the CHAUTAUQUA THIS Chautauqua that you are to have here this summer is a new kind of Chautauqua. What interest have you in Greek mythology? None. But you ARE interested in the business and social life of 1913—in the vital issues that affect your well-being today and will affect it tomorrow. And you need the inspiration of music that stirs every mite of enthusiasm in you and that puts a new incentive into the work of every day. Then you will like this Chautauqua—built on vastly new lines for the man fighting TODAY'S struggles and facing TOMORROW'S. It is a grand, splendid program. You will be timid about getting into the Chautauqua habit the first day. The last night, you'll be clamoring for seats and wishing there were more Chautauqua days to come. Get started on the opening day and you'll be glad to have missed none of it.
