Chautauqua Opens With Fair Attendance.

North Platte's fourth annual Chautauqua opened Saturday evening with a rather disappointing attendance considering the talent announced for the evening; but it is evident that people don't particularly enjoy political discussions in hot weather. The program for the evening was in the nature of a debate between Henry J. Allen, a Washington correspondent for a progressive newspaper, a progressive of the Roosevelt type and the man who seconded the nomination of Roosevelt in 1912 Chicago convention; and Congressman Scott, of Ohio, who is somewhat of a stand-patter. Both are fluent talkers, and each well held the close attention of the audience. During the evening Helen Smith, a capable vocalist rendered several selections.

Sunday afternoon Chancellor Bradford gave a lecture that was highly commended by his hearers; in fact it was pronounced one of the best addresses ever delivered at North Platte Chautauqua. As a prelude the Bennett male quartette rendered a program of sacred music and was heartily encored. This quartette gave a concert in the evening and received a most hearty welcome. They were followed by Ned Woodman a chalk illustrator and talker who is very good.

Yesterday afternoon as a prelude the Regniers gave a program of vocal and instrumental numbers, and was followed by a lecture by Mrs. A. C. Zehner, a southern woman of marked brilliancy of mind.

Last night The Regniers gave a musical prelude to a program of readings by Ellsworth Plumstead, two of which were in costume. He is a good entertainer.

This afternoon's feature will be a musical program by the military girls, and this evening George Aydelott will deliver a lecture on "The Man of the Hour." The Military Girls will also appear on the evening program.

Tomorrow afternoon the Fisher Shipp Co., who have been here before, will fill the program with impersonations and musical selections, and they will again appear in the evening, in addition to a lecture by Dr. Mitchell. Chancellor Bradford will also be on the afternoon program.

Thursday afternoon the Royal Italian Guards Band will make its initial appearance, this band in connection with a lecture by F. E. Gordon constituting the afternoon program. The Chautauqua will close Thursday evening with a concert by the Guards Band.

The talent engaged for this Chautauqua is above the average, and the programs are sufficiently varied to please all classes.

The home builder should investigate the liberal policy of our State Building & Loan Association to borrowers. Nothing cheaper or more equitable. See Bratt & Goodman, Agents.

Earn Twenty Per Man.

The Military band, which played the Rice & Dore Carnival on a fifteen per cent basis, agreeing to pay the license fee and water and light expense, finds its net receipts are about $360, or twenty dollars per man. This apportionment goes to each member as an individual, and not into the band treasury.

Wanted.

Girl for general housework. Apply 421 West 4th St. Mrs. E. R. Goodman.

The forty-five eastern railroads, upon which the trainmen and conductors voted to strike unless granted an increase in pay, have agreed to submit the matter to a board of arbitration. Nine hundred employees on the various railroads are already out, not waiting for a formal declaration of a strike.

Fine batiste and lawns regular 12 1/2 and 15c values go at 5c per yard during this sale. E. T. TRAMP & SON.

J. A. Waddick, fireman of the Union Pacific, was injured at Kearney Sunday when he fell from the tank of an engine. He was pulling the water plug when the hook slipped and he fell backwards to the ground. He received a scalp wound which required several stitches and had his arm injured, though not seriously.

THE MUTUAL BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION.

The assets of this association exceed the sum of half a million dollars. The reduction of the rate of interest to borrowers has increased the demand for loans; and in order to meet this demand the association will issue a limited amount of its PAID UP STOCK.

Money invested in this paid up stock draws six per cent interest, payable semi-annually, and may be withdrawn at any time upon thirty days notice, such notice being waived where there are funds in the treasury to meet the withdrawal.

T. C. PATTERSON, President. SAMUEL GOOZEE, Secretary.

Meat Prices Still Soaring.

Meat prices are still advancing and hundreds of small meat markets in the cities have been driven out of business on account of high prices decreasing their business. In Omaha for instance, where retailers paid 4 1/2 cents per pound for sheep carcasses the first of the year, they are now paying 9 1/2 cents per pound. January 1, six months ago, they paid 12 cents for pork loins at the packing houses. Now they pay 15 1/2 cents for the same article. For veal carcasses they paid 10 1/2 cents January 1, now they pay 17 cents. They then paid 16 1/2 cents for bacon. Now they must pay 25 cents.

FOR RENT.

The store building on corner Locust and 6th streets, houses furnished and unfurnished rooms. Also 320 acres of good bottom hay land close to station. Price low and terms easy. Bratt & Goodman.

Parcel Post Limit is Raised.

Effective August 15 the limit on the weight of parcel post packages will be lifted from eleven pounds and increased to twenty. This announcement was made by James L. Stice, superintendent of the Fourteenth division of the railway mail service, upon receipt of notification from Postmaster General Burleson.

In addition to increasing the weight limit on parcel post packages the second zone will be abolished, the first and second zones being consolidated and the rates applying to the first zone will prevail. Under this new order the rates for sending a package a distance of 150 miles will be identical per pound with the rates on a package going but ten miles.

The hail, lightning and windstorm season is still with us. If not fully protected, have Bratt & Goodman write you a policy. The cost is small compared to the benefits received.

The county commissioners have made semi-annual settlement with County Judge Grant, County Clerk Yost and Sheriff Salisbury, and renewed the contract with Mrs. Emma Pulver for the care of the poor of Lincoln county for the ensuing year.

Miss Hazel Smith will return tonight from Denver where she spent two weeks with the Broach family.

C. W. Horne left at noon Saturday for Omaha to visit for a week or longer.

Wm. McMichael, of Maywood transacted business in town last week.

Miss Ione Chappell, of the Junior Normal faculty left the latter part of last week for Kearney to visit relatives for a few days.
