Will Build New School Houses.

Elsewhere in this issue School Districts No. 3 and No. 5 advertise for bids for the erection of new school houses. District No. 5 lies north of the river, and has already five school buildings. The estimated cost of the new building is $700. District No. 3 is southeast of town and the new building, which is to be 28x30, is to take the place of the old log school house.

Oceans of Corn.

From Ft. McPherson east to Gothenburg bridge the country south of the river is almost one continuous field of corn, and it is certainly in fine condition. Looking down the valley as far as the eye can see the vista presented is that of an ocean of fluttering corn stalks, and the scene is certainly not only pretty but gratifying.

Goes South to Buy Cattle.

John Holcomb, of Maxwell, was in town Sunday enroute to Texas where he goes to purchase cattle for the Holcomb ranch. The grass is fine in the pastures; and in order to consume it the number of cattle--now 700--will be increased several hundred head. Mr. Holcomb was in Texas and Mexico a couple of months ago and purchased and shipped north quite a good sized bunch.

North Platte Takes Two.

The Willow Island ball team was defeated on the local grounds Friday afternoon by a score of twenty-one to one. Sunday the team played a return game at Willow Island and won by a score of four to two. This last game was an interesting one, notwithstanding the North Platte team played rather raggedly. There were about five hundred spectators present, seventy-five automobiles being counted on the grounds. Fifty or more North Platte people were present.

Will Attend Grand Encampment.

The grand encampment of the Knights Templar will be held at Denver August 12 to 16th. A committee appointed by the local commandery is now ascertaining how many members will attend, and while the number is not now definitely known, it is probable that the commandery will be well represented, some of whom will be accompanied by their ladies. It is probable that a dozen special trains of eastern knights will pass through North Platte August 10th and 11th.

J. H. Greer, of Rushville, Ill., arrived here the latter part of last week to visit his wife who is spending the summer at the home of her aunt Mrs. Hattie Farrington.
