THE MUTUAL BUILDING & LOAN ASSOCIATION.

The assets of this association exceed the sum of half a million dollars. The reduction of the rate of interest to borrowers has increased the demand for loans; and in order to meet this demand the association will issue a limited amount of its PAID UP STOCK.

Money invested in this paid up stock draws six per cent interest, payable semi-annually and may be withdrawn at any time upon thirty days notice, such notice being waived where there are funds in the treasury to meet the withdrawal.

An Ordinance No. 35

Providing for the submission to the voters of the city of North Platte, Nebraska, of the proposition authorizing the mayor and council of said city to borrow money and pledge the property and credit of said city upon its negotiable bonds to an amount not exceeding ten thousand dollars to be used for the payment of the cost of paving the intersections of streets and space opposite alleys in paving districts in said city and to levy a tax on the taxable property of said city in addition to all other taxes, sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund for the payment of the same when they become due.

Be it ordained by the mayor and council of the city of North Platte, Nebraska:

Section (1) That at the election to be held in the city of North Platte on the 19th day of August, 1913, the following proposition shall be submitted to the voters of said city: "Shall the mayor and council of the city of North Platte, Nebraska, have power and be authorized to borrow money and pledge the property and credit of said city upon its negotiable bonds to an amount not exceeding $10,000.00 to be used in paying the costs of paving the intersections of streets and spaces opposite alleys in paving districts in said city and to levy a tax annually upon the taxable property of said city in addition to all other taxes sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds and to create a sinking fund sufficient to pay the interest and bonds all as the same become due and payable at their maturity."

Section (2) The bonds proposed by the proposition contained in the preceding sections shall draw interest at the rate of five per cent per annum from the date of their delivery, payable semi-annually and be evidenced by the coupons to said bonds attached. Said bonds shall be drawn payable to bearer twenty years after date but redeemable at the option of the city ten years from the date thereof. Said bonds and the interest coupons shall be payable at the fiscal agency of the state of Nebraska.

Section (3) Before negotiating said bonds the mayor and council shall advertise for bids for the sale thereof in such a manner and for such time as they may deem best. Such notice shall reserve the right to reject any and all bids and the bonds shall be sold to the highest responsible bidder but in no case below their par value.

Section (4) It shall be the duty of the mayor and clerk of said city acting for and on behalf of said city to sign and attest said bonds and the coupons attached thereto and to affix the seal of said city to said bonds. The seal shall not be attached to said coupons.

Section 5 The proceeds of the sale of said bonds shall be paid to the treasurer of said city and shall be by him placed to the credit of "Paving Bond Fund". Said bonds shall be described as "Paving Bonds of the City of North Platte Nebraska."

Section 6 The polls at such special election shall be kept open between the hours of nine o'clock a. m. and seven o'clock p. m. and the voting places for said election shall be as follows, to-wit:

First Ward—at the First Ward Fire House.

Second Ward—at County Court House.

Third Ward—at the Third Ward Fire House.

Fourth Ward—at the Fourth Ward Fire House.

The ballots voted at said election shall be in accordance with the form prescribed by the Australian ballot law and shall have printed thereon the propositions embodied in sections one and two of this ordinance, followed by the words "Yes" and "No."

Section 7. Should the majority of the ballots cast at such election upon such proposition be in favor of said proposition, then the same shall be considered adopted and the Mayor and Council shall have power and be authorized to issue said bonds and levy such taxes for the purpose and upon the conditions above specified.

Section 8. Notice of said election shall be given by publication in North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune and Telegraph, newspapers and in general circulation in said city for three weeks prior to the date of said election, and be included in Proclamation of the Mayor in calling election, and the clerk is hereby instructed to cause publication of said notice to be made.

Section 9. This ordinance shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and approval, according to law. Dated this 15th day of July, 1913.

Attest: Sgd. E. H. EVANS, Mayor.
L. P. CARPENTER, Acting Clerk.

Passed and approved this 15th day of July 1913.

Borrowing a Match.

Weedon Grossmith in "From Studio to Stage" tells of his friend Heather Bigg, who annoyed him frequently by asking him for a match while angling during intensely cold weather. To supply the request meant pulling in his line, unfastening his mackintosh, then the overcoat and finally the undercoat. But, then, who can grudge so small a thing as a match?

The second day we fished it was positively colder. Heather Bigg's pipe had gone out as usual. "Weedon, got a match?"

It suddenly occurred to me he must have brought matches with him or how did he light his pipe, so I answered, "No."

"What a nuisance!" he replied and drew in his line, undid his mackintosh, then the overcoat and undercoat and at last took out a box of matches.

"Why," I said, "you've got your matches with you."

"Yes," he replied, "but I didn't want to catch cold getting them."

Ships That Kick.

Ask a sailor if his ship is a kicker, and he knows well what you mean, for it is about the first question he asks when he takes the helm.

Up there on the bridge in rough weather the man at the wheel has many a tough tussle if his ship, owing to her constructive lines or ballasting, is inclined to be skittish. Sometimes when rearing at the onslaught of a big roller the vessel may throw her heels in the air, the rudder swinging clear and her propeller racing.

The next moment, sinking into a watery hollow, the enormous side pressure causes a violent drag on the rudder chains. Then, unless stoutly held or secured by kicking straps, round whizzes the wheel. Many a seaman, unable to let go in time, has been thrown, bruised and battered, to the deck or, caught by the spokes, has even been tossed overboard into the boiling surf.—Pearson's Weekly.

Freaks of Memory.

As to freaks of memory, Mark Twain has told us of the pilot who knew every bend, creek, current and shallow in the Mississippi river throughout its whole mighty length, but could not remember what he had had for breakfast. Probably most memories are like that. One man I know has a memory that apparently collects only figures. He can always remember your age, even if he forgets your name. He will memorize easily the times of all the trains to a given place, but he generally forgets the platforms from which they start. Reel off to him a column of statistics, and he will recite them again to you a month later without a mistake, having in the meantime forgotten everything else about you. But then he is a born mathematician. Evidently memory is largely a question of sympathy. We remember the things we are really interested in.—London Chronicle.

Tenderness of Tenors.

No principal singer could sing every night in one week. Star tenors seldom sing more than twice in one week, and at rehearsals they sing for the most part in a falsetto, says the Manchester Guardian.

It is said that the great Tamango used to take such care of his voice that he never even spoke during the day when he was singing at night. He carried on a conversation by means of a slate hung around his neck.

Some baritones, on the other hand, have been habitually careless about their voices, and Berlioz speaks of a splendid bass singer who tramped about the mountains in the snow all day with his throat exposed and sang magnificently the same night.

But in the wings at Covent Garden you may see Siegfried in shining armor with a woolen muffler round his throat.

Bismarck's "Mot."

As might be expected of a man of iron, Bismarck's wit was of the sledge hammer sort. In 1862, according to "Intimate Memoirs of Napoleon III.," by Baron d'Ambes, he went to Paris as Prussian ambassador.

"I have never heard a German speak French as you do," complimented the emperor on the occasion of their first meeting.

"Thanks, sire," returned Bismarck. "I have never heard a Frenchman speak French as you do."

The emperor spoke with a perceptible German accent.

Beginning Early.

"Yes, sir," said the proud young father, "that baby of ours is going to be a successful politician. He'll be a great vote getter before he's of age."

"Why, he can't talk yet!"

"No, but he has started right in, trying to kick and shake hands at the same time."—Washington Star.

Positively Uncanny.

"There's something very queer about that woman," said the clerk. "I don't know what to make of her."

"Why?" the floorwalker asked.

"She was satisfied with the first piece of goods I showed her."—Chicago Record-Herald.

His Long Suit.

"I like it ever so much better, Mr. Smykins, when you are holding it in your hand."—Chicago Tribune.
