Man of Seventy-Six Appropriates Rig

Sheriff Slevors returned yesterday from Maxwell, where he went to secure an old man who was captured there in possession of the horse belonging to C. E. Brumwell, which was stolen several days ago. The man's name is A. A. Underwood, and at first he was very uncommunicative, but later told the sheriff his complete story. Briefly summarized he stated that he was on his way west from Iowa, where he had been on a visit to relatives. He rode from Prairie City to Lincoln, but although 76 years of age, he walked from the state capital to Grand Island. Seeing the horse and knowing where the rig was kept, he thought he would take it and continue to the west by that means, stating to the sheriff that he was endeavoring to reach North Platte where he has a nephew living. His own home he states is in Wyoming. He was born in Kentucky, served through the Civil war, and although his wife is dead he has sons living. He stated that he was injured some time ago by being kicked in the neck by a horse. The old gentleman told a very straight and connected story.—Grand Island Independent.

Will Dolan, who was up from Maxwell yesterday says corn in that section is the best he has ever seen, and he has been living at Maxwell since a little codger. Particularly fine is the corn in the hills north of Maxwell. From Wallace comes the report that corn was never better; in fact with the exception of a few spots, the crop in the county is above the average. Here's hoping that the present prospects may not become dimmed.

Ninety-six per cent of the trainmen and conductors employed on the Pacific division of the Southern Pacific system have voted to strike unless their differences with the management over the terms of employment, rates and seniority allowed on the company's electric lines can be adjusted. The result of the vote, which stands 3,816 in favor of striking to 187 against, was made public.

C. S. Sawyer, the drayman, appeared on the streets this morning with a very handsome new bus, which he will use largely for passenger service. It is attractive in design and the interior nicely upholstered. It is the best looking conveyance of its kind ever brought to North Platte.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Murdock who had been visiting in cities of Illinois and Iowa for several weeks, returned home this morning.

The school board of Stapleton is corresponding with Architect Reynolds of this city relative to plans for a new school building for that village. The board plans a building that will be of sufficient size to accommodate the future needs of that growing town.

C. W. McMullin, for many years one of North Platte's best barbers, but now manager of the Loyal hotel shop in Omaha, is in town for a fortnight's vacation. Charley's superior handed him two weeks wages and told him to take a vacation, and of course he did not need to be told a second time.

My fire, lightning and tornado policies are backed by the strongest companies in the insurance business. My policies are the most liberal policies because I know how to write them to give the assured full protection and they are written at the lowest possible rate, consistent with good underwriting. C. F. Temple.

The members of the Christian church held a pleasant outing at the Birdwood grove yesterday. The picnic party went to the grounds on No. 97 at nine o'clock yesterday morning and returned on the branch train at five o'clock. All manner of outdoor sports were indulged in and the two hundred present thoroughly enjoyed the day. The well filled baskets were opened at noon and the good things which they contained served generously.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

Friday Night

King Baggot in "The Stanger." This is a two part offering and tells a Kentucky mountain story. Baggot a disappointed millionaire goes to the mountains where he meets June (Violet Mercereau). The climax follows an exciting attack of moonshiner on him and this is handled with originality. King Baggot is one of the leading Universal Actors, and his work stands in a class of its own.

"The Princess of the valley" is an Indian story the leading role being by Mona Dark feather about which there is a pretty story. She is not an Indian but a Spaniard with a great love for Indian people and customs. The real Mona Dark feather when dying asked the Spanish girl to take her name which she did and it seems she did and it seems she must have taken the spirit too for she is typical Indian.

Saturday Night

"Why Rags Left Home" is the story of the little Italian newsboy Rocco and his dog. He lacks the funds to pay the license on the dog and the poundmaster takes Rags. This picture will please for it is sincerely acted and humanely true in its sorrow and cry for sympathy. Let the children come to the matinee and see the child actor.

"Her Nerve" tells a railroad story and the heroine, Violet Horner saves the money box from the villain and stops the passenger train that is roaring toward the burning trestle.

"Hall Room Girls" is a crystal film with Pearl White and Chester Barnett in the leads.

"How Men Propose," nuf said.

Monday Night

The of the Haaging Rock a two-reel Eclair.
