Silverware

In the days of forefathers, Spoons and Forks were strictly utensils. Spoons of one sort or the other, were generally used-but Forks are so modern that few possessed them in the days of the American colonies, and the majority did not know their use. That Spoons and forks should possess beauty of line or have artistic merit in design was not in those days a matter of concern.

Spoons and Forks

are now considered an important factor in one's table appointments and great care should be given to the selection of a pattern. This is as it should be.

Our patterns are the work of skiiled designers and offered in sufficient variety to satify every taste and in weights to meet every demand.

We desire to show you a beautiful stock from which to make your selections.

The Presbyterian Sunday school rendered a program of songs and recitations in lieu of the regular morning service. Among those taking part in the program were Flo Stamp, Jessie Blankenburg, Rob Armstrong and Harvey VanDoran, Horse races were held at the fair grounds, young Tib winning the half mile trot in 1:26 and 1:29; Dillion's "Foley" won the mile pace in 3:02; and Davis' "King" won a mile trot in 3:15. Sixteen cars on train 18 were wrecked at O'Fallon, due to the breaking of an axle on a car loaded with silver bullion. Preparations were being made for a soldiers' reunion and 350 wall tents and one large camp pavilim had been ordered. The committee decided to charge a license fee of $20 for dance halls on the grounds.

J. H. Hershey informed The Tribune that he had a twenty acre field of clover which stood as high as a man's head and would yield from three to four tons per acre.

The crop of barley was being threshed and was running from fifty to sixty-five bushels per acre. Eli Etchison, living south of Sutherland estimated, his wheat crop at 3,000 bushels.

This wonderfully attractive display surpasses anything we have previously attempted. From an artistic standpoint its scope is unequalled by any any similiar exhibition of styles. The styles are authoritive because they bear the stamp of approval of fashions greatest artists. Every new fabric and material is here in lavish assortment, exemplifying the fashion requirements of the well dressed woman to the minutest degree. Nor will you have to pay prohibitive prices in order to be correctly attired.
