

An Important Convention.

A convention of more than ordinary importance will be held in this city on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week. We refer to The Great Plains Co-operative Association and the American Society of Agronomy which will bring to our city some of the most noted agriculturalists of the country, especially of the country west of the Missouri, as well as one or more from the agricultural department at Washington. The sessions will be held in the court room of the federal building.

The Chamber of Commerce has appointed a committee to look after the entertainment of the delegates, who will be furnished an automobile ride to the state farm and be entertained at a smoker at the Elks' home. The committee will also look after the hotel accommodations. The full program of sessions will be published in Friday's issue.

Boy Shot in Leg.

The young son of Mr. and Mrs. Thos. McGovern was accidentally shot through the right leg above the knee yesterday afternoon while handling a 22-calibre gun. The youngster in company with a Loudon boy had been using the gun when a shell stuck, and in attempting to extricate it the weapon was discharged. The ball struck McGovern on the inner side of the leg, was deflected by the bone and plowed its way around the bone and emerged on the opposite side. The wound is a painful though not dangerous one.

The Lutheran Church Picnic.

The Lutheran Brotherhood will hold their annual picnic on Thursday afternoon and evening at Dillon's grove instead of Doolittle's to which the church and Sunday School are invited. It will be a basket picnic. Ice cream cones will be served by the men. Supper at 7 o'clock. Games and sports for all and a base ball game for the men. Be there at 3 o'clock. The Committee.

The Mutual Building & Loan Association has for sale at a bargain, lots 3 and 4, block 23. Large eight roomed house, nearly new and large barn, this is in a locality fast appreciating in value, a small first payment and the rent will buy it.

Frank Pielsticker, who made a trip to Wallace Sunday, says that corn on sandy land is in fine shape and will produce a good crop without rain. That growing on hard land is not so good.

At Grand Island last Friday Clara L. Hutchens was granted a divorce from Wm. C. Hutchens, now and for many years past a resident of this city. They were married in North Platte ten years ago. The plea was desertion.

Claus Mylander is building a 24x36 silo on his farm southeast of town, and at the experimental farm an additional one is being erected. Several farmers in different sections of the county are building silos in the hillsides, the ground forming three sides of the silo.

Today's Bee says: The long drouth which has prevailed over the state for the last month or six weeks, has been practically broken in most parts of Nebraska and reports from railroads and towns indicate that some corn will be harvested in nearly every county in Nebraska. In the country north of the Platte an average corn crop is assured, while south of the Platte, where predictions made Saturday of last week were of very pessimistic nature, the railroads and farmers now expect to harvest from 30 to 50 per cent of an average crop of late corn.

The Fall Fair and Festival.

Arrangements for the fall fair and festival which will be held in North Platte September 17th, 18th and 19th are being rapidly completed and the indications point to a very successful agricultural exhibition as well as three days of amusement and pleasure for those who attend. The premium list will be printed and distributed next week, and with the lists will go a folder describing the amusement features.

The Lloyd opera house will be used for the exhibition of the products, and from the committeemen in the precincts in the county it is learned that the farmers are taking commendable interest in the fair and will respond liberally with exhibits.

Included in the amusement features will be aeroplane flights, two of which will be given on each of the three days. There will also be a base ball tournament with two games, each day. It is expected that teams of both the western and the state league will play.

In addition to these features there will be minor amusement attractions, and with the exception of the ball games all the features controlled by the committee will be free.

The Cream Trade.

The shipment of cream from points along the North River branch is increasing and even now forms an important item of traffic. The daily average for some time past has been forty-eight cans, nearly all of which is shipped to Denver. Add to this the cans received from sections tributary to North Platte, and you have a total that would justify the establishing of a small creamery at North Platte.

In this connection, a gentleman was in town a week or so ago looking over the town with the view of establishing a creamery, and announced that he would ask no bonus of any nature should he decide to locate here.

Will Install Elevators.

Mr. Gillette, a representative of the firm which will place a passenger elevator in the federal building and a freight elevator in the McCabe building arrived from the east last night and will at once begin the work of installation. The federal building elevator is being unloaded from the cars today.

Mr. Gillette stated it will take about four weeks to get the elevators in running order.

Returns from the East.

Harry Block, of the Block Outfitting Co., returned last night from a visit to New York, Cleveland and Chicago. The object of his trip was to purchase fall and winter stock for his store, and he assures us that his offerings to the ladies of North Platte this fall will be on a larger scale than has heretofore been attempted by North Platte merchants. Everything will be the latest modes and the prices—well you know the prices at Block's are always satisfactory.

Train No. 98 was derailed at Broadwater Friday, the engine and eight freight cars were off the track. The wrecker and wrecking crew went up to rectify matters.

The last of the score or more special Knights Templar trains passed through yesterday afternoon. These trains were handled over the Union Pacific without mishap of any kind, and while the demand for motive power was heavy, it was supplied in each instance without delay.

Freight traffic is heavy for this season of the year, 1,000 more cars being handled through the local yards last month than during July, 1912. Shipments of California green fruits have not, up to date, been as heavy as last year, but it is said that for the next four or five weeks this class of traffic will be heavy.

A special train of twenty-five cars of stock came down over the branch Sunday and hurried through to Omaha that night. Fifteen cars were shipped by Ranchman Yoder, who lives in Wyoming about fifty miles west of Haige, the end of the branch, the cattle being driven to the latter place and shipped on the guarantee that record time would be made into South Omaha.

October 1st is now set as the date on which the new round house and coal chutes will be put in service. The grading has been completed, the work trains having been pulled off yesterday, and the track laying will be completed this week. The painters are about through with work. The work of laying the block pavement in the round house will soon begin, this work having been delayed by the contractor, who does the work, being kept at Evanston longer than was anticipated. Part of the machinery has been installed and the remainder will be placed within in the next two weeks.
