

Loving Cups—Trophies—Medals—Watches

The jeweler is very close to life in all its variations. His art expresses and typifies victory, achievement, superior performance, as well as beauty, utility, joy and refinement. Athletic triumphs are acknowledged with a silver loving cup, a medal or a gold watch. The same with civic and business service and all forms of faithful performance. Dress is adorned with a touch of art in the form of a pin, a brooch, a chain or a ring. The refined and festive table sparkles with bright silver and cut glass. Life's heroic and joyful moments are marked with a jewel or a bit of gold or silver. Life itself is measured by the jeweler's watch or clock. The jeweler serves the finest and best interests of life. His place can never be taken by those who dicker in jewelry, solely on a commercial basis, without the heart interest of one who loves his craft. You suffer as well as we, if you are not in touch with a reliable jewelry store. The stocks in this store are chosen with skill and care from a wide and conglomerate market where experience is needed to distinguish the worthy from the worthless. We offer both economy and satisfaction.

Joe Mathessen, fireman for Engineer Norton, is short the third and fourth fingers of his right hand, and is suffering from a bad wound in his shoulder. These injuries were received at Kearney Friday afternoon, while enroute west. The pin on the engine became hot and to remedy the trouble the powder of one of the fuses used as signals was placed in the oil cup to relieve the hot box. While Mathessen was replacing the cap on the oil cup the heat within caused an explosion and the cap was blown off, taking off two fingers and inflicting a bad wound in his shoulder. He was taken to the Grand Island hospital for treatment.

Metre Question Now In Court.

As was predicted in these columns ten days ago, the metre question has found its way into court, and chances are that before the matter is finally adjusted it will remain there, in one form or another, for some time.

Clerk Temple declined to call the election to vote on the proposition to make the use of metres optional on the failure of the petitioners to make a cash deposit with him covering the cost of the election in the event of the failure of the proposition to receive a majority vote.

The attorney of the petitioners held that such deposit was not necessary, while the clerk's legal advice was to the contrary; that the deposit must be made.

This non-action on the part of the clerk resulted in a writ of mandamus being filed Saturday afternoon in the district court, which seeks to compel the city clerk to call the election. This writ will come before Judge Grimes for hearing.

In the meantime the water commissioner will serve notice on all consumers to place metres as required by ordinance, which ordinance provides that if such metres are not placed within thirty days from date of notice water will be cut off. The serving of this notice, or rather the shutting off of the water, will probably be temporarily forestalled by the flat rate fellows, who will resort to injunction proceedings, thus again tying up the matter in court.

A pretty wedding took place Sunday morning at seven o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Norris when Mildred A. Long and Ray Lincoln were married by Rev. Knowles in the presence of twenty friends and relatives.

The bride wore a beautiful gown of white messaline with point lace trimmings and was attended by Miss Jennie Lincoln, and John Lincoln stood with the groom. Little Dorothea Norris carried the ring in a large white rose. The wedding march was played by Miss Minnie Lincoln. Following the ceremony an elaborate wedding breakfast was served and the young couple left for a honeymoon trip to Denver and Salt Lake. The groom was a member of the class of 1913 and the bride came from Sidney to make her home with her aunt Mrs. Norris a couple of years ago. She attended the local schools. Both the contracting parties are well and favorably known and have numerous friends who wish them every happiness.

Mrs. A. P. Kelly and daughter Esther returned yesterday afternoon from Kearney where they visited for several days.

Locals Take Three of the Four Games

In the series of games played with the Kansas City Red Sox Friday, Saturday and Sunday, North Platte won three of the four played.

Friday's game run twelve innings and aside from the first inning was one of the snappiest games played on the local field for years. McClure started the whirling for North Platte, but the Sox pounded him for four runs. He was replaced by Maupin who held the visitors until the twelfth inning when they made a score. North Platte scored once in the first inning, twice in the second, once in the eighth and twice in the twelfth, winning by a score of six to five.

Saturday the Sox evened up, defeating the locals twelve to two, and touching up McClure for twenty-one hits, four of which were two-bases and three triples. It was an off day for McClure, and the Sox had a swatfest that they seemed to enjoy. The game outside of the batting and base running was a listless one and tiresome to the spectators.

In the double-header Sunday afternoon, North Platte won both games, the first by a score of five to four, the second ten to six. In the first game the score stood four to one in favor of the Sox at the beginning of the ninth inning, but in that inning the locals took a batting streak and with several sensational plays scored four men. Jones pitched a nice game for eight innings.

The second game was not particularly gingery, and consisted of but seven innings. Maupin pitched for North Platte and kept the hit record low.
