

Lawyers Organize Bar Association.

A meeting of the attorneys of the Thirteenth and Seventeenth judicial districts was held in the federal court room Wednesday for the purpose of organizing a bar association in the west end of the state. Thirty-five lawyers responded to the call for the meeting, and practical every county in the two districts was represented.

Judge Grimes was selected as temporary chairman, and J. V. Romigh, of Gothenburg, secretary. The object of the meeting was discussed and committees appointed on constitution and by-laws and permanent organization. These committees were instructed to report at 1:30 and the meeting then adjourned until that hour.

On reconvening the constitution was adopted and by its provision any practicing attorney residing in either district may become a member by stating that the applicant is in good standing before the courts of the state. The date for the first annual meeting as set out in the constitution is to be the first Wednesday in June of each year, but on account of unfinished business the present meeting was adjourned until second Wednesday in January, when the committee on by-laws will report.

Officers were elected as follows: President, Judge H. M. Grimes; vice-president, Judge R. W. Hobart; secretary, J. V. Romigh; treasurer, P. Rolf Halligan. Sidney was selected as the place for holding the next annual meeting.

Several resolutions appertaining to the irrigation situation in the state, in which the sentiment was expressed that the state should provide funds and immediately look after her water interests which were being encroached upon by diverting the waters of the Platte and Laramie rivers. A committee consisting of Halligan, Wright and Huffman was appointed to present the resolutions to the proper state and national officers and ask their co-operation.

The chairman announced the following committees: Executive—Judge Hobart; Geo. Hunt, E. A. Cook, J. A. Tracy, L. G. Ofeider, J. L. McIntosh. Entertainment and program—W. E. Shuman, F. E. Williams, H. D. Rhea, L. A. DeVoe. Legislation—W. V. Hoagland, Geo. Hunt, H. E. Goodall, N. E. Oleson, D. H. Moulds, D. D. Regione, Fred Wright.

A vote of thanks was tendered Postmaster Davis in opening the federal building for the meeting. The meeting then adjourned to meet again in North Platte in January.

The lawyers were loaded into automobiles at five o'clock and taken out to the country club, where an elaborate lunch was served in charge of Geo. N. Gibbs and J. F. Keefe. Here stories were told and all made merry; the boys forgot the law and the lash and had a jovial evening. Later in the evening camp fires were lighted, speeches made and more stories told.

About thirty five lawyers have already joined the association and it is hoped to secure all who reside in the two districts. The secretary urges that immediate application be sent him for there is much good work to be done.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

Friday

The hero of "On the Ranger's Roll of Honor," wants to make good for the sake of a girl and gets a job on the Texas rangers, where he is plainly out on place; yet after letting a prisoner escape into the desert, he follows and loses his way.

The saying that love will find a way is fully exemplified in "Her Tutor."

"A Modern Romance" is the story of the son, estrayed from his father. The son's wife is successful in reuniting them.

Saturday

"The Thirst for Gold," Convict 220, who had been imprisoned for theft, made an attempt to escape and fainted to help his scheme along. He was mistaken for dead and was placed on the dissecting table. He "came to" in time to make arrangements with the doctor to find the gold he had buried. This is a two-reel Ecclair and is worth while.

"The Cook Question" is an Imp Comedy.

Monday

"Sailing under False Colors," is a Frontier comedy based on the adventures of a girl, who went to work under a disguise.

"The Cave Dwellers Romance," is a two reel Bison and is a fascinating offering on account of its subject. The story is a love tale of cave men and is simple, straight forward and clear. It is also poetic and has a quality very much like authentic folk-lore. The players seem to attain the impression they desire with perfect ease, and this makes the picture very vivid.
