

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., SEPTEMBER 5, 1913.

No. 65

Local and Personal.

Joseph Weeks, of Grand Island, left this morning after a few days stay in town.

Miss Nell Workman came from Baird Wednesday and will teach here this term.

Mr. Schoolcraft and sons, of Maxwell, are spending a few days in town with friends.

Ninty three new freight cars went thru this morning to Granger from an eastern factory.

Dr. Pritchard returned last evening from Ogalalla where he spent several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Anderson came home last evening from Omaha where they visited this week.

Mrs. Thomas Axtell and brother left this morning for Oshkosh to spend a few days with friends.

O. E. Harris, of Lincoln, came a few days ago to visit his sister Mrs. Thomas Axtell for a week or longer.

For the week ending yesterday sixty-eight hunting licenses were issued by the County Clerk. Only one of these was to a non-resident.

New line of fall Utz-Dunn shoes at the Leader.

The county commissioners have been in session this week auditing and allowing bills, looking up road matters and transacting other business of a routine nature.

Section Foreman Hammer has begun the construction of a three thousand dollar residence in the 800 block off west Sixth street. Contractor Friberg is the builder.

The ball games scheduled with the Nebraska Collegians for today, Saturday and Sunday were cancelled by a letter received by Manager Cummings Tuesday afternoon.

L. E. Jones, of Nichols, was in town yesterday and said that corn in the valley is out of the way of frost. It has ripened well and outside of the hail strip will be a good crop.

Money to loan to help you build, buy or pay off your old loan. Bratt & Goodman.

Messrs. George Anderson, W. V. Hoagland and Fred Diener will represent the I. O. O. F. at the meeting of the grand lodge in Lincoln next month.

Willis Hansen and daughter Miss Thea Hansen returned Tuesday from Denmark where they spent the summer. They report an enjoyable visit in the foreign lands, having visited in several of the leading cities.

Master Lyle Palmer left yesterday morning for Lexington to visit relatives for a week or more.

All kinds of messaline petticoats on sale. Prices $2.19, $3.49 and $4.49 surely bargains. E. T. Tramp & Son.

Monday Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sebastian will move into the house recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Boardman.

The "Dutch Ladies" will serve homemade sourkrot, made especially for the occasion at the Presbyterian church carnival on the evening of Sept. 11th.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Brown leave tomorrow for Philadelphia, where they will visit friends for several weeks. That city was Mrs. Brown's former home.

Ralph Belcher, of Garfield, who was one of the principals in the shooting affray at Garfield recently and has since been a patient in a local hospital, is getting along nicely.

R. L. Lewis, of Des Moines, representing the Barber Asphalt Co., spent yesterday in town. He came her to ascertain if there was a likelihood of North Platte paving its streets next year.

Rev. C. B. Harman, of this city, will on September 14th, join with clergymen in all parts of the world in a prayer for all free schools. These prayers will be uttered in all the tongues of men almost simultaneously. Special sermons on the subject of religious and moral education will also be preached.

The case of Edward Dorsey vs George Lewis came up in Justice Sullivan's court yesterday afternoon and was continued for eight days. The plaintiff charges that Lewis had improper relations with his daughter for several months. Lewis was married last week to a lady from Cozad. He furnished a five hundred dollar bond.

Roy Lee, who was beating his way thru town this week was arrested Wednesday evening by U. P. Police Gorman. Lee boarded Train No. 9 as it was leaving the yards and was put off three times between the depot and the west yards by the conductor who was finally obliged to stop the train and call the officers. Lee was tried yesterday in Judge Grant's court and given a thirty-day sentence. His case for delaying the U. S. mail will be taken up by the government.

Drugs.

For all acute or chronic diseases, the indicated Homeopathic remedy always the safest, quickest and best.

TWINEM'S DRUG DEPT.

Local and Personal

Mrs. J. T. Stuart returned Wednesday from a short visit in Sterling.

Mr. Lloyd Herron, transacted business in Omaha the first of this week.

Don't forget the special sale on Petticoats Saturday. E. T. Tramp & Son.

Dick Baker expects to leave the early part of next week for Hastings to visit friends.

Miss Theresa Eekin, of Paxton, came down last evening to spend a week with friends in town.

Christian Science Service Sunday 11:00 A. M. Subject "Man." Sunday school 12 m. K. P. hall, Dewey St.

A girl baby was born August 29th to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vincent of Holdrege, formerly of this city.

Eugene Meyers, of Ft. Worth, Texas, a former resident of this section, is visiting relatives and friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. James Roddy expect to leave the early part of next week for Omaha to spend a couple of days.

The Halligan family left this morning in their car for Ogalalla where they spend a couple of days with friends.

Two apprentice girls wanted at Mrs. Saylor's Millinery Emporium at the Leader.

Mrs. Glasgoy and children, of Chappell, came yesterday to visit Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Sebastian for a week.

Get in on the petticoat sale Saturday, Sept. 6th. One day only. E. T. Tramp & Son.

Mrs. Dennis Cronin of Sibley Ia., is expected here next week to visit her brothers Messrs. Joseph and James Roddy for a couple of weeks.

John Reynolds who has been employed in the Wilcox department store for a year past returned last evening from Colfax, Ia., where he, was married September 3rd to Miss Matilda Roberts. They will make their home in this city.

In growing over thirty bushels of winter wheat to the acre on summer tilled ground when his other wheat made only about half that, Ed Jolliffe convinced himself that where farming pays summer tillage is the thing.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Frank McFadden was down from his Keith county ranch Wednesday. He had lately returned from South Omaha, where he marketed five cars of cattle, receiving $7.50 per 100 for his two-year-old steers and $6.50 for his cows.

The milk cow train to be run under the auspices of the State university and the Burlington and Northwestern roads will go over the high line September 26, stopping at Wallace, Maywood, Dickens, Curtis and other towns.

Special sale on Saturday, petticoats of all kinds, messaline, heatherbloom and gingham, all prices, now is the time to get your supply. F. T. Tramp & Son.

Julius Pizer returned yesterday from New York and Chicago where he spent three weeks purchasing stock for The Leader. Mr. Pizer says trade conditions in those two cities, and especially New York, are not satisfactory to business men, and there is much complaint among the wholesalers and jobbers. They offer no explanation as to the unsatisfactory condition, simply saying "1913 is sure a hoodoo."

L. E. Roache leaves tomorrow for Lincoln, where he will be joined by his family, and they will go to Tulsa, Okla., their future home. Mr. Roache located in North Platte immediately after graduating from the law department of the state university. He worked his way thru that institution by finding employment outside of school hours, and for two years succeeded in getting about four hours' sleep per night. He had hard competition when he began his career in North Platte, but he was an indefatigable worker and gradually increased his practice until life assumed a more roseate hue. Mr. Roache has always been a very conscientious man, has been absolutely fair in the legal practice and in his business transactions and he takes with him the best wishes of our people.

"Stop Thief."

"Stop Thief," without a question of a doubt the very best theatrical offering at the Keith Opera House during the entire season will be presented in this city on Saturday evening, September 13th, with the original company and production. This play had one year in New York and was titled the best comedy on the American stage.

An added interest to the engagement is the fact that the cast will include John McCabe a former resident of this town and who spent in boyhood days in North Platte. Until he went on the stage Mr. McCabe had an unlimited amount of friends here who are already planning theatre parties in honor of his home coming.

New Showing in Women's Fall Apparel

A fine selection of New Fall Suits, including all the most attractive new style features in the newest materials at very popular prices.

$15.00 to $35.00

Attractive New Fall Coats

In the very newest effects and latest materials, priced at

$10. to $37.50

New Fall Dresses

for street or evening wear, are ready for your inspection.

Good News to Mothers

We have just received a new line of Children's Dresses in worsteds and wash materials, all sizes and a large variety of styles to choose from. Just the kind of dresses you want for school, especially priced from 50c up.

All alterations free of charge and satisfaction guaranteed

BLOCKS

North Platte's Exclusive Women's Store

SCHOOL DAYS

How Important it is to give the little folks Just the Right kind of food — for breakfast, lunch and dinner —

For Your Consideration — We Offer: —

- Kellogg's Toasted Wheat Biscuit.
- Wedding Breakfast Coffee.
- Hershey's Milk Chocolates.
- Bohemian Ripe Olives.
- Emery's Deviled Sardines.
- Walker's Chili Con Carne.
- Campbell's Vegetable Soup.
- Jello Assorted Flavors.
- Princess Cod Fish.
- Imported Mushrooms.

Lierk-Sandall.

W. C. T. U. Elects Officers.

The W. C. T. U. held election of officers at their meeting September 2d, the following being elected:

Mrs. Stella Banks, re-elected president; Mrs. Ella Hartman, secretary; Mrs. Minnie Perkins, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. F. T. Overman, vice president. The following superintendents of departments were elected: Evangelistic, Mrs. W. S. Leon; franchise, Mrs. H. L. Baker; flower mission, Mrs. Minnie Perkins; jail and prison, Mrs. A. P. Kelly; literature, Mrs. Emma Van Cleave; mothers' meeting, Mrs. M. F. Mooney; mercy and relief, Mrs. Lillie Dean; parliamentary usage, Mrs. Ella Hartman; telegraph press, Mrs. L. C. Knowles; scientific temperance instruction, Mr. L. E. Miller; social meetings and red letter days, Mrs. F. Overman and Mrs. Belle Morris; systematic giving, Mrs. Stella Banks.

The one plan has been successfully tried and the members are Mesdames Miller, Wilson and Knowles.

State convention will be held at Fremont September 23 to 26 inclusive.

The delegates from our local union are Mesdames Banks, Hartman and Perkins with Mrs. F. Overman as alternate.

For Rent.

The Woods House at 305 West Third Street.

The large room in the cement block building on West Front Street.

Other houses, furnished and unfurnished rooms.

Storage room and safe deposit boxes.

Bratt & Goodman.

Among the local teachers who spent their vacations at home and returned here this week are Misses Ruby Manuel of Kearney, Gladys Welsh of Monicello, Ia., and Gertrude Hanks of Fremont.

Next Sunday Evening.

The Lutherans resume their evening services next Sunday at 8 o'clock with a sacred concert, the following is the special music: Anthem, the Choir; Solo, Mr. Andy Yost; Duet, Mrs. and Miss Huffman; Solo, Trombone, Arthur Tramp; Anthem, the Choir; Anthem, Mr. Yost; Soprano Solo, Miss Diener; Duet, Arthur Tramp, Trombone, Harry Huffman, Cornet; Solo, Mr. Jas. Shaefter; Anthem, the Choir.

Master Charles Rincker returned this morning from Denver where he spent several weeks with the McGovern family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kirkpatrick will leave tomorrow morning for Kearney to make their home in the future.

James Wada of Sarben stated the first of the week that his 70-acre field of sugar beets promises a yield of 1,000 tons.—Sutherland Free Lance.

KEITH Theatre SAT. Sept. 13

Prices 50c, 75c, $1.00, $1.50
SEATS NOW SELLING

THE ORIGINAL CAST AND PRODUCTION.