

Loving Cups—Trophies—Medals—Watches

The jeweler is very close to life in all its variations. His art expresses and typifies victory, achievement, superior performance, as well as beauty, utility, joy and refinement. Athletic triumphs are acknowledged with a silver loving cup, a medal or a gold watch. The same with civic and business service and all forms of faithful performance. Dress is adorned with a touch of art in the form of a pin, a brooch, a chain or a ring. The refined and festive table sparkles with bright silver and cut glass. Life's heroic and joyful moments are marked with a jewel or a bit of gold or silver. Life itself is measured by the jeweler's watch or clock. The jeweler serves the finest and best interests of life. His place can never be taken by those who dicker in jewelry, solely on a commercial basis, without the heart interest of one who loves his craft. You suffer as well as we, if you are not in touch with a reliable jewelry store. The stocks in this store are chosen with skill and care from a wide and conglomerate market where experience is needed to distinguish the worthy from the worthless. We offer both economy and satisfaction.

County Commissioner Roberts Resigns

George W. Roberts, commissioner from the Second district and chairman of the present board, tendered his resignation last Friday by mailing to County Clerk Yost the following letter:
Maxwell, Neb., Sept. 5th, 1913.
Mr. C. W. Yost,
County Clerk.

On account of ill health I hereby tender my resignation as a member of the board of county commissioner, to take effect immediately.
Geo. W. Roberts.

Mr. Roberts' term would have expired in January, 1915, and the appointment of his successor devolves upon County Clerk Yost, County Treasurer Durbin and County Judge Grant. It is probable that there will be a number of applicants for the position, although it is a position that pays a small per diem salary and has more "grief" than glory attached.

Mr. Roberts has been in rather poor health for some time and he no longer cared to bear the worry and responsibility attached to the position.

The officers delegated by law to appoint a successor will do so at an early day, as it is necessary to have a chairman in order that warrants may be signed and other business transacted that may require the signature of a chairman.

They prefer to purchase the material here rather than ship it in, if they can secure the right prices.

Advice from Tulsa, Okl., state that A. D. McDonnell, the former North Platte druggist, has struck it rich in the oil fields of that section and that his revenue from that source is but little short of five hundred dollars per day. Mac had some experience in the oil fields of Indiana before coming to North Platte, and after leaving here went to the Wyoming fields, and later drifted to Oklahoma. He bought up land and leases and began sinking wells, and seems to have had excellent success.
