Geo. C. Donehower, a resident of North Platte since 1888, reached his eightieth birthday, though to casually look at him you would guess he was ten years younger. Up until a few years ago Mr. Donehower led an active life as a carpenter. He is a veteran of the Civil war, became an Odd Fellow in 1888, and a Mason in 1861. His present physical condition would indicate a good many more years of life.

MR. POULTRYMAN: When you see your chickens moping, wheezing, swollen headed and sneezing; we recommend Conkey's Roup Remedy. For sale and guaranteed by John R. Ritner.

During the past six months seven employees of the Vienna restaurant have been married. This would indicate that Mr. Huffer runs a very successful matrimonial bureau in connection with his restaurant. Evidently the young woman or young man who desires to enter the matrimonial state should seek employment at the Vienna—the desired result is sure to follow.

Tom Healey returned Friday from his three weeks' visit in New York, Jersey City and other eastern points. He says he had a very enjoyable trip, although he did not see as many of the world's series ball games as he anticipated, this to some extent being due to the altitudinous price of the tickets for choice seats. Tom says he was surprised with the number of vacant business buildings in New York and Jersey City, and there is a general cry of slow trade.

The Beatrice Express contained this item relative to one of our ball players of the past season: Scotty Dye Monday evening bowled 300 at Clancy's bowling alley. This is the high score for this season. Interest in the game is increasing, and some warm contests will be pulled off here this winter.

J. S. Davis is at the Buick factory again starting a shipment of nineteen cars and roadsters.

J. P. McGovern and son Hugh, of Denver, arrived Saturday evening to attend the Weinberger-McGovern wedding.

Edward Calhoun, who resided in or near North Platte prior to 1880, but now living in Florida, has been visiting his old time friends for several days past.

Miss Marie LeDoyt pleasantly entertained the Seniors at a class party Saturday evening. Games and music were the entertaining features until a late hour and then a nice lunch was served.

The docket for the November term of the district court contains 145 cases, making it one of the largest of recent years. The bulk of the cases are equity; only a few criminal, and less than the usual number of divorce cases.

The patrons of the Platte valley school district erected a splendid flag staff at the brick building last Friday. "Old Glory" will now be displayed on all proper occasions; in fact the flag of our country should be displayed on all school houses every day during the school term.

The name of North Platte will appear tomorrow in practically every daily paper in the United States, thus giving the town a publicity, so far as name goes, never before equaled. The associated press will send out an account of the drawing to all the larger daily papers, while the smaller dailies will receive their reports from the larger news centers.

Total Registration Was 76,689

The total registration for the land drawing in the North Platte and Niobrara reserves totaled 76,689. The registration at North Platte was 30,959, at Broken Bow 30,039 and at Valentine 15,691. The registration booths were open day and night for just thirteen days, and the average daily registration at North Platte was 2,381, or a little less than one hundred for every hour during the thirteen days.

It is estimated that 800 residents of North Platte registered, and that 1200 former soldiers were registered by others through power of attorney. This would mean that during the thirteen days nearly 28,000 strangers visited North Platte. During this time not a visitor was injured, there were no drunken brawls in which they figured, there was not a single case of pick-pocketing reported and there was not a complaint made that anyone had been "held up" on prices for meals and lodging. Certainly North Platte well took care of the big crowd, and visitors who remained in town for a day or two were not slow to compliment the town.

It is estimated that the visitors left fully $100,000 in town, the greater part of which was garnered by the restaurants and saloons, though all classes of business benefitted more or less. The fees received by the notaries amounted to $7,734. This sum less about $800 expenses will be divided between about twenty-five notaries.

Ticket Office Receipts

The receipts at the Union Pacific ticket office in this city during the two weeks of registration was $29,600, representing about 12,000 tickets. Taking into consideration the number of visitors in town, these receipts seems comparatively small, but it must be considered that many of those attending the registration purchased round-trip tickets, while others paid cash fare on the train.

The Story of "Madame X"

"Madame X," that great mother love drama, with Miss Alice De Lane and Boyd B. Trousdale in the leading roles will be the attraction at the Keith theatre next Thursday evening. Jacqueline, the wife of Louis Floriot, is driven from her home of luxury because she foolishly left him for another man, this having happened about two years previous to the opening of the play. She repents and comes back, but Floriot relentlessly orders her out of the house, keeping their young son Raymond with him. A later scene, twenty years have elapsed, shows Jacqueline living as a miserable woman, compelled to seek forgetfulness in the use of opiates and drugs, and drifting through the days with any one who will support her. Laroque, an adventurer, with whom she is living, enters on a scene with two others to blackmail her former husband, a clew to his identity having been found by them. Rather than have her son learn of his mother's infamy, Jacqueline, in a quarrel with Laroque, kills him, and is afterward given a trial. Raymond, her son, defends her. Recognition comes in the last act, the great court room scene. His eloquent appeal to the jury saves the woman, but not her life. She craves forgiveness and obtains it, but fate to punish her grants only a few moments of a wrecked life in which to enjoy the last full measure of a devotion that is hers.

Notice for Publication.

James S. Gilbert, non-resident defendant, will take notice on the day of October, 1913, Roy Haney, I. D. McKnight and C. E. Haney filed their petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, the object and prayer of which are to have a certain sheriff's deed to E. J. NW 1/4 and W 1/2 of NE 1/4 of Sec 35, T 16 N, R 32 W, dated August 29th, 1912, and recorded in the office of the county clerk of Lincoln county, Nebraska, on the 7th day of September, 1912, in Book "A-11," at page 531 cancelled and annulled and set aside; also the proceedings and decrees had in and about and upon which said deed was based cancelled and set aside, and for such other and further relief as may be just and equitable.

Mrs. Huxoll Gets $20,000 Damages.

In the damage case of Mrs. Ella Huxoll, of this city, against the Union Pacific Railroad Co., which was tried in the district court of Lancaster county, the jury brought in a verdict of twenty thousand dollars for the plaintiff, who sued for $50,000. The case grew out of the death of the plaintiff's husband, which occurred on January 1st, 1911. Huxoll was employed as engineer and in crossing the switching yards at Sidney at night during a bad storm was struck by a switch engine and killed. At the time he was on his way to take charge of his engine, and it was claimed that the switch engine was not provided with proper appliances for warning the deceased of its approach as called for by the federal law.

The case was tried before Judge James Cosgrove and occupied ten days, being the most bitterly fought of any case in the same court for many years. Senator Walter Hoagland of North Platte, W. B. Comstock of Lincoln and Halleck Rose of Omaha appeared for the prosecution, while the railroad company was represented by Edson Rich, Ed C. Strode of Lincoln, W. B. Miles of Sidney and Attorney Seandrett of Omaha.
