Local and Personal.

Carl Brodbeck spent Sunday with friends in Gothenburg.

The King's Daughters of the Christian church were pleasantly entertained Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Loudon left this morning for Overton to be the guest of relatives for several days.

N. E. Buckley returned yesterday morning from Denver, where he transacted business several days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Peterson, of Sutherland, spent several days in this city the latter part of last week.

Fred Gian and son Rawlins arrived yesterday morning from Denver to spend several days with friends.

Mrs. J. E. Boyd returned to her home in Omaha yesterday after a week's visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McDonald.

Mrs. E. L. Caress left this morning for her home in Overton after spending a week or more with her sister Mrs. D. B. Loudon.

Mrs. A. E. Lane left yesterday morning for Harlan, Kan., after spending several weeks visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Don't fail to see the fancy work for sale at Guild fair and supper on Nov. 13th at Masonic hall.

For Rent—Improved half section of land for stock, one mile from Brule, for one hundred and fifty dollars per year. Jesse Campbell, Brule, Neb.

Mrs. Mattie E. Rush, of Burlington, Ia., accompanied by her husband, was in town yesterday making proof on the homestead of her deceased father.

Chas. McDonald, who has been confined to the house for a week, is reported improving. He was threatened with an attack of pneumonia, which left him in a weakened condition.

Don't wait for the Christmas shopping rush. Shop early at the Episcopal fair. A beautiful line of fancy work and novelties, also a complete showing of aprons, caps and articles of utility.

In speaking of a visit of Traveling Foreman Getty to Sidney, the Telegraph says: "he left a singular impression with the office force, as, being a railroad man, he was very quiet and docile." Evidently the Telegraph regards the average railroad official as one who is constantly showing his temper and "jumping on" the employes.

Wm. Batie and Thomas Marcott, of Brady, spent yesterday in this city on business.

Mrs. Giddeon Winkleman will return tomorrow from LaSara, Neb., where she spent two weeks visiting.

Mrs. Wm. Killion, of Rock Springs, arrived Sunday evening to spend several weeks visiting Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fillion, Sr.

Ed Ogier left Sunday evening for Omaha where he will spend several days on business and drive home a new Studebaker car.

Chas. Bogue, of this city, has been re-elected secretary of the association of chairmen of protective boards of the B. of R. T. and the O. R. C. This association represents all the railroads west of Chicago.

R. L. Douglas has purchased 250 head of horses and mules since September first, the greater number of which have been shipped to Pennsylvania. He is feeding fifty or more head of mules and horses getting them ready for market.

The Eyerly brothers sold the Vienna restaurant at Sidney last week, after having run it several months. Roy has returned here and will again enter the service of the U. P. company, while Lloyd will probably be employed in the Bank of Hershey.

E. T. Keliber sold his confectionery and ice cream business Friday to Homer Handley, a former North Platte railroad man, but of late in the drug business at Lodgepole, who took possession Saturday morning, placing Theodore Sandall in charge. Mr. Keliber expects to go on the road for a life insurance company and is now in Omaha making a contract with the company.

Different men who visit the forest reserve have a wide variance of opinion as to its value. One man who holds a low number made a trip over the reserve and upon his return stated that he would not accept the best claim as a gift if compelled to live on it. Others who have traveled all over the reserve say there are many sections that they would be glad to homestead if they had the chance.

For Sale or Trade.

Choice 160 acres in the rain belt of Wyo., where they raise good crops; 95 acres under cultivation; want city property or acreage; or will sell on crop payment plan. Mrs. B. F. Wilcoxon, North Platte, Neb.

Fatally Burned in Her Home.

Mrs. Qualley, mother of Peter Qualley who lives north-west of town, was burned to death about noon last Friday. Through choice, Mrs. Qualley lived in a small house a short distance from her son's residence, and just how the fire, which resulted in her death, originated is not known. She had been visiting the younger Mrs. Qualley and just before noon started for her house for the purpose of cooking her dinner. The daughter-in-law, busied with her housework and with her husband at work in the field, gave no further thought of the elderly lady until smoke attracted her attention, and looking out saw the small house a mass of flames. She ran to the building and calling her mother-in-law and receiving no response, became convinced that the latter was in the building but she was powerless to give succor. The son was also attracted by the smoke and hurried home, but by the time he reached there the small house was practically consumed. When the flames had died down sufficient to permit an examination, the charred body of the unfortunate woman was found.

The deceased was seventy-six years of age. Funeral services were held at the family home Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. Mr. Harmon and interment was made in the city cemetery.

Football Game a Tie.

On the local grounds Friday afternoon the local high school foot ball team held the strong Kearney high school team to a tie, the score standing seven to seven. The local team put up what is said to have been its strongest game of the season, and redeemed itself from the rather lethargic work at Sterling the week before. Before the game it was expected that the visitors would win, as they have been playing unusually strong this season. Each team made its touchdown in the first half. The day was a windy, disagreeable one, and outside of the student body the attendance was not large.

Final Notice to Bicycle Riders.

In regard to Act 5, Section 288 on sidewalks. Penalty: "It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to ride any bicycle, or tandem, upon any of the sidewalks within the corporate limits of the city of North Platte. And every person found guilty of the violation of any of the provisions of this section shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars for each offense, and stand committed until the fine and costs are paid." This ordinance shall be enforced to the letter.
84-C J. Frazier, Chief.

Mrs. Ernest Rowland Passes Away.

Mrs. Ernest Rowland, aged about fifty-two, passed away at her home in the First ward Friday night. Death was due to dropsical affection with which she had been afflicted for a couple of years. The deceased came here from Omaha with her husband two years ago, having been united in marriage to Mr. Rowland in that city. The husband and two children, a boy and a girl, mourn the loss of an excellent wife and mother.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon from the house conducted by Rev. Harmon.

One hundred and fifty ladies were the guests of Mrs. G. W. Finn, Miss Grace Mooney and Miss Lillian Hendy at a musicale given at the Masonic hall Saturday afternoon. The function was a most enjoyable one, for the program as rendered by the instructors and pupils of the North Platte School of Music has not been surpassed, if ever equalled, and certainly that institution was deserved praise. Both instrumental and vocal numbers were given and each received enthusiastic applause. The worth of the program was further enhanced by a reading by Miss Alma Waltemath and a vocal solo by Miss Radcliff of Lexington. Following the program the guests were seated at long tables formed in a hollow square in the center of which was a stand of chrysanthemums, and served with a nice lunch, prepared by Mrs. Hall, ten girls serving. The table decorations were white carnations and ferns, and this color scheme was carried out in the refreshments.

A most pleasant function was given at the home of Miss Ethel Donegan on Sunday evening when twenty-four invited guests, all relatives, were present at an elaborate seven course dinner, at which time the engagement of Miss Donegan and Mr. P. C. Roddy, of Sioux City, Iowa, was announced. The announcement was made in a very neat manner. Individual heart-shaped cards containing the names of Miss Donegan and Mr. Roddy were tied together with ribbon, the guests being informed of the affair entirely by the suggestive decorations, which created much fun and merriment when the facts became sufficiently clear to warrant congratulations. The parlors and dining room were decorated with roses, chrysanthemums and carnations. Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. Cronin of Sibley, Iowa, Mr. C. K. Martini of Omaha, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Murrin of Sterling, Colo., Mr. and Mrs. Rasmussen of Hershey and Miss Mabel Donegan of Denver.

BLOCKS

LADIES' OUTFITTING STORE

Picard Brothers began the frame work on the R. R. Dickey residence on east Fourth street yesterday, the foundation of which was completed some time ago.

"Would you steal to make yourself beautiful in the eyes of your husband in order that you might keep his love?" That is the question that is asked and answered in "The Thief" which will be seen at the Keith next Saturday evening with Janet Allyn in the leading role. "The Thief" is one of the big dramatic sensations of the season and the company which is to present it here is said to be composed of players high up in the profession. The staging of play is also to be in keeping with the piece and adequate throughout. All in all "The Thief" promises to be one of the best attractions seen here this season.

CRYSTAL THEATRE

Tuesday, November 11th

"Chivalry Days" is a Powers grown-up story acted by the Universal juvenile actors in California. All the settings are in miniature with ponies for horses. It is a South before the war drama with deep dyed plots and dark villainy. The acting of the kids is very clever, and the whole idea, though serious is very funny.

"Beyond the Law," a Nestor offering, is a western story in which the fugitive befriends a wounded man in the sheriff's posse, and nurses him back to health.

"The Fight Against Evil," features Marguerita Fisher as a working girl.

Wednesday, November 12th

"Shadows of Life," is a Rex drama that is very romantic. Lois Weber plays the part of the woman, who has been married for her money and who sadly deplores the life of her own choosing. The villainy of her husband, Rupert Julian forms the story.

"Mike and Jake at College" is a Joker film. Mike and Jake are interested in their sons, rival football captains. They are likewise both interested in the college widow.

Thursday, November 13th

"The Winner," is a Victor two-reel drama of the race track. It tells the story of a jockey who went down and came up again in fine shape, in the end winning a very important race and his employer's daughter. Some excellent race scenes are shown.

"His Crazy Job" is a Nestor comedy. In order to gain entrance to the asylum and secure evidences of graft, the Cub reporter plays crazy. He finds that getting in is easier than getting out. This is a farce that jingles with humor.

Married at Sterling.

Miss Barbara McGuire and Roy Lubbers, both of this city, were married at Sterling, Col., yesterday. While this consummation was expected at some future time, that it occurred yesterday was a surprise, as neither had divulged to their most intimate friends their intention. The bride, who had been an employe of The Hub, left the store Saturday evening without serving any notice of resigning and left Sunday for Sterling, where she met Mr. Lubbers. The latter is a young traveling man who has made North Platte his headquarters for a couple of years.

The residence on east Sixth street built by Mrs. Guillaume was finished last week, and yesterday was taken possession of by Mr. and Mrs. Perry Carson.

A Night of Terror.

Few nights are more terrible than that of a mother looking on her child choking and gasping for breath during an attack of croup, and nothing in the house to relieve it. Many mothers have passed nights of terror in this situation. A little forethought will enable you to avoid all this. Chamberlain's cough remedy is a certain cure for croup and has never been known to fail. Keep it at hand. For sale by all dealers.
