

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune

State Historical Society

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., NOVEMBER 25, 1913.

No. 88

DOLSON'S ADDITION TO NORTH PLATTE LINCOLN COUNTY, NEBRASKA.
SCALE: 1 INCH = 200 FEET.

NEW U.P. ROUND HOUSE

Have you seen the new buildings in Dolson's Addition?

On our lots sold this last week there has been a nice five room bungalow started.

Five Lots Sold Last Week.

Blue prints of the new Union Pacific shops shows them just East of the New Round House. This will certainly make Dolson's Addition the ideal residence section for shop men and Round House men.

Prices $100 to $175

Terms this month $5 down and $5.00 per month.

Let me show you these lots, whether you buy or not.

C. F. TEMPLE, Exclusive Agent

Ticket Agent Nels Rasmussen returned last evening from Omaha, where for ten days he had been taking treatment in a hospital.

Mrs. Asa Snow came down from Denver this morning and will be the guest of Mrs. Lem Bailey for a few days.

Engineer Rush Dean and family have returned from an extended trip in the east and south. They visited in Ohio and also in Florida.

Engineer Will Voseipka has sold his auto and placed an order for a 1914 Studebaker which will arrive in a few days.

Local and Personal.

Mrs. T. C. Patterson has issued invitations for a 500 party Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. Henry Ridinger and daughter left this morning for a visit with relatives at Lisco.

Chas. Hendy, Jr., came down from Denver this morning. Mrs. Hendy arrived a couple of days ago.

Mrs. F. H. Hoxie will entertain at luncheon today the out-of-town guests who are here for this evening's wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. John Show left Sunday evening for Beatrice to spend Thanksgiving with the former's mother, Mrs. J. J. Show.

A Thanksgiving program and box supper will be held at the Platte Valley schoolhouse Wednesday evening, November 26th. Everybody invited.

The out-of-town guests who are here for the Buckley-Bratt wedding will be entertained at a six o'clock dinner this evening by Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Halligan.

The popularity of hot air heating plants is attested by the fact that Simon Bros. have placed twenty-six of these plants in North Platte homes this season.

C. T. Whelan is home from Excelsior Springs, Mo., where he spent several weeks taking baths to lessen the effects of rheumatism which has been troubling him more or less for some time.

Mr. Dolly, of Rock Island, Ill., was bequeathed the tract of land near Maxwell known as the Mackin hay section, was in town yesterday making arrangements to sell the hay cut therefrom this season.

A large number attended the dance Friday evening at the Masonic hall, given by the North Platte high school students for the Gothenburg football men. All report a pleasant evening.

Vincent Roddy attended the game Saturday between Nebraska and Iowa. He expects also to attend the North Platte-Omaha game which will be played at Omaha on Thanksgiving.

Patrons of dining cars on the Union Pacific will be liberally supplied with turkey on Thanksgiving day. The North Platte Produce Co. has supplied the cars running between Omaha and Ogden with 1250 pounds of dressed turkeys.

Today is the forty-second wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Eirdam. They were married in North Platte Nov. 25th, 1871, by Justice of Peace Rodgers and have been continuous residents of the city since that time. They are therefore among our pioneer residents.

Miss Bessie Smith, who teaches at Hershey, spent Sunday in the city.

Bishop and Mrs. Geo. A. Beecher of Kearney, will arrive this afternoon. The Bishop will officiate at the Buckley-Bratt wedding.

The fire department was called out Monday to the southeast part of the city to put out a small prairie fire. The fire was slight and no damage was done.

The Woman's Socialist Club will meet at the home of Mrs. D. M. Hogsett tomorrow afternoon. The subject to be discussed will be "Child Labor, its Cause, and its Effects upon the Future."

Mrs. Buckley and daughter Miss Beulah arrived last evening from Stromsburg, coming here to attend the Buckley-Bratt wedding, at which Miss Buckley will be the bride's maid.

Football boosters are trying to secure enough fans to go to Omaha to attend the football game on Thanksgiving that will warrant their getting a special car. Anyone wishing to go will notify M. K. Neville or Prof. McGrew. The team will leave on No. 18 Wednesday.

The marriage of Nicholas Bogus and Katie Bobus was annulled Saturday by Judge Grimes in the district court. They were married last March but lived together only a few months. At the time of the marriage the bride was not of legal age although she professed to be so, and her parents wished the marriage set aside for this reason.

W. S. Dolson informed The Tribune that his brother, J. T. Dolson, of Duluth, Minn., who was reported dead in our last issue, was still alive at last reports. The family was called on the information that their brother was dying, but when they arrived they found that he had improved. He is very ill, however, and very little hope is held out for his recovery.

The literary department of the Twentieth Century club will meet Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. Edwards on west Fourth street, for a study of the Philippines Islands. Mesdames Throckmorton, Cummings and Shuman will have charge of the program. Each member will be asked to respond to roll call with some fact concerning the islands. A social meeting of the club Tuesday, Dec. 2, in the Odd Fellows' hall. Tickets can be had from Mrs. Buchanan.

Business College Opens.

The North Platte business college opened Monday evening in their rooms in the Streez building over Schatz hardware store, with an enrolment of thirty. It is owned by S. P. Randall and will be in charge of Prof. C. H. Berhorst. E. C. Davis will assist in the commercial department and Miss Irene Fuller will have charge of the shorthand and typewriting course. This school will be a big asset to North Platte and will afford opportunity for good business training. All the branches of business will be taught here that can be had in any of the larger cities, besides the shorthand and typewriting.

Arrested for Stealing Coat.

A fellow is docketed as "John Doe" was arrested at Julesburg last evening by Deputy Sheriff Watts, brought to town and lodged in jail. The prisoner is charged with stealing P. A. White's overcoat valued at thirty-five dollars, which he took from the Davis garage Saturday night. He had been employed at the garage for a couple of days, and when leaving took the coat.

The case was brought up for preliminary hearing this morning before County Judge Grant.

Paul Gantt returned Saturday from a visit of a few days with friends in Omaha.

Attorney J. G. Beeler left this morning for Lincoln where he will attend a meeting of the bar commission. He will also meet with the state irrigation board.

Lost, or left in some business house—a sack containing some plasterers' tools. A reasonable reward will be paid for return of same to George Richards, 303 west Eleventh.

Francis Sandall, who has been confined to his home for the past week on account of blood poisoning in his foot, was able to resume his duties Saturday in the McDonald clothing store.

William Votaw left Friday evening for a visit at Lincoln and Omaha. He attended the football game at Lincoln Saturday and expects to stay over for the Thanksgiving game in Omaha between the Omaha and North Platte high schools.

Holman Goes East to Marry.

Carl Holman left yesterday for Tipton, Ia., where he will be married tomorrow to Miss Nierman, the only daughter of a prominent business man of that place. The bride-to-be is an Iowa University girl, and the attachment which results in this consummation was formed while both were attending that institution.

Mr. Holman was accompanied on his trip east by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hershey.

Charged With Cattle Stealing.

Sheriff Salsbury left today for McPherson county to place under arrest Jud Mooney, who, it is alleged, stole a steer from Tom Heskett, who lives north of Sutherland. Mooney will be brought down this evening and will have a preliminary hearing at an early date.

Twenty couples met at the home of A. J. Kunkle who resides south of this city last Saturday evening and spent a most enjoyable evening in dancing until midnight when refreshments were served. The large room just added to Mr. Kunkle's home was used for the dance.

Weather Forecast for North Platte and vicinity: Unsettled weather tonight and Wednesday not much change in temperature. Moderate variable winds. Highest temperature yesterday 41, a year ago 40; lowest last night 39, a year ago 20.

Cause of Insomnia.

The most common cause of insomnia is disorders of the stomach and constipation. Chamberlain's Tablets correct these disorders and enable you to sleep. For sale by all dealers.

Choose Thanksgiving "Fixin's" Here

Turkey comes first—of course. Then come the "festive-fixins," which bring back bright memories of this old time Holiday Spirit. These "fixin's" will taste good.

- Fresh Oysters
- New Nuts
- Sweet Potatoes
- Sweet Cider
- Malaga Grapes
- Grape Fruit
- Cranberries
- Bulk Olives
- Club Cheese
- Pimento Cheese
- Fresh Vegetables
- Grape and Pine-apple Juice.

Order a Package of Kellogg's To-Day

Lierk-Sandall Co.

LIFE INSURANCE

Get the best and cheapest. Young man, this is your opportunity to secure a life policy in the Great Mutual Life of New York. Let us show you this mutual plan where annual dividends go towards paying your premium. Let one hand wash the other.

Bratt & Goodman, District Agents.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION

NOTICE OF SALE IN PARTITION

In the District Court of Lincoln County, Neb. Fred Moran, Plaintiff.

Marie Schrecongast, minor and Irene Schrecongast, minor, Defendants.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of a decree and order of the Judge of the District Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, made on the 21st day of November, 1913, the undersigned referee duly appointed in said cause and after having taken the oath prescribed by law and giving bond in the sum and manner with surety as provided by law and approved by the court and by H. M. Grimes, Judge of said Court, I, M. E. Crosby, the said referee will offer at public auction at the east front door of the court house, in said county of Lincoln, state of Nebraska, to the highest bidder for cash the following described property which was ordered to be sold by said decree of said court, to-wit: All of lot seven (7), block seventy-seven (77), of the original city of North Platte, Nebraska, and the south half (1/2) of lot ten (10), of the County Clerk's Subdivision of the south half (1/2) of the northeast quarter (NE 1/4) of section thirty-two (32), township fourteen, range thirty (30), west of the Sixth Principal Meridian, Lincoln county, Nebraska. Sale will be held and said property sold as aforesaid at two o'clock, p. m. central standard time on the 27th day of December, 1913, and said sale will be held open for one hour from and after the said time of two o'clock, p. m. on said date.

Dated this 24th day of November, 1913.

M. E. CROSBY, Referee.