Charged with Poaching Electric Current

The North Platte Electric company filed complaints Tuesday in the county court against E. R. Savin and O. J. Keeley, charging them with stealing current for lighting their homes. The officers have not yet been able to locate Savin, but Keeley was arrested Tuesday evening. He was arraigned later before Judge Grant and plead not guilty. His hearing was set for the first part of next week.

Both of these men, it is alleged, had the light current shut off and the meters taken out some time ago for not paying up their rent and some time after that, it is alleged that they connected up the wires upon their own responsibility and have continued to poach their current for light.

The company has had considerable trouble along this line and hope all will take warning from these cases.

Manholes Put in Over City Wells.

A force of men is busy putting in concrete curbing around the city wells. Eighteen of the fifty-two wells will be finished up this fall and others will be left until spring. An excavation is being made around the wells and a four-inch concrete wall put in, leaving ample space for a man to work. A man hole will be put in to allow the men to get in to look after any well that is not working properly. Each well is equipped with a valve and can be shut off and repaired separately without shutting down the pump. This will facilitate matters to a great extent for the repair gang as heretofore they have had to excavate every time a well gave trouble.

Repair Boilers at Electric Plant.

Foreman J. D. Hardy, of the North Platte Electric Light company is overseeing the repairing of the three boilers at the plant. Boilers 1 and 2 were heavily limed with mud, and in order to remove the coating, the men had to take out and replace about 600 stay bolts. It will require from a month to six weeks to overhaul each of the boilers and they will all be thoroughly worked over, which will make them almost as good as new.

The picture plays at the Pat this week have been of a very good class and consist of a variety of reels that will interest everyone. Mr. Murphy, a man who is walking from coast to coast for his health, has pleased his audience with his singing of both the popular songs and the higher class secular selections that are much before the public.

All parties owing me will please call and settle, as I need the money. J. E. JEFFRIES. 87-3

North Platte Man Wins "N" Honors

Among the thirteen names of Nebraska University men who receive "N" sweaters, is Victor Halligan of this city. In order to qualify for this honor the men must have played in at least three games with teams of the Missouri Valley Association. Halligan has played in nearly all of the games and has proved a star player. Will Norris of this city has also done some star playing on the freshman team and is pronounced by Coach Stiehm to be one of the fastest men that has come into the university. He is a North Platte high school man. He will undoubtedly be on the first team squad at the university team next year and will probably be a star player. He was unable to make the first squad this year on account of being a freshman.

Lumber Company Gets Judgment.

The case of the North Platte Lumber company vs. Elmer Daggott was called Tuesday afternoon in the county court. Judgment went to the plaintiff by default, the defendant failing to appear in court. In this case, the North Platte Lumber company used Daggott to collect a bill of $87.95 due them for merchandise purchased by the defendant. The bill amounted to $108.55 and defendant returned merchandise to the amount of $20.60. The plaintiff prayed for judgment for the amount still due them with interest at 7 per cent from Aug. 1913.

"Traveling Man" Arrested.

A young man giving his name as Gus Wallock was arrested Tuesday evening in the Union Pacific yards for stealing a rifle on passenger train No. 6. He got on the blind baggage at Cheyenne and was not discovered until they got nearly into North Platte. The conductor arrested him here and turned him over to the local authorities. He was arraigned Wednesday morning before Judge Grant and plead guilty. He was sentenced to sixty days hard labor at the disposition of the judge. Throughout the trial he assumed a defiant and disrespectful air and also told the usual hard luck story.

Commissioners Disallow Petition for Road No. 240

Hearing on the petition for a new county road in the Denmark vicinity occupied the time of the county commissioners during their session Monday and Tuesday. The road was a continuation of road No. 240 in that vicinity, but was disallowed on account of the danger of the road site.

Residents of that vicinity petitioned for a new road to be built over the hills, but upon inspection, it was found that such a road would take them over dangerous and would be a public menace. The commissioners left Wednesday morning for the north part of the county to inspect the county line road between Lincoln and Logan counties.

Miss Belle Gobus, a teacher in the Alliance high school, arrived in the city Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving at the home of L. C. Watts and family.
