Well Known People United in Marriage

Walter Kecken and Mrs. Harriet Gibson were united in marriage by Rev. Cram at the Methodist parsonage Thursday evening. Though this event was expected, even intimate friends had not been acquainted of the date and it therefore came as a surprise.

Both are well and favorably known to North Platte people. For a number of years Mrs. Gibson had been in the employ of The Leader and the Wilcox Dept. Store, proving an exceptionally efficient saleslady and winning the highest praise from her employers. In these positions she gained a wide acquaintance and made many friends. She has done much in the way of charitable work, and to a number of unfortunates of the city she has brought good cheer many times.

Mr. Kockon was born here, served his time as a machinists' apprentice in the local shops and had been employed there until two years ago when he accepted a position with the Hendy-Ogier garage. He is a splendid young man and popular with a large circle of acquaintances.

Mr. and Mrs. Kockon will reside in a pretty bungalow which the groom has completed on east Third street.

I. O. O. F. Celebrates 38th Anniversary

The thirty-eighth anniversary of the local order of Odd Fellows was celebrated Thursday evening at the I. O. O. F. hall by a big banquet. About a hundred members were present, some coming from other towns. Eight new members were taken into the order at this meeting.

The banquet was served by the Rebekahs immediately after the initiation, and was followed by a smoker. The members responded to roll call with a little talk about the history of the order and several members who were not able to be present sent in letters.

In these speeches facts were brought out concerning the first meetings of the order in the city, and contrasted with the meetings at the present time. The first meeting was held in the building now occupied by the Hershey Hardware company, which was then the Masonic hall. After this the meetings were held wherever the members could get a place. The growth has been so rapid that at present time the order has one of the best lodge buildings in the state and is still growing. It is the richest lodge, per capita, in the state, the membership at present is 220 and the lodge has assets amounting to $35,000.

No. 2 was the first to get through the drifts arriving late Friday evening.

Public Notice.

An article, together with a notice of incorporation of The North Platte General Hospital Association, was published in The Tribune on December 5, 1913. In explanation thereof, I desire to say that the Articles of Incorporation were subscribed by D. T. Guigley, J. S. Twinem and George B. Dert with the distinct understanding on the part of J. S. Twinem that said Articles of Incorporation should also be signed by Dr. Voorhees Lucas, and that the incorporation was for the purpose of forming the nucleus for a general hospital association, which all of the physicians of the city could join, soon after wards Dr. Lucas and the undersigned learned that one of the incorporators intended to exclude some of the physicians of the city, and therefore, Dr. Lucas refused to sign the articles of incorporation and the undersigned refused to have anything further to do with the incorporation. Neither do I intend to have anything to do with the operation of any hospital under the present organization and management. The only object of Dr. Lucas and myself was to join together the medical staff of this city in the support of one great general hospital. This object having been defeated through the instrumentality of one man, I desire the public to understand that I have nothing to do with the above incorporation. JOHN S. TWINEM, M. D.

Brotherhoods Plan Debate.

The Brotherhood of the M. E. church met in joint session with the Lutheran Brotherhood Friday evening and discussed plans for a debate between the two societies. The debate will be held Dec. 29th at the Lutheran parish house and the subject to be discussed is "Resolved, that the Lincoln highway as projected will be more beneficial to North Platte than the coming of the Burlington, as it is projected." It has not yet been decided which side of the question will be given to either team, nor have the men been selected to represent the societies, but it promises to be a lively and interesting discussion.
