Stage Set For Red and White Banquet.

Final preparations are being made for the first annual Red and White banquet which will be held this evening in the science room at the high school building. This is the first of these affairs in which the high school girls and lady teachers have been included, and it is being given by the high school girls, under the supervision of Mrs. Hart. Heretofore, the annual banquets have included only the boys.

Elaborate preparations are being made and a fine toast list has been prepared. Covers will be laid for one hundred. The menu cards are very unique designs painted by the high school girls. Music for the evening will be furnished by the girls' quartette and will consist of original foot ball song. Preceding the banquet, a reception will be held in the high school assembly room.

Miss Nanine Iddings will preside at the banquet as toastmistress, and the following toasts have been prepared: "Our Past," Mr. Neville; "Our Future," Mr. Keefe; "Our Team," Captain McWilliams; "Our Girls," Paul Ottenstein; "Our High School Spirit," Superintendent Tott; "Our Trips," Jay Smith; "Our Boys," Marie LeDoyt.

A two-course banquet will be served by the high school girls; the tables will be decorated with red and white carnations.

Wait! Wait! Wait!

"What for?"
"You want your overcoat now?"
"Weather waits for no man."
"No man (in a hurry) waits for a tailor."
