District court was called yesterday in the county commissioners rooms to decide the guardianship of Morton Robert Parsons, a minor orphaned boy of eight years of age. The case was entitled Walter H. Brooks vs the Modern Woodmen of America. Brooks was suing the company to get the insurance premium for the death of the boy's father. Judge Grimes decided that Mrs. Sarah Parsons of Brady was the rightful guardian of the boy, as Brooks lived out of the county and that the money would go to her for keeping the boy since he was fourteen months old. The father was a resident of this county at the time of his death.
