Mrs. Distel Dies.

Mrs. Marie Henrietta Distel died Saturday morning at 10 o'clock at her home on South Dewey street, aged 63 years, 2 months, 10 days. She had been suffering for only a week with an attack of pleuric pneumonia and her death came as a shock to her friends.

Mrs. Distel was born in Kiel, Germany, October 23, 1851. She came to this country in 1871 and located in North Platte. She was married April 9, 1874 to Cedric Distel and to this union were born seven children, four boys and three girls. Two of the boys died in infancy and all the other children are living in this city. They are as follows: Mrs. V. E. Hinman, Mrs. Charles Burroughs, Miss Marie Distel, Frank and Fred Distel.

Mrs. Distel leaves to mourn her death her five children, three brothers and a sister—all living in the east—and a host of friends. Mr. Distel died July 21, 1901.

The funeral services will be held this afternoon at 2:30 from the Lutheran church, Rev. C. B. Harman officiating. Interment will be made in the North Platte cemetery.

"Doc" Middleton is Dead.

"Doc" Middleton, the noted horse thief and "bad man" that operated in this section in the latter part of the seventies, recently died in jail at Douglas, Wyo., in which he had been placed on the charge of selling liquor without a license at Orin Junction. "Doc" was personally known by some of our older residents, as he frequently visited North Platte. Rewards for his arrest were constantly offered, but even in those days there were not many men who had the bravery to go on a hunt for him, knowing his reputation as a "gun man."

New Poormaster.

County Commissioners White and Herminghausen have appointed Maurice Fowler poormaster of the county, decapitating Major Lester Walker, who was serving in that capacity. We understand the objection to Major Walker was that he was too kind to the deserving poor, that he gave them enough provender for a square meal twice a week, when he should have given them but one square a week. As Major Walker is a pioneer resident, a valued citizen and an old soldier, his dismissal has caused considerable indignation among his friends.

Cattle in Good Shape.

John Holcomb, who was in town Saturday, says cattle on the Holcomb ranch at Maxwell are wintering in fine shape. They are wintering about 1700 head of cattle, a good-sized bunch of horses and feeding several hundred head of hogs. The greater number of cattle are southern-bred, but they are proving good hustlers on the range.

The Pan Hellenic club held a well attended meeting Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Alice Birge.

Railroad Notes

A. B. Swanson, clerk in the yardmaster's office, returned Sunday from a visit of several weeks with his parents in Nelson.

W. A. Conklin, superintendent of terminals for the Union Pacific, left Saturday for Omaha to spend a few days. He has charge of the construction work at the new round house.

J. N. Nisley had his foot crushed Friday when he was helping remove the trucks from under a car at the Union Pacific shops. The oil cup, weighing about fifty pounds, fell off and struck him on the foot and bruised it very severely. He will be laid up for about two weeks.

E. F. Mather, a traveller going from Oakland, Calif., to London, England, was taken off a passenger train here last Thursday very violently ill. He was taken to the North Platte General hospital and given medical attention. When taken off the train he was delirious and was in rather serious condition.

Harry Johnson, assistant inspector at the ice houses, was injured about the head and arms Friday evening when the switch engine ran into him. He was coming out from under the platform after work hours and did not see the engine approaching and stepped on the track ahead of it. Luckily it was running at a slow rate of speed. Johnson was knocked over and his head was cut above the right temple and his arms and legs were quite severely bruised. He was picked up and was able to walk to the office of the company physician where his injuries were attended. He will be unable to work for several days.

The Woman's Socialist study class will meet Wednesday, January 14, with Mrs. H. R. McMichael, 221 South Vine street. The subject for the afternoon will be "Health and Disease, their relation with social and industrial conditions." All members are requested to be present with a response at roll call. This is to be a booster meeting; everybody come and bring some one with you.

Joke Works Wrong Way.

The Senior class of the high school was desirous of having a quiet little class party of its own and in order to make it very quiet and exclusive, the Seniors inaugurated a high school skating party on the south river for Friday evening. A number of the senior boys attended the first part of the skating party and then slipped back to town and joined the rest of the class who had gathered at the Ottenstein home to make merry. In the meantime, some of the undergrads had suspicioned the plot and planned revenge. Accordingly, the party was left to run its course until a late hour, and when the guests began to take their leave, a sturdy aggregation of the lowerclassmen were waiting on the outside for them. Each senior boy was seized and robbed of his foot wear and left to go home in his stocking feet. The fine collection of shoes was returned to the rightful owners on Monday morning at chapel.

It's bad business to ask, grant or accept personal surety. Bad for all parties to the transaction, bad for the one who signs, bad for the one who seeks the favor and bad for the one accepting the security. Have Temple sign your bonds and make it good in every way.

Remonstrate Against Saloon.

The petition for saloons on the North Side, which was presented to the city council at their meeting last week, has caused a great deal of turmoil along some of the residents of that part of the city. Five women residing in that part of the city started out Saturday with remonstrances to the city council. They are taking the names of all the men who do not sign the remonstrance and will present them also.

The location proposed for the saloon is not the best on account of its proximity to the school house and may be objected on this account. It is also on the only street connecting the two parts of the city and everyone would be obliged to pass by it in order to go to and from town.

Buys Property and is Pleased.

Geo. R. Masters and his father-in-law Joseph Davis, of Rensselaer, Ind., were in town the latter part of last week and while here purchased the A. Anderson tract of land northeast of town containing 720 acres. Mr. Masters will move here from Indiana the first of March and take possession of the land. He is well pleased with this section of Nebraska, and was surprised to find North Platte such a well built and hustling town.

Miss Sarah Cressler left yesterday for San Francisco where she will spend the winter months.

Charles Chabot, of Omaha, visited friends in North Platte Sunday and yesterday.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. L. Baker, 215 West Fifth street.

M. W. McCullough, of Maxwell, was visiting in the city last week with friends.

Andrew Johnson, residing at 502 East Eleventh street, is reported on the sick list.
