

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune

TWENTY-EIGHTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB., JANUARY 16, 1914.

No. 103

Local and Personal

L. B. Dick, manager of the North Platte Lumber company, left yesterday for Ohio and the east for a ten day trip.

Have you attended Tramp's sale yet? If you need or want the money you can save, better get in on this now, not next week, but now.

Lost—A white bull dog with brown spots, cut ears and tail. When lost he wore a collar and chain. Reward for return. Allison Wilcox.

George W. Skinner, a prominent ranchman from Mayflower, was a business visitor in this city yesterday, and called on some of his friends here.

The Cash Market—its different. A particular market for people who care. Remember an active dime has a lazy quarter skinned a city block. Phone 26.

Mrs. James Abbott, of Hershey, was operated upon yesterday at the P. & S. hospital. She is reported getting along nicely. Mr. Abbott came down with her.

R. M. Lamb, who formerly resided on East Eighth streets is moving his home from the corner of Eighth and Dewey streets to a lot he recently purchased on West Ninth street. F. L. Disbrow is doing the work of moving the house.

Miss Anna Wetzel, of Sutherland, was visiting friends in the city the first of the week.

John Den returned last evening from Arapahoe where he visited for a few days with relatives.

For Sale—Bedroom suite consisting of bed, dresser and commode. Cheap if taken at once. Apply 408 W 3rd street. Phone Black 122.

No other western Nebraska store has ever conducted a sale like the one now on at Tramp's. There's a big saving on anything you buy.

Do you know that you can buy anything you want at Tramp's sale today and return it tomorrow and get your money back if not satisfied? Well you can.

Dr. Saddler, of Hershey, was a professional visitor to this city yesterday. He came down with Mrs. James Abbott who was operated upon yesterday morning at the P. & S. hospital.

Walla Walla lodge No. 56 I. O. O. F. met last evening at the hall for their regular meeting and initiated six new members into the lodge. H. C. Booker, G. D. D. M. of Gothenburg will be in the city next Thursday and will install the officers for the ensuing year. At that time there will also be a class initiated into the mysteries of the first degree.

Mrs. Hoxie returned last evening from a visit of a few days with friends at Hastings.

Engineer Harry Greeno left this morning for Omaha to spend several days visiting friends.

Mrs. William Wray, who has been suffering from a severe sick spell for some time is greatly improving.

Miss Jones, of Denver daughter of President Jones of the First National Bank of that city, is the guest of Miss Alma Waltemath, having arrived Wednesday night. The two young ladies attended the same school in the east.

W. H. Staples was quite seriously hurt Monday afternoon while lifting on an engine wheel at Cy Russell's shop. He strained himself in such a manner that his condition is rather of a serious nature. He was taken to a hospital Wednesday and will be given medical treatment.

The brotherhoods of the Presbyterian and Methodist churches will hold a mock trial or kangaroo court in the basement of the Presbyterian church next Monday evening and it is desired that every man of both congregations be present. No arrests have yet been made, but several parties are under surveillance and will probably be gathered tomorrow. Upon adjournment of court refreshments will be served.

Miss Vivian Reynoldson is suffering with a fractured ankle.

Another case of smallpox is reported at the home of J. B. West, 723 South Cottonwood.

Dr. Foote returned last night to his home in Omaha after a professional visit in the city.

There will be a meeting of the Mothers Club at the home of E. W. Crand, 215 West 2nd street Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Harper, of the Moorefield vicinity, arrived in the city last evening for a visit of a few days with their daughter, Mrs. D. H. Todd.

The case of Peter Barr vs. Harry Kuster for collection of rent was heard yesterday before Justice of the Peace Sullivan, and judgment for $10 and costs was granted the plaintiff on default, the defendant failing to appear.

License to wed was granted yesterday afternoon in the county judge's office to Joe Abbas, 25, of Hampton, Ia., and Miss Anna Gaulke, 20, of this city. The couple was married by Judge Grant.

Mrs. J. G. Beeler returned last evening from Lincoln where she has been visiting for some time with her parents. She was called there by the illness of her mother, but reports her mother convalescent.

Faculty Recital

The North Platte School of Music will present two of its faculty members at a recital at the high school auditorium Friday evening, January 23. Mrs. Elizabeth Bonner Cramer, soprano, will appear in vocal selections and Miss Elsa Ackerman will accompany her and appear in instrumental solos. These ladies really need no introduction to the people of North Platte as they have been here for some times and are musicians that would necessarily impress themselves upon the people. Mrs. Cramer has been a resident of this city since her girlhood and has always been known as a beautiful singer. Miss Ackerman is a graduate of Wesleyan school of music and is a very talented pianist. She has been connected with the school of music here for some time and is personally known to many of the musical people of this city. An admission price of thirty-five cents will be charged and tickets can be procured from Dixon's or Clinton's jewelry store or at the doors.

The Twentieth Century club held their regular meeting Tuesday evening at the library building and after a short business session and enjoyed a miscellaneous program. The program was under the charge of the literary department. The meeting was called to order by the vice-president, Miss Kramp, and each member responded to roll call by a current event. After the business session, the meeting was turned over to the literary department and the following program was rendered under the charge of Mrs. Malmstein: Paper, Indian Art and Music, Mrs. Forbes; reading, Friday Afternoon in the Third Ward, Mrs. Flowers; paper, Political and Industrial Situation in the Philippines, Mrs. Shuman; violin duet, Misses Elder and Cross. All the numbers were very much enjoyed and especially the musical number, which was very good.

The committee appointed some time ago by the city council to investigate the municipal lighting plants over the state are arduously at work collecting data for plans to submit to the council for a plant for North Platte. The work of getting this data is not as easily done as would seem, as the committee has to get reports from municipal plants and compare them with the reports from private concerns. They must also have the rates of the different plants along with the plans for the construction of the plant here. A suitable location for the building has been considered by the committee. The vacant lots on the north side of the track near the pumping station would be one that should receive consideration. The city already owns sufficient ground there and if the buildings were erected there, it would place the lighting and water plant together.

The two cases of Charles Palmer vs. Sam Smith and Lester Palmer vs. Sam Smith were tried yesterday in Justice Sullivan's court. Each of the two men were suing for $6 which they alleged to be due them for work of digging a ditch. The evidence brought out that Smith had hired Lester Palmer to dig a ditch and had agreed to pay him by the square foot of dirt removed. The brother helped him dig the ditch and they each presented their bill for work. The case of Charles Palmer was dismissed for the reason that he had not been hired by the defendant. Lester Palmer was granted $12, which was the entire amount for the digging, but the defendant had filed a counter claim of $9.75 for a bill due a firm in which he is interested and this amount was deducted from the amount granted the plaintiff. Plaintiff also had the costs to pay.

On Saturday evening, Jan. 31st, Dr. Woods Hutchinson, the famous writer and lecturer, will lecture at Keith's opera house on "The Price of Sunshine." This lecture is being given under the auspices of the Twentieth Century Club. The club had hoped to make this lecture free but it has been found necessary to charge admission fee of 25c to cover the actual expenses of the lecture. Tickets will be placed on sale in the near future.

For Sale—Full blood single comb Rhode Island Red Cockerels.

W. B. Brown, 1303 East Sixth St.

Mrs. M. V. Mitchell and Miss Ellen McCarty entertained at a party last evening at the home of the former. Twenty young ladies were present and the evening was spent with games, contests and a spelling match. Very appropriate and unique prizes were given in the contests and were won by Miss Hazel Smith and Miss Edna Sullivan. After the evening's diversions, a delightful luncheon was served on small tables.

Temple's Real Estate Bulletin will be out this week. Phone the office if you wish your property listed therein. Red 500.

The card party given by the Elks last evening proved a very enjoyable function to eighty or more who attended. The game was progressive 500, and the prizes were won by Mrs. John Holcomb and Dr. Dent, the latter tying with Fred Waltemath and winning in the cut. A two course lunch was served at 10:30 and following this there was dancing. Stamp's orchestra furnished music throughout the evening.
