John Hutches, of Ringgold, barely escaped death Tuesday evening at the railroad crossing on Locust street when a switch engine ran into his rig. He was driving down the street to meet a train and the flagman signalled for him to cross. As he got on the middle tracks, the switch engine came along and scared his team. The team turned around and broke the tongue out of the wagon and the wagon turned over and the engine struck it. Hutches held to the lines and the team started to run. They pulled him out of the wagon and he struck on his face, bruising it very badly and almost taking off one of his ears. He was taken to the north side hospital and his injuries were attended. Another man was in the wagon but escaped uninjured. The team ran away and were caught up the street north of the tracks.

PROBATE NOTICE. In the County Court of Lincoln County, Nebraska, Dec. 9th, 1913. In the matter of the estate of Hattie Farrington, Deceased. Notice is hereby given, that the creditors of said deceased will meet the Executor of said estate, before the county judge of Lincoln county, Nebraska, at the county court room, in said county, on the 29th day of Jan. 1914, and on the 29th day of July, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m. each day, for the purpose of presenting their claims for examination, adjustment and allowance. Six months are allowed for creditors to present their claims, and one year for the Executor to settle said estate, from the 9th day of Dec. 1913. A copy of this order to be published in the North Platte Tribune, a legal semi-weekly newspaper printed in said county for four successive weeks prior to January 16, 1914. JOHN GRANT, County Judge.

Sheriff's Sale. By virtue of an order of sale issued from the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, upon a decree of foreclosure rendered in said court wherein Branch B. Field is plaintiff and Thurlough Chambers, et al are defendants, and to me directed I will on the 24th day of Jan., 1914, at 1 o'clock p. m., at the east front door of the court house in North Platte, Lincoln county, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash, to satisfy said decree, interest and costs, the following described property to-wit: East one-half (E 1/2) Section twenty-four (24) Township Eleven (11) North of Range Twenty-eight (28) west of the 6th P. M. Lincoln county, Nebraska. Dated North Platte, Neb., Dec. 22, 1913. A. J. SALISBURY, Sheriff 423-6

ORDER OF HEARING ON ORIGINAL PROBATE OF WILL. The State of Nebraska, Lincoln County, ss. In the county court, Dec. 24, 1913. In the matter of the estate of James E. Baker, deceased. On reading and filing the petition of John N. Baker and Jessie E. Hughes, praying that the instrument filed on the 27th day of December, 1913, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may be proved, approved, probated, allowed and recorded as the last will and testament of the said James E. Baker, deceased, and that the execution of said instrument may be committed and the administration of said estate may be granted to John N. Baker and Jessie E. Hughes as executors. Ordered, that Jan. 20th, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the forenoon is assigned for hearing said petition when all persons interested in said matter may appear in the county court to be held in and for said county and show cause why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted. A copy of this order to be published in the North Platte Tribune a legal semi-weekly newspaper of said county for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing. JOHN GRANT, County Judge. 423-5

LEGAL NOTICE. Eva Roddy, defendant, will take notice that on the 19th day of November, 1913, William R. Maloney, administrator of the estate of Lois Shelton, deceased, filed his petition in the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, against said Eva Roddy, et al, and prayer of the petition which are to foreclose a certain mortgage executed by said Eva Roddy to Lois Shelton on May 27, 1912, to secure promissory notes of even date with said mortgage, upon which there is due the sum of Eleven Hundred Dollars ($1,100.00) with interest thereon at the rate of six per cent from May 27, 1912. Said mortgage was given upon Lot One (1), in Section Eight (8), Township Thirteen (13) North, Range Thirty (30) West in Lincoln county, Nebraska. Plaintiff also seeks to obtain an appointment of a receiver for said premises pending said action upon the grounds that said property is not sufficient security for the payment of the debt in said mortgage and that said property is liable to be wasted; that the same is not insured; that said property is rapidly decreasing in value; that it has no rental value while in the condition that it is; and that the improvements upon said property are of no value and the real estate not of value to exceed $100.00 outside of the improvements thereon, and that the said defendant, Eva Roddy, is insolvent. Plaintiff prays for a decree that the defendant shall be required to pay the amount herein stated to be due upon said mortgage and that said premises may be sold to satisfy the amount for which an immediate appointment of a receiver to take immediate charge of said premises. And said Eva Roddy is hereby notified to answer said petition on or before the 29th day of February, 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m., or as soon thereafter as plaintiff may be heard, plaintiff will file the judgment of the court in chambers in the court house at North Platte, Nebraska, for the appointment of such receiver of said premises, and plaintiff represents the name of A. J. Salisbury, sheriff of said county, as such receiver, with L. O. Bonding and Surety Co., as surety, and plaintiff offers as surety for himself L. O. Bonding and Surety Co. WILLIAM R. MALONEY, Adm'r of Estate of Lois Shelton, deceased. By Hosland & Hoagland, His Attorneys.

SHERIFF'S SALE. By virtue of an order of sale issued from the district court of Lincoln county, Nebraska, upon a decree of foreclosure rendered in said court wherein Charles W. Weckbach is plaintiff, and Homer H. Rogstad is defendant, and to me directed, I will on the 14th day of February 1914, at 10 o'clock a. m., at the east front door of the court house in North Platte, Lincoln county, Nebraska, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash to satisfy said decree, interest and costs, the following described property to-wit: All lots one (1) to two (2) three (3) four (4) otherwise described as west half of the west half of section eighteen (18) township nine (9) range twenty (20) west of the 6th Principal Meridian, Lincoln county, Nebraska. Dated North Platte, Neb., January 12th, 1914. A. J. SALISBURY, Sheriff. 314-5
