

The name on the box

People judge jewelry largely by the name on the box. The right name enriches the brightest jewel.

Beautiful as the Gorham Silverware patterns are, they are enhanced by having the Gorham trade-mark on the back. It is a certificate of character that establishes quality.

The public knows the trade-mark has always stood for excellence. We are just in receipt of a full line of the beautiful Chautilla and Plymouth.

Let us show you some of these beautiful goods.

Instructions were received at the local postoffice Wednesday announcing that C. D. Sackett of St. Paul, Minn., would arrive here today and arrange for the government typewriter and stenographer examinations to be given here. The local force has been trying for some time to get this done, but have heretofore been unsuccessful.

Dance Terminates In Stabbing Affray

Thomas Gutherless was seriously stabbed Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Day, 320 East Sixth street, as a result of remarks he had made in reference to a Greek laborer. A dance was being held at the home by a club known as the Jolly Jingers. A large attendance was out and everything went well until a late hour.

At about midnight when goodfellowship was running a floodtide, Mr. Gutherless made a remark about the Greek and the Greek immediately turned upon him and stabbed him before he could be stopped. It seems that an American woman was in conversation with the Greek and that Mr. Gutherless made the remark to the woman that she should feel ashamed of herself for associating with the Greek. The Greek sprang upon him and stabbed him and then ran away and has not yet been located. As near as can be discovered the Greek is the same one that was arrested some months ago for pulling a gun on a man. At that time, however, he was stopped before he had had time to use the weapon.

The officers are on the lookout for the man and Chief Frazier announces that he will be seriously dealt with. They are making a special attempt to do away with all such rowdism and to rid the city of such carousers. Careful watch is being kept in all parts of the city for the man and his arrest will only be a matter of days.

The Mutual Building & Loan Association Annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of this association will be held at the Court House on Saturday, March 28th, at eight o'clock for the purpose of receiving the report of the officers and the election of directors.

There will be a short address by the president reviewing the growth of the association and a report on the progress of new building. Every stockholder who can possibly do so ought to attend this meeting.

Will Attend Banquet.

A delightful surprise party was held Tuesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry DeuBeary on Eighth street, the occasion being Mr. DeuBeary's birthday anniversary. A number of the friends were invited in and the evening was delightfully spent with cards and games. At midnight a dainty luncheon was served by the hostess and the guests departed voting Mrs. DeuBeary an entertaining hostess. Mr. DeuBeary was the recipient of many beautiful gifts. The prize winners in the contests were Mrs. John Kolbo, first prize; Miss Ethel Winget, second and Henry Schiltz, third.

Word has been received here by Co. Supt. Chappell announcing that the declamatory contest for the West Central district will be held Friday evening, April 3rd, at Cozad. A large number of the schools in this part of the state have already signified their intention of entering the contest and representatives will probably be sent from here. The contest is usually held in connection with the district teachers' association, but the associational meeting was cancelled this year on account of contagious diseases in Kearney where it was to have been held.

An exciting basketball game occurred Tuesday evening at the Lloyd opera house when the Senior girls defeated the faculty team by a score of 5 to 4. Only twelve minute halves were played and masculine spectators were positively forbidden to be present. The lineup was, Seniors, Johnson and Hall forwards, Wellborn center, Den and Bundy guards, faculty, Mansfield and Gant forwards, Welsh center, Hanks and Crandall guards.
