

TELL your husband that you would like table silver for a gift. Tell him also that Community Silver is the best plated ware made, but costs no more than other kinds.

DIXON,
The Jeweler.

Local and Personal.

Mrs. Mary Finch, of Cheyenne, is visiting in the city for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Dan Roberts.

Rooms at Commercial House $1.50 per week and up, 216 East Fifth street.

Miss Alice C. Gilchrist of Omaha, will arrive in North Platte tomorrow and will be the guest of Dr. and Mrs. V. Lucas over Sunday.

Special showing of dress hats for Easter next week at the Hat Shop, 21-2 See "Sapho" at the Pat Friday and Saturday six reels. The greatest sensational photo play ever produced. Admission 5c and 15c.

Get Cedar Moss from Mrs. Theresa Halderman, Phone Black 368.

Dr. W. W. Saddler, of Hershey, was in the city yesterday on professional business. He returned home in the afternoon and Dr. N. McCabe returned with him for consultation.

Get Cedar Moss to keep the carpet clean after house cleaning. Phone Black 368 and it will be delivered. 21-2

Former Deputy Sheriff Watts was in the city Wednesday evening from Grand Island, where he is in the employ of the Union Pacific secret service, and visited friends here for a few hours.

Cedar Moss brightens the carpet. Phone Black 368.

Weather forecast: Generally fair tonight and Saturday. Rising temperature Saturday. General variable breezes. Highest temperature yesterday 58, a year ago 67; lowest last night 33, a year ago 30.

Special display of hats for misses and children, Wednesday April 8th at the Hat shop. 21-2

J. W. Inman and George Rannie have each received drafts of $1,000 representing policies held by their respective mother and wife in the Royal Neighbors.

The W. C. T. U. will meet Tuesday afternoon at 3 o'clock with Mrs. H. L. Baker, 215 West Fifth street. All members are urged to be present as a suffrage program will be given.

Local and Personal

Mrs. H. W. Allwine, of Omaha, arrived in the city yesterday morning for a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Mitchell.

Kemmerer Nut Coal now for sale on track, also a car of lump coal. Call or Phone 73.

YORK FEED STORE.

Roy Ames, who attends the state agricultural school at Curtis arrived in the city yesterday morning and will visit here for some time with his mother, Dr. Mary J. Ames.

See "Sapho" at the Pat Friday and Saturday six reels. The greatest sensational photo play ever produced. Admission 5c and 15c.

The N. A. T. club was delightfully entertained Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Myrtle Beeler. The evening was spent in sewing and social converse and at a late hour a nice luncheon was served. Miss Irma Huffman was a guest of the club.

At a meeting of the B. P. O. Elks Wednesday arrangements were made to have the Hallowell Concert company here on the evening of April 23rd for a concert and dancing party. This company is a harp orchestra and needs no introduction having appeared here three times before under the auspices of the Elks.

The twenty-seventh annual ball, given by the local volunteer firemen will be held Easter Monday, April 13th, at the Lloyd opera house. These Easter Monday dances are given every year to help defray the expense of the department. The public is cordially invited to attend and enjoy a good time. Best of order will be maintained throughout the evening. Music for the occasion will be furnished by Stamp's orchestra.

Closing out flowers and millinery trimmings at less than cost. Parlor Millinery.

Complaint was filed yesterday afternoon before the county court entitled state of Nebraska vs. Ira James, Edward W. McMullen is the complaining witness and in the complaint he alleges that defendant on the night of March 31, stole thirteen chickens from him. James was arrested yesterday afternoon by Sheriff Salisbury and was placed in jail to await preliminary hearing to be held some time today.

"T. A. Tormey, Practical Rat Catcher; Address: Stockyards; Taken Them Out Alive; Uses No Poison." This new profession was discovered in the city yesterday when the young man answering to the above name made the rounds of the different business houses and some of the residences and asked to demonstrate his work. The idea met with approval of the business men, but his scheme did not seem practicable enough for many of them to try.

A county convention of Modern Woodmen camps of the county was held Wednesday. Maxwell, Hershey, Sutherland and North Platte being represented. The delegates present passed resolutions opposing a raise of more than fifty per cent in the present rates, but before such a raise is made that it should be submitted to a vote of the membership. No action was taken in regard to state officers. O. H. Eyerly, of Hershey, was selected as delegate to the state lodge and J. D. Kellher alternate delegate.

Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock Miss Alice C. Gilchrist of Omaha will deliver a lecture at Masonic hall. This talented lady will discuss household economics from the practical, as well as the scientific standpoint, and will impart a good deal of useful information of special interest to all housekeepers. The lecture contains many suggestions for reducing the cost of living and for lessening the drudgery of housework. Since the admission fee is only ten cents and the proceeds are donated to the Sunshine Society, we predict a very large attendance. Mrs. C. J. Perkins, president of the society, will introduce the speaker.

Complaint was filed yesterday afternoon in the county court against John Faye, Sr., and John Faye, Jr. The complaint was filed by County Attorney Gibbs and in it he alleges that John Faye, Jr., thirteen years of age, is growing up under unsuitable surroundings which would tend to develop him into a vicious character. The boy's mother is dead and he lives with his father in a little hut on the north side of the tracks. The complaint alleges that the father is an habitual drunkard and that he is unfit to have the custody of the boy. The case will be heard some time today before Judge Grant.

Don't Wait Until the Last Minute to Buy Your Easter Coat or Suit.

There are but eight days between now and Easter Sunday.

Copyright 1914 Th. H. Black Co.

Copyright 1914 Th. H. Black Co.

As Easter approaches, the capacity of our store will be packed to its utmost, and shopping will become more and more difficult.

Take advantage of this suggestion and come today to make your selection. You will not only have time to go leisurely over our beautiful stocks of fashionable, up-to-date apparel, but you will allow us ample time to make, if necessary, such slight corrections as may suggest themselves.

By coming today you may be able to secure the suit most becoming to you, which may have been sold if you put off your shopping until tomorrow.

Wilcox Department Store,

The Store That Sells Wooltex
Coats Suits Skirts

FASHIONS

Style-Craft

MIRROR

Style 702

Easter Suits, Coats and Dresses

in the season's most attractive creations are here for your inspection. The well dressed women will find in our assortment of wearing apparel the most distinctive models, selected with special reference to quality of materials, and above everything else

Moderately Priced

BLOCK'S
Ladies' Outfitting Store

Bring all kinds of MACHINE WORK

To the best equipped machine shop west of Omaha. Agents for FORD and STUDEBAKER CARS.

Hendy & Ogier Auto Co.,
Corner Dewey and Fourth Streets.

Boys Spring Clothing

You'll find in our Boys and Children's Clothing Department the best possible values.

We are showing a big line of Boys' Suits from

$2.50 to $8.00

Two pairs of pants with most of our suits from $4.00 up.

Let us show you our Special Blue Serge Suit at $5.00

H. SCOONOVER & CO.,
QUALITY CLOTHES.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,
Graduate Dentist.
Office over the McDonald State Bank.

Fire broke out this morning at 9:30 in the rooms occupied by the Reese pantorium and did considerable damage. The fire was caused from an explosion of coal gas in the stove and the flames shot out and caught on some pieces of clothing that were hanging near. In a few minutes the entire room was in flames. The department was called and soon put out the fire with chemicals, but not before great damage was done to the room and goods.

Select line of trimmed hats, choice Saturday, $4.75 at Parlor Millinery.

Lutheran Church.

Next Sunday, Palm Sunday, at 10 o'clock confirmation service. Topic of sermon "My Happy Day." Special music. Vocal solo by Miss Irma Huffman and trombone solo by Arthur Tramp, both accompanied by Mrs. Ella Huxoll. 11:45 children's baptism service. 12 m. Sunday school. 7 p. m. Luther league, 8 p. m. evening service. "The Eventide was Come." Services every evening next week at 8 o'clock.

Notice.

Anyone wishing ice, don't forget the old ice man, Joe Spies, Phone Blk 161.

Hoosier White Beauty

The Cabinet that saves Thousands of Steps. See them in our window. Sold on easy payment plan.

HOWE & MALONEY.

Put Under Peace Bond.

C. B. Saunders, residing in the south east part of the city, filed complaint Tuesday afternoon before Justice M. J. O'Connell against Berry Warner, a nine-year-old girl, charging her with assault upon Myrtle Gladys Sanders, daughter of the plaintiff. It seems that the two children are in school together and that they do not get along together either there or at home. They live neighbors and quarrel much of the time. A short time ago they were brought before Justice Sullivan on the same complaint. The parties appeared before Justice O'Connell Wednesday morning and the defendant was put under bonds to keep the peace.

In the complaint the plaintiff alleges that the defendant has several times made dire threats against his daughter, and that several times she has attacked the Sanders girl and has assaulted her severely.

Mrs. Sarah Sherwood Dies.

Mrs. Sarah Sherwood, for many years a resident of this county, died Tuesday morning at 3 o'clock at the home of her son, L. E. Sherwood at Sutherland. The deceased was 67 years and two months old at the time of her death and had been a resident of this county for the past twenty years. Complete obstruction of the bowels is given the cause of her death.

Three lots sold last week in the Cody 2nd addition. C. F. Temple.

J. C. Hitchcock, of Ogalala, arrived in the city Wednesday to look over the city with the purpose in view of locating here. He visited here with Dean J. J. Bowker. Mr. Hitchcock has been located at Ogalala for some time where he represents the Banker's Life insurance company of Lincoln. He is looking for a better location and may decide on this place.

M. E. Church.

The service at the Methodist church Sunday night at 7:30 is expected to be the greatest in the history of the church. Mrs. M. E. Scott will give a special reading entitled "Pledge with Wine." Mrs. Wortman will sing a special solo for the occasion. The lecture on "Cracked Caestnuts" will follow. This lecture is a third in a series given by the pastor. It will be logical and convincing and a fitting climax to the series. Other services as follows: Sunday school 9:45. Let every brotherhood man be there to start off the new men's class in good shape. Preaching 11 a. m. Epworth league 6:30 p. m.

F. J. DIENER & Co.

Real Estate and Insurance.
Come and see us for town lots in different parts of the city. Good investments on easy terms. Houses for sale and rent. We have also good bargains in farms and ranches.
Cor. Front and Dewey Sts. upstairs.