Sheriff Salisbury Hurt When Car Overturns

Sheriff A. J. Salisbury barely escaped serious injury yesterday morning at about 10 o'clock when his car turned turtle on Garfield table about thirty-five miles northeast of the city. He received a big gash across the right temple and several bruises about his body and was pinned under the car for about thirty minutes.

The sheriff was driving to the northeast part of the county on official business and while driving down a slight grade his car ran off into a canyon and overturned. The mist in the air gathered on the windshield so that he could scarcely see in front and he failed to notice a sharp turn in the road. The car turned over and pinned the sheriff's right leg under one side of the body so that he could scarcely get out. The glass in the windshield was broken and cut a deep gash in his forehead that required thirteen stitches to close.

He finally crawled out from under the car and walked a mile to the home of Fred Fox who brought him into the city. He is very weak from loss of blood and was taken immediately to the P. & S. hospital where his injuries were attended. The car was hauled in behind Mr. Fox's car. Mr. Salisbury and Mr. Fox arrived in the city at about 1 o'clock and the sheriff was able to return home by 4 o'clock. He is still very weak from loss of blood and his injuries will undoubtedly lay him up for some weeks. He considers himself very lucky in getting off with as few injuries as he did.

Dies After Five Days Illness.

Clarence Carlton Bradley died Saturday morning at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bradley, 506 East Sixth street, after an illness of only five days with pneumonia. His death came very sudden and a great shock to his relatives and many friends. He had been working up until the first of the week when he laid off with a bad cold on his lungs which turned into pneumonia.

Clarence Carlton Bradley was born August 21, 1896 in Elm Creek, Neb. He lived there with his parents until he came to this city several months ago. He was employed in the Hemphill job office until a few weeks ago when his parents moved here from Elm Creek, after which he went to work in the job office of The Telegraph. He leaves to mourn his death his father and mother, two sisters and three brothers, besides a number of friends both in this city and at his old home. He was the eldest of the family of children.

The funeral was held yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Christian church of which he was a member. H. G. Knowles, pastor of the church delivered the funeral oration. Interment was in the North Platte cemetery. The funeral was largely attended and the floral offerings were beautiful.

Baseball Draws Good Crowd.

A fast baseball game was played Sunday afternoon at the ball park between the Company Q team and the Junior high school team, resulting in a score of 9 to 8 in favor of the Company Q boys. The game drew a good sized crowd considering the weather, and was a fast game from start to finish. At the end of the eighth inning the score stood 8 to 4 in favor of the high school boys but the older men had a streak of good plays in the ninth inning and ran in five scores.

All the men were in good form and played a game with comparatively few errors. The feature of the game was a double play by the Juniors in the seventh inning, a line drive to Conroy at a short stop to White on first base putting the batter and the runner out. A similar play was made by the Company Q boys in the eighth, line drive to Langford to Stack, but the play missed fire on account of an error by Stack. The batteries were: Company Q, Langford, Richeson and Day; Juniors, Vernon and Clabaugh; Umpire Bert Culton.

Six Lots in Dolous Addition Sold This Last Week.

These lots are going fast, $5.00 down and $5.00 per month. C. F. Temple, Agent.

An exciting runaway occurred Friday shortly before noon, when a team driven by Joe Weam became frightened at the corner of Fourth and Dewey streets and ran down the street. Just what scared them is not known, but they were a young team and very nervous. They ran west to the corner of Fourth and Locust streets and then turned south and were not stopped until they reached the home of C. R. Lewis, across the south river bridge. The wagon was smashed up quite badly but further than that no damage was done. The team belongs to Mr. Lewis and Mr. Weam drove to town to deliver the milk. He has not been seen since the runaway and it is thought that he left the city. He is a stranger here, having come here only recently to work for Mr. Lewis.

An interesting special service was given Sunday evening at the Methodist church along the lines of temperance. Aside from the sermon, a reading, "Pledged in Wine," was given by Mrs. Marshall Scott. The reading was especially good and was well rendered and was much enjoyed by the congregation.

The office of C. F. Temple in the I. O. O. F. building is being enlarged this week to take in another room. The room that was formerly occupied by Attorney M. E. Crosby is being added to the suite. A door is being cut in between them and it will make a fine suite of rooms. The work is being done by P. M. Sorenson.

Advantages to the People Under the Proposed New Electric Ordinance Compared with the One Now Effective:

Rates TWENTY per cent lower. Better service. Extension of new lines to all applicants. Increased number of factories induced by lower power rates. A new fire-proof power station, giving steadier and better light. Installation of a new system of street lighting, giving North Platte a more attractive appearance day and night. We ask every voter to make it possible to help us boost the city by favoring the new ordinance.

We do not ask for exclusive rights

The field remains open to all. The city may install its own lighting plant at any time. We desire the privilege of investing new capital. We are putting new life into an old Company and mean business.
