About forty ladies were pleasantly entertained Wednesday afternoon at 500 by Mrs. John Ottenstein and daughters. Nine tables were in use, and the game proved fascinating. Mrs. A. H. Church having made the highest score, was presented with a bunch of carnations. The rooms were profusely decorated with flowers, and at the close of the card playing an enjoyable lunch was served.

The musical dancing party held last evening by the Elks are well attended and a pleasant evening was reported by all present. The Halowell concert company gave a musical and played for the dancing. They gave a musical from 8 o'clock until 10 and the dancing lasted from 10 until 1. The music was very good, especially the singing by Mr. Henzel, the baritone with the concert company. The solo selections on the harp, violin and trombone were also much enjoyed.

A man giving his name as E. O. Alexander was arrested Wednesday evening by Officer Combs of the Union Pacific secret service on the charge of stealing some copper window screens which had been received here by the company. He was lodged in jail and his hearing was brought up before Justice I. L. Miltonberger yesterday afternoon to answer the charge. He entered a plea of not guilty but the court found that the evidence was convicting and fined him $15 and costs. He paid and was released.

Will Organize City Ball Team.

Negotiations were started yesterday for the organizing of a city baseball team which will be largely made up of the old team that was organized two years ago. O. R. Robinson leased the ball park yesterday and a meeting will be held in the near future for the purpose of organizing and getting the players out. This will take in all the best players available in the city. The team two years ago was a strong one and the outlook for a good team this season is encouraging. Several new players have come to the city since that time.

J. McMICHAEL.

Alva Carpenter, a farmer residing in the southeastern part of the county, was quite badly injured Monday in a runaway with a disc. He was working in the field and the team frightened and ran away. Just how the accident occurred is not known as he was rendered unconscious by his fall from the disc, and he became tangled in the machinery and was dragged for some distance. His injuries are not thought to be serious and he is reported resting easy and is apparently out of danger.

War Must Come.

The trend of events in Mexico is such that a formal declaration of war will undoubtedly be made within the next forty-eight hours. In the investment of Vera Cruz by men from the United States war ships, four were killed and twenty wounded Tuesday, and twelve were killed and fifty wounded in the engagements yesterday. The city is in complete command of the United States. General Maas, the Mexican commander who had been in charge of Vera Cruz but withdrew his troops when the Americans first landed, has gathered fresh forces and intends to give battle. About 2000 men from the warships are now stationed at Vera Cruz and with the aid of the guns from the ships will be able to repulse any attack made by the Mexican commander. The United States minister in Mexico City has been given his passport, and the Mexican minister at Washington has asked for similar papers. It is probable that Villa and Huerta will drop their warfare against each other and join hands in repelling United States invasion.

At all army posts throughout this country troops are being placed in readiness for departure to Mexican territory, the patrol on the Mexican is being increased, and the militia in Nebraska and all other states is being recruited to the full war strength. All Americans in Mexico are leaving that country as fast as possible, 1,200 having taking refuge on foreign vessels in Tampico bay, while thousands are crossing the border line into Texas and Arizona.

Mr. James, of the Maxwell vicinity, father of Ira James who is being held at the county jail to await trial for chicken stealing, arrived in the city this morning and appeared before Judge Grimes in an attempt to get his son out of jail on bonds. James was bound over to the district court a few weeks ago and is now being held in jail on default of furnishing bonds. His father wants to get him out in order that he can put in his crop.

John McMichael has purchased the Osborn barber shop north of the Nyal drug store, and will close up the shop he has been conducting on Fifth street. The purchase of the Osborn shop was made through A. M. Lock, who held a mortgage on the furnishings.

Mrs. R. O. Chamberlain, daughter Bessie and son George went to Lincoln last night to be present at the graduation exercises of the agricultural school of which Robert Chamberlain is a graduate.

Mrs. Charles A. Dill returned this morning to her home in Chicago after a visit of several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Yost.

The infant daughter of Clyde McMichael died suddenly Thursday afternoon. The little child had suffered since birth from paralysis of the left side and abnormal development. About a year ago a surgeon from Omaha removed a plate of bone from the skull over the point where there was a depression to remove the pressure on the brain. There was quite a marked improvement, but not as great as desirable. Thursday the same doctor operated again to still further relieve the pressure symptoms, as the former opening had almost entirely healed. The patient went through the operation successfully and seemingly recovered from the anesthetic satisfactorily, but while the family and nurse were at dinner the child called for her mother and as the nurse and members of the family responded she suddenly expired. The wound was in perfect condition and there was no apparent reason for her sudden death. The physicians in charge were unable to give any definite cause for the death any further than to say that the child was abnormal and the sudden death entirely unexpected and inexplicable.

Ed Drake left yesterday for Sharon Springs, Kans., where he has accepted a position in the engineering department of the Union Pacific service. He has been working at engineering in this city for some time with County Surveyor Cochran.
