Upon petition of Bert Nigh, Judge Grant issued an order Tuesday restraining Mr. and Mrs. John McDonald from delivering to Mrs. Florence Nigh her two year old child. In December, 1912, Nigh secured a divorce from his wife, Florence Nigh, on the ground that she was a habitual drunkard, but on her S. hospital. promise that she would reform she was given the custody of their one offspring. It is alleged, however, that Mrs. Nigh has continued her libations of the firey fluid, and probably to escape responsibility placed the child in the care of Mr. and Mrs. McDonald. Nigh lately began an action in the Perkins county court to gain the custody of the child and fearing that pending the hearing of the action the divorced wife would seek to gain possession of the child thwarted such action by securing the restraining order. All parties in the case are residents of this city.

Definite Steps Taken for Public Playgrounds

About fifty men and women were in attendance at the meeting Tuesday evening at the court house to talk over the plans for a public playground for North Platte and an enthusiastic meeting was held. Miss Anna Kramph was elected chairman of the meeting and Bruce Brown secretary. The attendance was made up of members of the Twentieth Century club, teachers and the committees from the Chamber of Commerce and the brotherhoods.

The question was largely discussed from many angles and it was decided to appoint a committee of six with Miss to Mr. and Mrs. John Ell at the P. & Kramph as chairman to negotiate for the arrangements. The committee has Miss Alice Plummer, of Maxwell, ar. not yet been appointed but will be announced soon. Four of the committee will be chosen from the Twentieth Century club.

A block of ground near the green house, belonging to the Annheuser-Busch company, has been offered to the city free for use as a public playground but nothing definite has yet been done. Miss Kramph has made all the negotiation thus far. It was planned to hire an experienced man to take charge of the children. It will the city Tuesday visiting relatives and require several hundred dollars to profriends. He came down to attend the mote this project and a campaign) for funds will be made in the near future.
