CHANGE OF OWNERSHIP SALE

(From Semi-Weekly Tribune) Clothing Store Changes Hands

C. O. Weingand has disposed of his clothing store to W. R. Harcourt and L. P. Jensen, of Omaha, who took possession yesterday morning. The firm name will be Harcourt & Jensen. Both men are experienced clothiers. Mr. Harcourt was for a number of years with the Nebraska Clothing Co. and Mr. Jensen was an employe of the Berg Co., and also with Swanson, and has clothing business experience covering a score of years.

Messrs. Harcourt and Jensen will both make their home here, and the latter will bring his family here as soon as he can make the necessary arrangements.

The new firm will increase the present stock and will at all times aim to carry a line of goods that will merit the patronage and confidence of the purchasing public. Messrs. Harcourt and Jensen will be glad to have you drop in and become acquainted.

Having purchased the good will, stock and fixtures of C. O. Weingand we will dispose of same beginning Saturday, May 16th, at 7:30 a. m. and continuing until every article bearing the name of C. O. Weingand has been disposed of REGARDLESS OF COST.

Think of it! Spring and Summer Suits at Less than Cost.

NOTE---This is a strictly Bonafide Sale to dispose of every article of Weingand's Stock; no job lots of goods have been purchased for this event. Every article bears the Weingand stamp of approval. We have engaged no sale company but are strictly upon our own resources. This sale will be conducted by William Harcourt, L. P. Jensen, C. O. Weingand, Harry Samuelson and Leonard Redmond.

No Misstatements, no Fakes, but Real Bargains.

Not a price mark has been changed, every article bears the original mark placed there by C. O. Weingand.
