C. C. Hupfer, of the Vienna Gato, has installed a fifteen hundred dollar electric violina-virtuoso, an instrument that renders very pleasant violin solos with piano accompaniment. It is said to be the most delicate and intricate musical instrument made, and though automatic in every detail, the music rendered has the expression that is lacking in most of the player-instruments. It is quite a treat to listen to the music produced by this instrument, and is held in great favor by the patrons of the Vienna, who now have music while they eat.

A number of the members of the Eporth league enjoyed a picnic Tuesday evening in the canyons south of the city. They made the trip out in a large wagon and spent the evening in the canyons, returning at a late hour. A picnic lunch was served and everybody reports a pleasant time.
