STATE ENGINEER PRICE VISITS NORTH PLATTE

State Engineer D. D. Price of Lincoln and Assistant Engineer Mason, arrived in the city Wednesday en route to Scotts Bluffs where they are to prosecute a case against an irrigation company for turning water into their ditches when orders were given forbidding the use of the water. While here he conferred with Attorney W. V. Hoagland of this city in regard to some matters pertaining to the use of the water from the Pathfinder dam.

Mr. Hoagland took up with him the question involving the right of the government to hold all of the surplus water at the present time in their dam while the people along the river need it for irrigation purposes. It is estimated that they have 1,083,000 acre feet of water stored there and that they can not possibly use more than 300,000 acre feet this year. Mr. Hoagland maintains that the government is subject to the laws of the state and that the water being in the bed of the river, belongs to the people along the river and that the government has no right or power to hold more than is necessary for their use.

Mr. Price and Mr. Hoagland will take up the matter and investigate it and if necessary will take steps to compel the government to let the water loose a little at a time and allow the people of Dawson county and others along the river to use it.

It is also claimed by Mr. Price that the government has been holding more water than they are entitled to hold. That it takes three weeks for the water to run from the Pathfinder dam to Dawson county and that the government releases the first of the year only the amount of water that was needed instead of the regular flow of the river, thereby keeping more water than they were entitled to keep. That later in the season when the water was low here they would turn loose only the regular flow, although the ditches in this part needed more than that amount and were rightfully entitled to it on account of the shortage that had been released when the water was high. Steps will be taken to try and compel the government to let this water loose.

Mr. Price also said that the Tri-state canal was shut down Tuesday of this week for six days to allow for repairs and that for these six days the water would be turned loose in all other ditches. As soon as the repairs are made, however, it will be shut down again and this opportunity should be taken advantage of as soon as possible.

County Treasurer A. N. Durbin was a business visitor in the south part of the county this week and he reports that the crops are looking fine after the rain Tuesday evening. Good rains are reported all over the county and the farmers are all assuming that historical smile.

Big Store Changes Hands

The transfer was made yesterday by which a new corporation, to be known as the North Platte Hardware and Furniture Co., took over the furniture and hardware business of the A. A. Schatz company. This business change has been hanging fire for some time, but the change was consummated only yesterday.

The incorporators of the new firm are J. Q. Wilcox, Andrew T. Yost, Byers, Fink and Everett Fink. Mr. Wilcox has been in the merchandise business in this city for a number of years and needs no introduction to North Platte people. He is president and general manager of the Wilcox Department store. Mr. Yost was employed for eleven years in the grocery department of E. T. Tramp & Son and is well known as a good business man. The Fink brothers were employed for fourteen years in the Wilcox department store and they are well known to many. They recently returned from Oklahoma where they were engaged in business enterprises. It is the intention of the new firm to conduct a complete hardware and furniture business and the men are all men of good moral and business integrity and men in whom the public can place confidence. They took charge of the store yesterday and will operate it from now on.

NOTICE

Having sold our hardware and furniture business and all book accounts to the North Platte Hardware and Furniture Co., we wish to notify all persons owing us money on open account or furniture leases that the same is to be paid to North Platte Hardware and Furniture Co.
