DR. BERTHA MANGON WEDS COTNER MAN

A very pretty wedding was solemnized Sunday evening at the Christian church when Dr. Bertha Mangon of this city was united in marriage to Clinton H. Thomson of Shenandeah, for $16.00. Iowa. The wedding was an elaborate affair and was held immediately following the church services. H. G. stood adjourned until tomorrow, Knowles performed the ceremony after which a reception was held in the basement of the church.

The bridal party entered the church from the side door shortly after nine o'clock to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Mrs. Ora DeFord. Mr. Knowles led the party and he was followed by Misses Margaret VanCleave and Corrine Highberger, the flower girls. Following them came little Tracy DeFord bearing the ring in a large rose and after them came Mr. John B. Thomson and Mrs. Eva Reddick, best man and matron of honor. The bride and groom entered last. After they had taken their places Mrs. Dimmick sang "O. Promise Me," and the ceremony was then performed. The full ring ceremony was used.

The bride wore crope meteor trimmed with shadow lace. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom, and her gown was also trimmed with nearly. She wore a vail caught with a bouquet of wild flowers and carried a bouquet of carnatons.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mr. Charles Mangon of this city. She came here less than a year ago from Cotner university where she graduated in medicine and opened up a practice. She is an admirable young lady and has a host of friends who will join in wishing her happiness. The groom has also recently graduated from Cotner and is a student pastor. They will make their home here until the first part of September when hey will leave for Indianapolis. where they will spend a year studying in a school of missions. After that they expect to take some foriegn field and go as medical mission-

A large number attended the reception given in the basement of the church following the ceremony. Miss Mildred McKeown and Miss Pauline Baldock presided at the punch bowl. The out of town guess were Mrs. Eva | rent, $9.00. Reddick of Lincoln, sister of the bride and Mr. John B. Thomson of Shenandoah, Iowa, brother of the groom.

Former Resident Visits Old Home Adjutant General George Patterson arrived in the city Saturday for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Patterson. Mr. Patterson is enroute from Texas City, Texas, to the Philippines where he will be adjutant general of the United States troops. He had been located at Texas City for some time and he was adjutant gener- and heretofore granted. al of the fifth brigade. He will remain here for only a few days.

Adjutant General Patterson is an old North Platte boy who has made good. He entered West Point in 1892 and graduated from there in 1896. From then on he continued to rise in the war service until now he has a good responsible position.

Big Crop for Nebraska and Iowa In a full page story the Saturday Blade, with a circulation of 1,250,000, pays glowing tribute to Nebraska, Iowa and Omaha. Reference is made to the wonderful yields of Nebraska and Iowa soil and to the opportunities offered in these states and city. "This year Omaha expects to set new records in its grain, live-stock, manufacturing and other activities," says the Blade. "An ambitious program but all signs point to its fulfillment. The good fortune of Nebraska and Iowa means much. Yet there is more to be considered. There is every indication that records will be broken in the corn belt. It is a big year for wheat, corn, oats, rye and alfalfa. "The development of Nebraska and surrounding territory is reflected in the wonderful growth of the city which lies at its doors. Through Omaha the products of this rich territory find the way to the markets of the world. It can thus be seen what the development of the fertile soil means.'

NOT THE ONLY ONE

There Are Other North Platte People Similarly Situated.

Can there be any stronger proof offered than the evidence of North Platte residents? After you have read the following, quietly answer the question.

Mrs. Christina Pickett, 318 E. Street, North Platte, Neb., says: have used Doan's Kidney Pills, procured at McDonell & Graves' Drug Store, (now Schiller & Co.'s), and have found them to be just the remedy I needed for backache and other kidney disorders. When I am suffering from these troubles, I take Doan's Kidney Pills and they give me relief. Others of my family have taken Doan's Kidney Pills with fine results.'

Mrs. Pickett is only one of many North Platte people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your Ridneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills' the same that Mrs. Pickett had-the the remedy backed by home testimony, 50c all stores.
