We talked with twelve or fifteen farmers from different sections of the county yesterday and all said that corn was holding its own remarkably well. In some fields where there is alkali the corn is practically gone and in other fields where there has been a lack of cultivation the same condition exists, yet generally speaking the crop so far is in very fair condition.

County Treasurer and Mrs. A. N. Durbin and Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Souder returned Wednesday from Lincoln where they attended the republican state convention. They report a well attended convention and a fine time, and state that much was accomplished this year. They made the trip by automobile and report that many of the crops along the route are suffering considerably from want of rain.

The behavior of the republicans in the state convention shows that the party is fast putting itself in position to come back into power with credit to itself and to the profit of the republic. The delegates reflected the sentiments of the rank and file when they met in harmonious session, buried the past neatly and completely, and decided to work together in the future for the making of a better and cleaner government.—State Journal.

"I am a little surprised that you North Platte men who believe in having everything appear neat," remarked a south side farmer yesterday. "do not see that the tall sunflowers and weeds along the Locust street road leading to the South river bridge are not cut. Certainly the rank growth of this vegetation is not attractive, and is not likely to favorably impress the tourists entering the city." This little prod by this farmer is deserved; the proper authorities should see that the weeds are cut

The Independents will cross bats with the Ogalalla bunch Sunday on the local diamond and a fast game is assured. The two teams have met twice with the score in favor of the Ogalalla men. However, the locals outplayed them and the games were lost on errors. The team has been greatly strengthened since then and they have also been doing some hard practicing. Guy Grim, the fast third sacker who recently came here from Cozad, will be in the game. Langford will also be able to take his place at shortstop.

PROMINENT WALLACE MAN BOUND TO DISTRICT COURT

Guy Fear, a prominent business man of Wallace, was bound over to the district court Monday afternoon by Judge Grant on the charge of bastardy. The charges were preferred against him by Miss Gladys Ridenour, a sixteen-year-old girl of the Wallace vicinity. After hearing the testimony of the girl the court found in her favor and bound Fear over on bonds of $2,000 which he furnished.

Miss Ridenour alleges that Fear is the father of her unborn child. She lives with her parents in the Wallace vicinity and claims that she stayed with Mr. and Mrs. Fear last winter while she attended school. She alleges that during last December Fear was guilty of the crime alleged, while she was stopping at his home.

Fear is a prominent business man of Wallace and a number of his friends accompanied him here to testify in his favor. A number of witnesses were called on the case to testify as to the character of Mr. Fear and as soon as the bond was fixed they furnished it for Fear's appearance at the jury term of the district court.

YEOMEN WILL HOLD THEIR SECOND ANNUAL PICNIC

At the meeting of the local home-stead of American Yeomen Tuesday evening plans were begun for their second annual picnic. No definite arrangements have been made as yet, but they promise something good for the people of North Platte. They held a picnic last year which was a success from every standpoint of having a good time and they hope to give a more elaborate affair this year.

The date decided upon for the picnic is August 25th, and they extend a hearty invitation to all the residents of North Platte to come out and enjoy themselves and make the thing a success. They will also adopt a large class on the evening of August 25th and one of the Supreme officers will be present to assist in putting on the work. The full program will be announced later.

Class of 1912 Celebrate

A number of the North Platte alumni of the class of 1912 enjoyed a picnic in the canyons Tuesday evening. About fifteen members of the old class were present and a pleasant evening was enjoyed. They left here about 8 o'clock in a hay rack and in automobiles and drove to the canyons where they built a large bonfire and served a fine feed. The evening was spent with making merry in the canyons. Those from out of the city who attended were Loren Holcomb of Sutherland and Steele Halcob of Maxwell.

Mayor LaFontaine, of Cheyenne, has sent Mayor Evans fly blankets advertising the Frontier Days celebration which will be held August 18th to 21st. The blankets have been turned over to John Koontz who will use them on the street sprinkler team.

Local Ball Association Will Put on Tournament

FASTEST TEAMS IN WESTERN PART OF STATE WILL PARTICIPATE—PRIZES GIVEN

For Three Days Two Games Will Be Played Daily—Ogalalla, Willow Island and Hershey will be Invited to Take Part.

Manager Robinson has begun plans for a big baseball tournament to be held on the local diamond for three days beginning August 19th. Three of the fastest teams in the western part of the state besides the North Platte aggregation will be asked to join, and three days of good baseball are assured the sport-lovers of this city and the neighboring towns.

Two good games will be played daily and some good prizes will be offered for the winning teams. About three hundred and fifty dollars will be given away in prizes for the three days. The local association is backing the tournament and they will sure enough put it on. Ogalalla, Willow Island and Hershey will be asked to take part and possibly Maywood will be invited to join in the festivities. Every team will play each day and an umpire will be hired for the three days. Each team participating will have to agree to abide with the decisions of the umpire and the umpire will have authority to put off the field any man that does not follow the rules.

The North Platte management has been furnishing some good amusement in the line of baseball this season and more interest has been shown than ever before. This is the first time a project of this nature has been tried out here, but it will undoubtedly be a success if the people of North Platte get behind it and help the management to make it a winner. These tournaments have been put on in many towns much smaller than North Platte with great success and the little town of Eustis will have one of these for three days beginning August 12th.

Manager Robinson has secured some more good players that will help make the local team a winner. Bailey, who worked in the game Sunday against Willow Island, will probably be on hand and others among the local boys are developing into good players. The tournament will also draw large crowds from many of the neighboring towns.

Republicans Get Together. At the state republican convention at Lincoln Tuesday past differences were buried and disagreements smoothed over by the united desire of the delegates to work out a platform upon which the republican candidates can go before the people with certainty of success.

State Chairman Epperson and Currie vied with each other in working for the common interest, and the convention as a whole throbbled with the purpose of accomplishing something upon which the united republicanism of the state can stand and fight in the coming elections. No slates were made or broken, and the attempts of trouble makers to center the eyes of the curious upon themselves for a few minutes as a whole.

Moving to Columbus.

R. F. Stuart, who has conducted a plumbing shop in North Platte for three years, is packing his stock preparatory to shipment to Columbus, where he will engage in the same business. Mrs. Stuart left for Columbus yesterday and Mr. Stuart will follow in a few days. Business prospects seemed brighter in Columbus than here, hence the removal. Mr. and Mrs. Stuart leave many friends who wish them well in Columbus, where both formerly lived.

Circus Well Attended.

The Robinson show, which exhibited in town Wednesday, attracted the attendance of an unusual number of country residents. Fully one hundred automobiles were driven in from the country and county towns, while hundreds came in buggies and wagons. The parade at noon was witnessed by several thousand people who lined the streets through which the pageant passed. Several new features were introduced at the show, and the performance as a whole was very satisfactory.

Block Will Increase Stock.

H. I. Block, of the Block Outfitting Store, who is now in the east purchasing a fall stock, writes that he is buying heavily and will have a much larger stock this fall than he has heretofore carried. Since opening business in North Platte, Mr. Block has learned the needs of the local trade and with the advantage of this knowledge he is making purchases that he is confident will prove satisfactory to the most critical buyer. He has gone east early to do his buying in order to have a correspondingly early opening of fall styles, and through this opening the ladies of North Platte and vicinity will first learn of the latest fall and winter styles.

The success of the Block store warrants Mr. Block in largely increasing his stock, and no doubt the ladies who desire the latest effects in wearing apparel will await with interest the fall opening of the Block store.
